

LOCALS

Cofers Leave On Trip—Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cofer and daughters, Misses Ruth and Helen, left Tuesday morning for a fortnight's camping trip which will take them to Reno, Nevada, first going from there to Lake Tahoe, to Jackson, California to visit with Mrs. Cofer's parents. They will continue north up the Redwood highway to Klamath Falls.

To Visit In Odessa—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mr. and Mrs. Walter West and two sons, Billy and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. George West of Palo Alto, California, Miss Ruth Seales of Portland, Mrs. Norman Antler of Portland are planning to spend Friday at the George R. Lindley cabin on Odessa Creek, where they will enjoy fishing.

Shower for Newlyweds—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quick, were honored with a kitchen shower by a number of friends last night at their new home in the A. F. Simmons home. They are planning to move into their own residence in the near future and were the inspiration of the shower due to their recent marriage which occurred last month. Mrs. Quick will be remembered as Miss Thyra Bryant.

From San Francisco—J. McGregor hide buyer for a San Francisco house, is making a business visit to Klamath Falls and Klamath county.

Sheep Buyer In City—R. T. Carey, well known sheep buyer of San Francisco with Roth Blum Packing company of the Bay city, is in Klamath Falls for some time interested in shipping sheep south. According to Carey last night, he plans to ship 25,000 head of sheep to San Francisco between August and October 1. Sheep are higher this year than they have been for some time, due to the increased demand according to Carey's view point.

Income Tax Collector Returns—Dan W. Herring, income tax collector, who has spent the past week in Lakeview inspecting tax collections of Lake county, returned to Klamath Falls last night on his way to Medford, where he makes his home and headquarters.

In Hall Hotel—G. Ed Ross, resident of Salem, is in the city for the weekend from his home in the valley, stopping while in Klamath Falls at the Hall hotel.

Former Resident Here—F. L. Burns, former Klamath county resident, when he resided in Fort Klamath and served as president of the Anna Creek Lumber company during his ownership, has returned to Klamath Falls last night from his home in Sacramento. Burns has a host of friends in the city who will welcome his return.

Weed Residents In City—Mr. and Mrs. M. Mussallin of Weed, are among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week. They are planning to return to their home in the south in time to witness the Klamath Falls-Weed mix, however, on Sunday afternoon.

Oakland Residents Here—Alden Macomber, of the California State Automobile Association of Oakland with his mother, Mrs. Mary M. Macomber, also a resident of Oakland, are enjoying a visit in the city and the southern section of Oregon. They will leave soon for Crater Lake to enjoy the resort.

Union Oil Representative Here—H. R. Ramsay, representative of the Union Oil company of Los Angeles is in Klamath Falls for a brief business visit, arriving last night from his home in the south.

Return From Resort—Mr. and Mrs. James Darbin and family, residents of Detroit, Michigan, have returned to Klamath Falls after an enjoyable visit spent in Rocky Point where they also enjoyed their favorite pastime and last but not least in Crater Lake. They will return to their home in the east by the southern route.

From Modoc Point Today—Mrs. A. J. Childrester is spending the weekend in Klamath Falls from her home in Modoc Point enjoying a brief visit and shopping tour.

Contractors Open Offices—Dunn and Baker contractors, have opened their new offices at 429 Main street.

Case Is Dismissed—The case of Mrs. E. D. Langford against Grover Minard for collection of $122.75 alleged due, was dismissed yesterday by Justice of the Peace Kendall when the plaintiff failed to appear at the appointed time.

Visit At Crater Lake—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Vanice and family, and Mrs. J. Metcalf, together with Mrs. G. N. Clifton left yesterday for a short trip to Crater Lake.

Mr. Engle Visits—O. W. Engle, of Fort Klamath, was a visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday. Business was responsible for his trip.

Returns to Portland—After spending a short time visiting in Klamath Falls, O. E. Hunt yesterday returned to Portland.

Poe Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Taylor of Poe Valley were shopping with Klamath Falls merchants.

Visiting In City—Mrs. E. T. Givans and Mrs. Milton Smith of Hy. were in town for the day yesterday.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crantford and two sons, Raymond and Donald of Portland are registered at the Hall hotel. Mr. Crantford represents the Bankers' Reserve Life Insurance company in Omaha, Nebraska.

In Klamath—Mrs. Leo Coffenberry and daughter, Mary Louise, of Bray are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Glen Pratt this week.

In The City—Mrs. O. O. Parker and son Delmar of Medford are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls, on a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker of this city.

