

LOCALS

From Paunina—Mrs. C. M. Sheehan, resident of Paunina, which was recently re-christened from the unmusical name of "Skookum," was among the business visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls Tuesday.

Fort Klamath—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from the Fort Klamath district included J. F. Martin, who is a land owner and merchant of that city.

Kirk—Out of town shoppers in Klamath Falls include Mrs. A. C. Palmer, resident of Kirk, who spent Tuesday in the city with friends.

Visit—Mrs. Docia Norris enjoyed a visit yesterday afternoon from her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meeks of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Veatch also of Cottage Grove. They are enroute to the valley after an enjoyable trip to Crater lake.

Principals—For the principal members of the cast of the "Pirates of Penzance" which will be presented early in September by the Kiwanis club, a rehearsal was held last night. This evening all members of the cast will rehearse in the chamber of commerce. According to Charles D. Hazelrigg, who is directing the production, he is exceedingly well pleased with the material with which he has been given to work.

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. George A. Wirtz had as their dinner guests on Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Camp of Sacramento, Miss Steinbach of San Francisco, E. S. Austin of Chico, Mr. and Mrs. Burton E. Lee and Miss Ruth Dixon of Klamath Falls.

Registration—The peak of the tourist season has apparently been reached with the registration of foreign cars reaching 20 yesterday in the chamber of commerce. All but two of these visitors were from California, the others, one from Texas, the other from Illinois.

Hornbrook—Among the visitors in the city yesterday from northern California was W. H. Lee and family, who are enjoying a touring visit of the coast from their home in Hornbrook.

Merrill—Jerry T. Ryan, well known rancher of the Merrill district, was in the city yesterday to transact necessary affairs.

With Hawkins—Mr. and Mrs. Burt L. Hawkins entertained informally at dinner last night at their home for Rev. and Mrs. Scoblefield and daughter, Miss Gertrude Stubblefield, who are visiting from the south.

Waco—Visitors in the city often times prove permanent residents and among the southern visitors who will remain for some time in Klamath Falls is M. E. Bagley of Waco, Texas, who has decided to make this section of the western coast his home in the future.

From The South—California tourists to arrive in the city this week include Douglas McWilliam and party of residents from Pleasant Grove.

Scarlet Fever—Improvement was noted in the condition of a man named Tikh of the Hot Springs Addition who is suffering from an attack of scarlet fever. According to Dr. Newsom, members of the family submitted to vaccination in order to prevent any contact which would prove contagious to others of that community.

Susanville—Ellis V. Spencer and party from Susanville are included in the list of visitors and tourists combined in the city for the remainder of the week.

Pine Grove—Mrs. G. J. Hilyard of Pine Grove is listed among the numerous visitors in the city Tuesday to spend their day shopping and visiting with friends.

Merrill—Miss Geneva Glenn spent Tuesday afternoon in the city making a hurried shopping trip to Klamath Falls from her home on the Merrill road, where her mother owns a ranch. Miss Glenn is planning to leave in September for the south where she will enter the University of California.

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theaters
FREE GARAGE Tariff from $1.50

Returns To Home—Friends of Mrs. Martin Peterson will be happy to know that she and her infant son, Robert J. Peterson, have been taken to their home yesterday. Young Peterson was born in the Klamath General hospital Sunday, August 2.

Returns—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bremer and family, after spending a number of years in the north, Seattle and vicinity, have returned to Klamath Falls, where they will make their permanent home. Believing as he always has, that Klamath Falls has an unequalled future, Bremer has opened an electric shop on Sixth street. During his residence in the city he served as superintendent of electrical construction for the California, Oregon Power company.

To Ashland—Mrs. George J. Walton, and daughter Miss Beatrice Walton, made a hurried business and pleasure trip to Ashland Tuesday evening, motoring to the valley.

From Merrill—Among the out of town business visitors in the city yesterday was Bert Barrows, resident of the neighboring town of Merrill. Barrows is owner of a large cattle ranch in Modoc county near Adin.

From The Fort—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mrs. J. H. Beckley, resident of Fort Klamath, who spent the day shopping and visiting with friends. Mrs. Beckley is owner of one of the largest cattle ranches in the Fort Klamath country.

Arrested—H. F. Buck, employed with the Link River Electric company, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Traffic Officer R. E. Knowles, charged with parking on the highway near Lamm's mill. He is slated to appear before Justice of the Peace Kendall at 10 a. m. today.

