

BLY

Modern "Lewis and Clark Expedition" Nears Goal

A modern "Lewis and Clark expedition" has passed the half way mark in its journey across the United States from Astoria, Ore., to New York, entirely by water. The map shows the route of the voyagers who are (l. to r.) Frank Wilton, motion picture cameraman; Val Woodbury, Los Angeles businessman, and John Edwin Hogg, leader. The photo shows their craft, the "Transcontinental" in the Mississippi river.

Mr. and Mrs. Edger Furbur and son Lewis were Klamath Falls visitors this week. C. R. Patterson was a county seat visitor Monday. Mr. Hale of the Merrill district was calling on S. L. Burnett Monday.

Mrs. C. R. Patterson and sons, Allen and Winston, have returned from California, where they ran a confectionery store.

Charles Wynn was calling on Miller Island this week.

The Hooper boys have begun plowing their grain.

Miss Jackson French of Klamath Falls, spent the week-end with Miss Anna Burnett.

Word has been received from Rescoe Largent. It was reported that several pieces of the shell were found embedded deep in the eye.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ruyce and daughter, spent Saturday in Bly.

Mr. E. L. Burnett were in Bly Saturday.

Flowers spent several days with George Burdette.

R. Barnett spent Tuesday on Miller Island.

B. Hooper and daughter were in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wimer of Coquille, Ore., who have been staying in the Wood River camp ground, motored around the rim of Crater lake Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Martin, son and daughters, Joe, Vivian and Virginia, Mrs. R. A. Moon and daughter, Elsie, Ray Parker, and Mr. Casey, were transacting business in the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Eagle, son and daughter, Melvin and Marie, who have been away on a short vacation, returned to their home Saturday.

Miss Leatha Gray, of Klamath Agency, was here Saturday visiting relatives. She returned to her home Sunday.

R. O. Varnum of Chiloquin, was a social visitor here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller spent Tuesday afternoon in Chiloquin, visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Hessig and family. Mrs. Hessig is Mrs. Miller's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank and two daughters passed through here Sunday when going to Crater lake.

Mrs. Sam King has as visitors with her this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mayo, and Robert Roland of San Francisco. Mr. Mayo is Mrs. King's brother. Robert is her nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sismore spent Sunday at the Copco picnic.

Pete O'Connor, who has been away for some time, has returned to home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAuliffe. Mrs. McAuliffe is Pete's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bennett, and daughters, Erna and Norma, and nephew, Norman Wimer, spent the week-end at the huckleberry patch.

J. L. Gordon has sold his garden to T. J. Jackson and he and his family intend to go to California for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford, owners of the Crawford fox and chicken farm, recently purchased a pair of purebred German shepherd dogs.

Mrs. Will Nicholson and son, Lloyd, and Miss Fern Leever, after spending a few days in Rogue River valley, returned here Sunday evening.

A large crowd attended the vaudeville given here in Martin's hall Sunday evening by the Murray & Murray show troupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moffet passed through here Sunday when going to huckleberry patch. Mr. and Mrs. Moffet's home is in Klamath Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mayfield and two sons, Billy and Donald, of Central Point, motored through here Sunday on their way to the Beaver Marsh to look after their cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and daughter and two sons, of Rogue River valley, registered in the Wood River camp ground Tuesday. They were inquiring about a number of old acquaintances who used to live in Rogue River.

Mrs. E. K. Loosley and Mrs. Dr. Charles Pius, of Montague, Calif., were here Tuesday. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Loosley.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grigsby, who have been camping in the Wood River camp ground for about six weeks, left Tuesday evening and moved to the Cox ranch where Mr. Grigsby will work on the hay baler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller motored to Medford Sunday, returning Monday evening. Mr. Miller owns some property here.

Messrs. J. D. Newsom, W. H. Bartlett, and George Shumway passed through here Friday on their way to Crater lake. They spent the week-end there.