Portland Visitors—Eva C. Meyer, Mary A. Boyer, and Mary Jane Boyer, all residents of Portland form a party of three tourists who are enjoying a visit in Klamath Falls and the Crater Lake country.

Washington Man In City—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Corothers, citizens of the prominent and busy little city of Kelso, Wash., are visiting in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

Visitors from East—Miss Marie Noble, resident of St. Louis, Missouri, with Miss Charlotte Flohr, also from the eastern city, are among the visitors in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

Grants Pass Men Here—E. A. Murphy of Grants Pass, and A. B. Davis, also resident of the valley city, are among the business visitors transacting affairs in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

Lakeview Visitor—Mrs. Ora Bagley, well known resident of Lakeview and who has a host of friends in the city is spending several days in Klamath Falls visiting and transacting business affairs.

Tourists From Boston—Major L. Lesser with his daughter, Miss F. Lesser are among the far eastern visitors in Klamath Falls this week. Major Lesser and his daughter are planning to visit Crater Lake and return to their home on the Atlantic coast via the southern route.

Williams From Malin—H. O. Williams, well known Malin rancher, and a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls, is among the out of town guests in the city for the week-end.

Countess for Day

For a day, Victoria Augustynowicz, New York stenographer, and her sister, Mrs. Wanda Dulak, Chicago, who had just been informed by the Polish government that they were countesses of the blood, dreamed of barrels of gold and gems, legendary family treasure. Then, they learned that as Poland is now a republic, the titles were only names; and as for the fortune, well, there wasn't any. Mrs. Dulak is shown.

Debs Tells World Socialists Will "Name Their Own"

Eugene V. Debs, picturesque socialist leader, released from prison months ago, is shown addressing 15,000 persons at a socialist picnic in Milwaukee. That the party has definitely withdrawn from the progressives and will name its own ticket was one of his statements. On the platform back of Debs are (1) John M. Work, socialist candidate for La Follette's senate seat; (2) William Coleman, state party organizer; (3) Mrs. Victor Berger; (4) Heinrich Bartel, editor of Vorwarts, and (5) Rep. Berger.

San Francisco Visitors—Lee Oppenheim and W. B. Terroell are among the business visitors in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week from their homes in San Francisco.

At The Arcade—J. Davis and F. Crowley are visitors in Klamath Falls this week from their homes in Eugene, transacting business affairs. They are guests in the Arcade hotel while in the city.

Dunsmuir Visitor—M. Wisarver, resident of Dunsmuir is among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

Miss Myers Here—Miss Eva Myers, who is a frequent visitor in the city, is in for a brief shopping tour for the remainder of the week, from her home in Malin.

Miss Gordon to Study—Miss Hope Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordon, will leave shortly after September 1 for Berkeley, Calif., where she will enter Head's school for girls, one of the most prominent girls' schools on the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon will motor south with their daughter upon her entrance into the school.

Farewell Swim Given—Friends of Jimmy Teague enjoyed a farewell swim the early part of the week in the natatorium, followed by a dinner party for the remainder of the evening. Teague will leave tomorrow for the south.

Remodeling Melhase Block—Main street is putting on a busy appearance with remodeling and construction work going on in practically every block on the street. The Melhase building, now owned by Shepherd and Downese, is being put under extensive repairs, and remodeling, in order to be in readiness for its occupancy by Pilcher and Sons, Inc., of New York, who will install a complete line of ready to wear and dry goods by the middle of September. The entire front is to be torn down and window casings substituted for the brick work.

Beckley Returns—Jess Beckley has returned to Klamath Falls following a month's visit in Portland, Elkton, Pendleton and other eastern Oregon points where he looked into property interests and transacted business affairs with friends.

Glovers to Return—Mr. and Mrs. John M. Glover and daughter, Miss Marthella Glover, are expected to return to Klamath Falls during the week-end after an enjoyable fortnight spent in the north, visiting with friends and relatives in Portland, Seaside and Newport. Glover is assistant cashier with the First National bank.

Former Residents Leave—Rev. and Mrs. George T. Pratt, former Klamath Falls residents, when Rev. Pratt held the pulpit in the First Presbyterian church in the city several years ago, returned to their home in Orengo, Oregon, near Portland. They left Wednesday for Crater lake, where they spent the day, leaving by way of Bend for the north.

