

LOCALS

Olene—Fred Grienen, well known rancher of the Olene road, is in Klamath Falls.

Merrill—George Latta, prominent Merrill rancher with his sister, Miss Latta, were among the Tuesday visitors in Klamath Falls.

To Bend—"Red" Piper and B. Ladd returned yesterday from Bend where they drove a car back to Klamath Falls. According to Piper the roads were in excellent condition with the exception of the last few miles on the highway in the timber.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wood have returned to Klamath Falls after an interesting southern visit, where they have been traveling since July 4. They left Klamath for the south, going as far into Old Mexico as Tia Juana. They returned north by way of the inland route during which time they visited power plants and hydro-electric operations in California.

From The Lake—Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Boyd and two children have returned to Klamath Falls, following an interesting camping trip, where they spent some time at Diamond lake with Dr. Warren Hunt and party.

Walla Walla—Mrs. John L. Hayes of Walla Walla, Washington, arrived in the city the early part of the week to spend the remainder of the summer visiting with her sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hayes.

From Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neal of Ashland, prominent valley residents are in the city for some time to look into business interests in regard to their property holdings in Fort Klamath. While in this section Mr. and Mrs. Neal will spend a week on Wood River fishing, going on to Fort Klamath and then spending a week fishing on Cherry creek. They will visit with friends and relatives in Klamath Falls before returning to their home in the valley.

Returns—Morris Russell, nephew of Mrs. G. G. Hayes, has returned to his home in Redmond, Oregon, after visiting with friends and relatives for the past week. Russell left Monday morning for the north.

From Springfield—J. I. Powers, resident of Springfield, is in the city submitting to medical treatment from Dr. Barr. The visitor will leave for his home the latter part of the week.

Druggist—D. I. McGee, well known representative of Langley & Michaels company of San Francisco, prominent drug firm, is in the city for the remainder of the week on business.

Ill—Friends of Mrs. Jack Beal will be sorry to know that she was confined to her bed yesterday with a severe cold.

Fort—Wille May Woodcraft of Fort Klamath was among the business visitors in the city yesterday transacting business in the court house during a visit in Klamath Falls.

City Visitor—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday to transact business included Otis Osborn, resident of the Bly country.

Algoma—Among the Algoma visitors in the city this week was John Hagelstein, who spent Tuesday transacting affairs in Klamath Falls.

Merrill—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included George Knox, well known resident of the Merrill district.

Rancher In—Walter Robison who makes frequent business visits to Klamath Falls is included in the out of town guests in the city yesterday.

Visitor—W. H. Hatfield, well known resident of the Merrill district is included in the early part of the week visitors.

On Business—Among the frequent business visitors in Klamath Falls is John W. Taylor, who spent the early part of the week in the city.

From Malin—W. C. Dalton spent Tuesday visiting in Klamath Falls, transacting necessary business and attending the meeting of the chamber of commerce board of directors.

To Rocky Point—Miss Dorothy Curran is spending her fortnight's vacation at Rocky Point, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Art Wishard.

In Klamath—J. E. Wiley of the Southern Pacific division in Dunsmuir, is in Klamath Falls for the middle of the week, transacting business.

For New York—Mrs. George Biehn will leave this morning for Portland to take the trans-continental train to New York city, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Pearl Biehn, who has spent the past two months traveling in Europe, visiting England, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland and France. They will spend a fortnight in New York, and expect to return to the western coast the middle of September.

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin, Miss Dortha Martin and Miss Vivian Martin and Miss Betty Ramsey will be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson in their home in Merrill this evening.

For the South—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd left this morning for San Francisco, where they plan to attend the radio show. The Shepherds went south by way of Lake Tahoe and interesting sections in the valley.

In Tuesday—Among the out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was George Christy, well known lumber man, and a member of the Solomon-Butte Lumber company. The operations are located north of Kirk.

Keno—Ranchers to visit in the city yesterday included Ross Simms, well known rancher of the Keno district.

To Crater Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Walter West and sons, Walter and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. George West of Pal Alto, spent Tuesday visiting Crater lake and the resort.

Dorris—Prominent visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included J. F. Ethridge, resident of Dorris.

Bonanza—M. L. Walsh, well known resident of the Bonanza district, is among the visitors to spend yesterday in Klamath Falls.

In Tuesday—W. H. Swank, Dorris resident, spent the early part of the week in Klamath Falls.

In the City—Alex Afanasiff of Bonanza was a visitor in Klamath Falls the early part of the week transacting business affairs.

Merrill—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from the valley included V. A. Rajnas, well known rancher of the Merrill and Malin district.

Bonanza—H. H. Gubser of Bonanza was a visitor in Klamath Falls the early part of the week.

From The Marsh—Another visitor in Klamath Falls for the middle of the week is C. A. Ramsay of Beaver Marsh, who with Mrs. Ramsay will spend some time transacting business.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith returned last Monday night from a fortnight's visit in the valley, southern Washington and the other points of interest on the coast. They returned to Klamath Falls by way of Bend, driving south over the Dalles-California highway.

Visitor—Frank O. Pool, prominent Bonanza rancher is included in the numerous visitors to spend Tuesday in Klamath Falls.