Chester Jackson, who spent a few days in Medford with his mother, returned here Monday evening.

Miss Jessie Gray, who has been visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray, for some time, went back to her home in Klamath Agency Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Windsor, Thelma Windsor, and Mr. Windsor's mother and brother, stopped here on their way back from Crater lake Sunday evening.

From the result of falling from a telephone pole last Friday, Frank Woods is suffering with a broken nose and other injuries. He was taken to the hospital, but is again able to be around.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Blehn of Klamath Falls, passed through our valley Sunday, enroute to Bly to spend a week's vacation fishing.

J. R. Welch and son Ivan were shopping in Hildebrand Sunday.

T. A. Roberts was a Klamath Falls visitor Thursday.

Martin Huff, who has been running the Sterzy saw mill, moved his engine home to Swan lake and intended to start his threshing machine Monday of this week.

David Blisa has returned home from a two weeks' visit in the Rogue river valley.

There was a tent show given in Hildebrand Monday evening, Aug. 10, which was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter and their aunt, Mrs. George Ritter, attended church in Klamath Falls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Egert and grandson Ray, have gone to the huckleberry patch for a 10 days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woelk and family visited with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haglestein of Algoma Sunday.

C. H. Flackus was transacting business in Klamath Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Linzi expect to leave for Gazelle, Calif., to spend the winter there, as Mr. Linzi is going to work in one of the saw mills.

Mrs. Alfred Lilly of Klamath Falls is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton and son Lynn are helping Johnnie Anderson put up his hay crop.

J. P. Colahan is helping J. G. Wight with his haying.

L. A. Sterzl has been quite busy irrigating his second crop of alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Govner of Bonanza, have moved in the Dr. Harris house near Hildebrand while Mr. Govner is employed at the Long Pine Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Egert returned home Tuesday from the huckleberry patch.

Mrs. Manuel Vieira and children visited Sunday with Mr. Vieira at their Sprague River ranch.

Harry Wood was a visitor in our valley Monday from the Cruze saw mill.

MIDLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conner spent Saturday at Crater lake, where they enjoyed the beautiful scenery.

Mr. E. L. Burnett were in Bly Saturday.

Flowers spent several days with George Burdette.

R. Barnett spent Tuesday on Miller Island.

B. Hooper and daughter were in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wimer of Coquille, Ore., who have been staying in the Wood River camp ground, motored around the rim of Crater lake Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Martin, son and daughters, Joe, Vivian and Virginia, Mrs. R. A. Moon and daughter, Elsie, Ray Parker, and Mr. Casey, were transacting business in the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Eagle, son and daughter, Melvin and Marie, who have been away on a short vacation, returned to their home Saturday.

Miss Leatha Gray, of Klamath Agency, was here Saturday visiting relatives. She returned to her home Sunday.

R. O. Varnum of Chiloquin, was a social visitor here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller spent Tuesday afternoon in Chiloquin, visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Hessig and family. Mrs. Hessig is Mrs. Miller's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank and two daughters passed through here Sunday when going to Crater lake.

Mrs. Sam King has as visitors with her this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mayo, and Robert Roland of San Francisco. Mr. Mayo is Mrs. King's brother. Robert is her nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sismore spent Sunday at the Copco picnic.

Pete O'Connor, who has been away for some time, has returned to home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAuliffe. Mrs. McAuliffe is Pete's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bennett, and daughters, Erna and Norma, and nephew, Norman Wimer, spent the week-end at the huckleberry patch.

J. L. Gordon has sold his garden to T. J. Jackson and he and his family intend to go to California for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford, owners of the Crawford fox and chicken farm, recently purchased a pair of purebred German shepherd dogs.

Mrs. Will Nicholson and son, Lloyd, and Miss Fern Leever, after spending a few days in Rogue River valley, returned here Sunday evening.