DeLaps to Visit—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeLap and Mrs. Charles DeLap's mother, Mrs. Griffith, will leave this morning for the north, where they plan to visit for some time with friends and relatives. Among the visits they will make is one with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap's youngest son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil DeLap in Portland. C. R. DeLap's brother, J. W. DeLap of Portland, will also be visited for several days, as will Mrs. Griffith's son, T. E. Griffith of Springfield. Several days will be spent as the house guests of C. R. DeLap's brother, Henry Farrar, of Myrtle Creek.

Shopping From Merrill—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Mrs. Ethel M. Plasil and daughter, residents of Merrill. Mrs. Plasil is connected with the Merrill store.

Visit In Medford—Mrs. Henry Grimes and Mrs. Robert Cow spent Thursday afternoon visiting with friends and shopping in the neighboring city of Medford.

Have your suit made to order from Detmer's Woolen. Fall styles now on display. N. B. Drew, Men's Tons. A29-22

Expert roof repairing, treating, and staining. COFER BROTHERS Phone 389.

House Guests at Manning Home—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Manning have as their house guests Al Sinclair and Ralph Tuck. They are visiting with James Manning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manning. Both Sinclair and Tuck, students of the University of Oregon, are planning to complete a trip throughout Southern Oregon before returning to their studies in the fall. They were prominently identified with the University of Oregon athletic department. Sinclair playing center position on the varsity team, Tuck showing up well in track season.

Visit Crater Lake—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson and Mr. Wilson's sisters, Miss Jane Wilson and Miss Edith Wilson of Colorado, are among the recent visitors to Crater lake lodge, where they spent Wednesday evening, returning to the city by way of Diamond lake and several other interesting points.

Kiwanis Regent Here—Mr. and Mrs. John Throne of Roseburg are among the interesting visitors in the city this week from their home in the valley. Throne, who is regional director for the Kiwanis club, spoke before the Klamath Falls body yesterday during their weekly luncheon in the chamber of commerce rooms. He is cashier of the Douglas county bank in Roseburg. Mrs. Throne visited during the day with former Roseburg residents who are now in the city.

To Crater Lake—Mrs. W. Grandall and a party of friends and visitors are planning a visit to Crater lake during the next two days.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Dawley Sent South—Winfield W. Dawley, who has been with the Shell Oil company in Klamath Falls for the past year, will leave with Mrs. Dawley for Redding, California, where he has been transferred to the office in that division of the company. While in the city Mr. and Mrs. Dawley made their home in the Winter Apartments.

Leave for Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beardsley have left for Seattle, where they will spend some time visiting with friends and relatives.

Return To Valley—Bill Staff and George Jackson, who visited with friends in Klamath Falls Wednesday and Thursday returned to their homes in Medford, leaving Thursday afternoon for the valley.

Miss Bond Here—Miss Pauline Bond, former Klamath Falls school teacher and now affiliated with the Coos Bay Business college of North Bend is in the city for a short time, returning to Klamath Falls from San Francisco with Mrs. C. L. Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. Syl Jones, the latter also visitors from North Bend who have been visiting in the south.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

THE SMOKE
SPORTSMEN'S SUPPLY

If You Are Not P
With Your G
Trade it in on a new one. The guns are on display at The Smoke be glad to show them to you. All shells in stock at

The Smoke
429 Main Bob Sloan, P

ONLY TWO WEEKS MORE

Frank & King's Comedians

in

The Big White Tent

Seventh and Pine Streets

Friday and Saturday

The Play for Young and Old

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

Prices 25c and 50 c. Jazz Orchestra

Friday & Saturday Specials

Castile Soap	Regular $1.25	69c
Rubber Gloves	Fresh Stock	33c
Elams Irish Lawn	Regular 60c	29c
Hays Dental Cream	Regular 25c	14c
Thermos Bottles	Regular $1.50	$1.39
Square Deal Cold Cream	Regular 50c	39c
Pavise Face Powder	Regular $1.00	61c
Cocoonut Oil Shampoo	Regular 50c	33c
Foot Powder	Regular 25c	09c
Milk Magnesia	Regular 50c	39c
Gillette Style Razor	Regular $1.00	39c
Vantines Bath Salt	Incense 25c, 50c	75c, $1.00
Genuine Narcisse Extract, oz.	Regular $5.50 oz.	$3.50
Cresta-Blanca, Cordials Syrups	For Home Use	39c

Camel Chesterfield Lucky Strike CIGARETTES 2 Pkgs. For $25c.

CHEWING GUM, 3 packages for 10c

Square Deal Drug Store
Prescription Specialists.
NEXT DOOR TO PINE TREE THEATRE