Portland—G. B. Richmond, land agent for the Oregon Trunk railway, returned to the city last night, after a week's business visit in Portland.

Extra Rehearsals—There will be a rehearsal for the entire chorus and members of the cast of the "Pirates of Penzance," according to Charles D. Hazelrigg, director of the production, this evening. The rehearsal is called for 7:30 p. m.

From China-New York—The Arcade is most certainly a melting pot with all nations and all parts of the globe registering on their hotel sheet. Princess Chul Chee Toy of Canton, China, is among the illustrious ones in the city and under her name, on the next line is registered one William H. Osterfield.

Beaver Marsh—William Zumburn, resident of Beaver Marsh, is enjoying a visit for the remainder of the week in Klamath Falls.

Oakland—J. A. Campbell, Southern Pacific scale inspector of Oakland is visiting in the city on a short business trip.

From The South—Mr. and Mrs. P. Donnelly of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ford of Alameda are among the southern tourists in the city this week.

Oakland—Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Roberts, residents of Oakland, Calif. arrived in the city last night to spend some time before continuing to Crater lake, where they will spend some time.

Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Ned B. Winton of Portland are guests in Klamath Falls this week.

At The Hall—Among the interesting visitors in the city this week is Mrs. E. E. Kruse of Omaha, Nebraska. Mrs. Kruse is on her way east after visiting for some time with friends and relatives in Lakeview. She visited in the Hall hotel last night.

Hawkins—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Ellingson and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Ellingson, residents of Hawkins, Wisconsin, are among the visitors in Klamath Falls for the week. They plan a trip to Crater lake today.

San Francisco—A party of southern tourists in Klamath Falls this week include James H. Conner, I. C. Conner and Clara Biehn, all residents of San Francisco.

Sheepmen—Dad Estremad and Joe Echaandroena, both residents of Sacramento are among the visitors in Klamath Falls, interested in sheep buying.

Jacksonville—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week is G. A. Gardner, well known resident of Jacksonville.

Visiting—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Girard of Algoma are enjoying a visit from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Girard of Independence. The Senator Girards met their son and daughter in Klamath Falls last night, planning to return to the neighboring city today.

Fort Klamath—O. W. Nagle of Fort Klamath, well known rancher of that section is a business visitor in the city.

Man Jailor Here—Martin Ponce of Chiloquin, sentenced in Justice of the Peace Spink's court to serve a 60-day sentence in the county jail for alleged possession of liquor, was brought to Klamath Falls yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Shadley. Ponce also was ordered to pay a fine of $100.

Merrill In—C. H. Merrill, well known resident of that section of the county known as Merrill, is included in the business visitors in the city the early part of the week.

Chehalis—Mrs. B. J. Docherty of Chehalis, Washington, passed through Klamath Falls yesterday on her way to Lakeview where she will visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Doty. Mrs. Docherty stopped for a short time in the city yesterday to visit with her niece, Miss Kathryn Doty.

For The North—Mr. and Mrs. Ted Haas Jr. and Theodore Haas Sr., returned north to Hood River yesterday after an interesting visit in the Klamath country, visiting with their relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Haas Jr. will continue their journey, arriving at their home in Minneapolis the latter part of the month.

Better—Friends of Mrs. John Houston will be happy to learn that her condition was reported as improved last night, following an attack of blood poisoning when Mrs. Houston stepped on a rusty nail. The nail penetrated her foot and blood poison set in several hours after. The accident occurred Saturday.

For The East—Miss Donna Mack who taught Latin and Civic classes in the Klamath county high school during the past year will leave this morning for Boston, where she will enter Boston university to receive her master's degree in art. Miss Mack will also major in music and religious instruction while attending the eastern college. She does not expect to return to the coast until the summer of '26.

Grants Pass—Visitors in Klamath Falls from the valley include Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wetter of Grants Pass.

J. A. GOLDMITH
Custom Tailor
310 Winters Bldg.
Suits From $39.50 to $70.00

Whose Sox you wearin'? Your own, sure. Yes, but a lot of fellows wear Allen A's.

Cache or crash the old straw and take on the Fall Atmosphere and real dress appearance with a "Mellowfit" Felt $5 to $6

If you haven't got a driver's license you're takin' an awful chance pushin' a baby buggy.

New Clothes

for the New Season

Just arrived—the variety of the Fall showing in Suits and Topcoats. In particular there has been a decided change from spring. The coats are wedge-shaped; tapered waist and hug the hips. The trousers also are narrower, with 18-inch tops. In fabrics brown and blue will be prominently shown. All of which is introductory to an immense stock to come to this Store the new things.

$30 to $50

Klamath Clothing Kompany LEADING CLOTHIERS 24 Years In Klamath Falls

Only $725 Dodge Sedan With balloon tires, shock absorbers, full equipment. We consider this used car buy in Klamath County. Howie Motor Esplanade and Pine.

25¢ —is the right price to pay for a good tooth paste— LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE Large Tube 25¢

ONLY TWO WEEKS MORE Frank & King's Comedy in The Big White T Seventh and Pine Street Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday The Funniest Comedy Ever "THE WHOLE DAMN FAULT"