Expected Home—Miss Jean Perry is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls the latter part of the week from Portland, Astoria and Seattle, where she has spent the past fortnight visiting with friends and relatives. She also spent several days at Seaside. According to word received by Miss Perry, her mother, Mrs. James Perry, has been greatly benefited by her summer's visit in the north for which she was sent in order to improve her health.

Glene—Mrs. A. R. Campbell, well known resident of the Glene district spent Wednesday in the city visiting with friends, and shopping in the Klamath stores.

Lake Misty—According to visitors at Crater lake, both tourists and residents of Klamath Falls, Crater lake has not been at its best for the past week and whether it is the smoke from forest fires in the atmosphere or whether a general hazy condition is prevalent, the lake when seen from the rim has lost much of the deep blue for which it is so celebrated.

Submits To Operation—Mrs. Norma Jeffries submitted to a minor operation in the Klamath Valley hospital yesterday morning and according to friends will remain in the hospital for several days. Her condition was reported as very satisfactory last night.

'I WON'T Be a 'Pathetic Figure' in Congress,' Says Mrs. Rogers

Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers of Lowell, elected to the fifth Massachusetts district to succeed her late husband in congress, says she will not be a "pathetic figure" in congress. She hopes to be able to convince voters that women are just as efficient as lawmakers as men. She is seen in the garden of her home.

Langell Valley—Out of town visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mrs. R. C. Cowley, resident of Langell valley.

Chicago—Visitors from the midwest are not as frequent as they were earlier in the summer, however, several are noted each week. Among the Chicago residents to spend some time in this section is composed of John M. Trissal and party who are anxious to visit Crater lake and other resorts.

Odessa—Out of town business visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls Tuesday included M. H. Wampler, well known resident of Odessa.

Visiting—Miss Alice Hector is visiting for the remainder of the week at the home of Miss Gertrude Hillyard at the Hillyard ranch, which is located in the Pine Grove district.

From Medford—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blatt of Medford, are among the valley visitors in Klamath Falls this week, while in the city stopping at the Arcade hotel.

Bring Us Your HIDES
and PELTS

We are in the market for Hides and Pelts, and will pay the highest market price.

Lewis Grocery

223 S. 6th Phone 355

Frank & King's Comedians

in

The Big White Tent

Seventh and Pine Streets

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

The Funniest of All Swede Dramas

"OLE OLSEN'S SCHOOL DAYS"

Prices 25c and 50 c.

Jazz Orchestra

Malin—Miss Eva Myers is a visitor in Klamath Falls this week from her home in Malin.

From Kirk—Charles L. Lent, resident of Kirk is making a business visit to the city as is Leland Casey, resident of Prineville, who is planning to remain over the week-end in Klamath Falls.

Tourists—One of the few cars from Florida is in the city, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cram, residents of Vero Beach, Florida, tourists who are enjoying this section of the coast for several days. They also plan a Crater lake trip while in southern Oregon.

Grants Pass—Valley visitors in Klamath Falls this week include a party of Grants Pass residents who arrived in the city last night. Those in the party are Bert Stephen, M. D. Greer and F. S. Carter.

Lakeview—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harvey are visitors in Klamath Falls for several days, visiting with friends from their home in Lakeview.

Warren Co.—C. J. Garvin of Portland and E. C. Michener, also of Portland, both with the Warren Construction company are in the city in the interests of work with the company.

Sheepskin—A prominent sheepskin district, is in the business affairs...

From The Fort—A prominent resident of Klamath county, out of town...

Fire—John H. Slough

Small Boys' Caps 75c and $1

Caps for the little men, 3, 4, 5, and 6 years of age.

And, By The Way

We are going to show you some of the nicest suits for small, smart-dressing boys and high school youths, in a short time. Wait to see them.

You can't stretch a dollar, but there is a place where you can get more for it.

SHEPHERD'S RADIO SLASHED.

$35 Two-Trousers Suits $3

Consider the Extra Wear!

If clothes economy means anything to you, then the Suits you buy here with extra trousers will go a long way in helping you solve any financial problem.

Here they are in the season's newest styles and high grade fabrics.

Klamath Clothing Kompan

LEADING CLOTHIERS

24 Years in Klamath Falls.