A large crowd attended the vaudeville given here in Martin's hall Sunday evening by the Murray & Murray show troupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moffet passed through here Sunday when going to huckleberry patch. Mr. and Mrs. Moffet's home is in Klamath Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mayfield and two sons, Billy and Donald, of Central Point, motored through here Sunday on their way to the Beaver Marsh to look after their cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and daughter and two sons, of Rogue River valley, registered in the Wood River camp ground Tuesday. They were inquiring about a number of old acquaintances who used to live in Rogue River.

Mrs. E. K. Loosley and Mrs. Dr. Charles Pius, of Montague, Calif., were here Tuesday. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Loosley.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grigsby, who have been camping in the Wood River camp ground for about six weeks, left Tuesday evening and moved to the Cox ranch where Mr. Grigsby will work on the hay baler.

FT. KLAMATH

FORT KLAMATH, Aug. 13.—Miss Ruth Nichols is here visiting with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cardwell, after spending a year or so with her sister in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wimer of Coquille, Ore., who have been staying in the Wood River camp ground, motored around the rim of Crater lake Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Martin, son and daughters, Joe, Vivian and Virginia, Mrs. R. A. Moon and daughter, Elsie, Ray Parker, and Mr. Casey, were transacting business in the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Eagle, son and daughter, Melvin and Marie, who have been away on a short vacation, returned to their home Saturday.

Miss Leatha Gray, of Klamath Agency, was here Saturday visiting relatives. She returned to her home Sunday.

R. O. Varnum of Chiloquin, was a social visitor here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller spent Tuesday afternoon in Chiloquin, visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Hessig and family. Mrs. Hessig is Mrs. Miller's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank and two daughters passed through here Sunday when going to Crater lake.

Mrs. Sam King has as visitors with her this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mayo, and Robert Roland of San Francisco. Mr. Mayo is Mrs. King's brother. Robert is her nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sismore spent Sunday at the Copco picnic.

Pete O'Connor, who has been away for some time, has returned to home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McAuliffe. Mrs. McAuliffe is Pete's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bennett, and daughters, Erna and Norma, and nephew, Norman Wimer, spent the week-end at the huckleberry patch.

J. L. Gordon has sold his garden to T. J. Jackson and he and his family intend to go to California for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Crawford, owners of the Crawford fox and chicken farm, recently purchased a pair of purebred German shepherd dogs.

Mrs. Will Nicholson and son, Lloyd, and Miss Fern Leever, after spending a few days in Rogue River valley, returned here Sunday evening.

A large crowd attended the vaudeville given here in Martin's hall Sunday evening by the Murray & Murray show troupe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moffet passed through here Sunday when going to huckleberry patch. Mr. and Mrs. Moffet's home is in Klamath Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mayfield and two sons, Billy and Donald, of Central Point, motored through here Sunday on their way to the Beaver Marsh to look after their cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White and daughter and two sons, of Rogue River valley, registered in the Wood River camp ground Tuesday. They were inquiring about a number of old acquaintances who used to live in Rogue River.

Mrs. E. K. Loosley and Mrs. Dr. Charles Pius, of Montague, Calif., were here Tuesday. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Loosley.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grigsby, who have been camping in the Wood River camp ground for about six weeks, left Tuesday evening and moved to the Cox ranch where Mr. Grigsby will work on the hay baler.

HILDEBRAND

HILDEBRAND, Aug. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Blehn of Klamath Falls, passed through our valley Sunday, enroute to Bly to spend a week's vacation fishing.

J. R. Welch and son Ivan were shopping in Hildebrand Sunday.

T. A. Roberts was a Klamath Falls visitor Thursday.

Martin Huff, who has been running the Sterzy saw mill, moved his engine home to Swan lake and intended to start his threshing machine Monday of this week.

David Blisa has returned home from a two weeks' visit in the Rogue river valley.

There was a tent show given in Hildebrand Monday evening, Aug. 10, which was enjoyed by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritter and their aunt, Mrs. George Ritter, attended church in Klamath Falls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Egert and grandson Ray, have gone to the huckleberry patch for a 10 days' stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woelk and family visited with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haglestein of Algoma Sunday.

C. H. Flackus was transacting business in Klamath Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Linzi expect to leave for Gazelle, Calif., to spend the winter there, as Mr. Linzi is going to work in one of the saw mills.

Mrs. Alfred Lilly of Klamath Falls is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton and son Lynn are helping Johnnie Anderson put up his hay crop.

J. P. Colahan is helping J. G. Wight with his haying.

L. A. Sterzl has been quite busy irrigating his second crop of alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Govner of Bonanza, have moved in the Dr. Harris house near Hildebrand while Mr. Govner is employed at the Long Pine Lumber company.

Mr. and Mrs. Emile Egert returned home Tuesday from the huckleberry patch.

Mrs. Manuel Vieira and children visited Sunday with Mr. Vieira at their Sprague River ranch.

Harry Wood was a visitor in our valley Monday from the Cruze saw mill.

MONEY TALKS

But It Can Not Tell You Where To Spend It That Part Of It Is Up To You

Dress Shoe Special $3.75

To clean up odds and ends in broken lines that cannot be replaced at present prices. All sizes, but not in all styles. $6.50 to $8.50 values, while they last

$3.75

SUITCASES

$1.65 to $20.00

BAGS

$1.50 to $20.00

TRUNKS

$8.50 to $30.00

For Dress or Outings

CROWN "PLADS"

The All-Wool Knit Bottom Shirts

Latest Plaids and Checks

$5.50 and $6.00

Also a Complete Line of Sweaters in Latest Designs.

Either Coat Style or "Pull Overs"

Priced From

$5.50 to $7.50

JERSEY COAT SWEATERS $4.00

Work Shoe Special

$4.85

Capped Toes, Moccasin and Plain Toes

Full Leather Soles

Full Vamp, Rubber Heels, Triple Stitched

All of these shoes sell regularly for $6.00

NOW $4.85

Ask for the "Oro"

A DOLLAR WILL ONLY DO WHAT YOU WILL DO

WITH IT—GET EVERY PENNY OUT OF IT

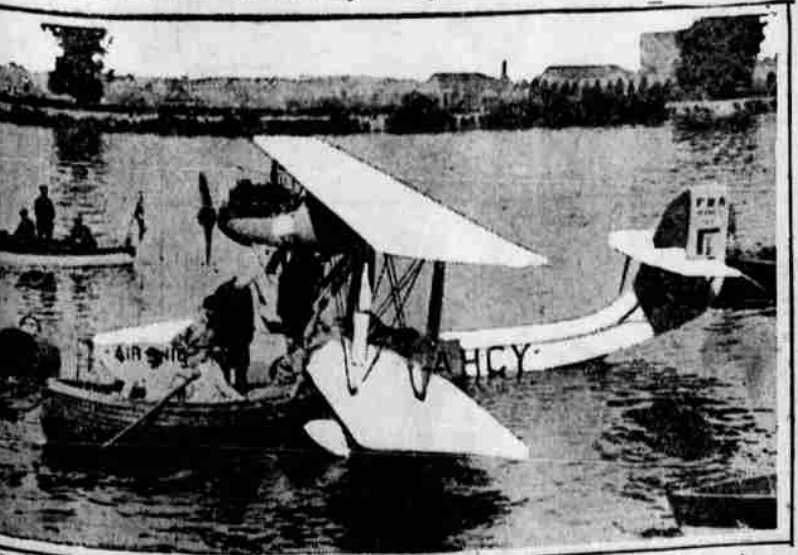

LLOYD RYAN

Clothier

Main At Ninth St.

Home of the Workingmen

Amphibian Planes Linked by Amphibian Passenger Planes

Amphibian planes, equipped to land on either earth or water, are now maintaining regular service on a 150-minute schedule between the Seine, Paris, and the Thames, London. One of the craft is seen arriving on the English side.