Lafollette Jr. Fires Loud Gun

Vociferously Attacks Big Money Interests And Asks Lower Taxes

STOUGHTON, Wis., Aug. 24.—(United News)—With all the flash and fire of oratory displayed by his famous father, Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., launched his campaign here Monday night for election to the seat in the United States senate made vacant by the death of Robert M. LaFollette, Sr., his father. Young LaFollette opened his speech with an attack on the great money power, which he declared seeks to lower taxes for the rich, which means higher taxes for the poor.

Quickly turning from his tirade against the moneyed interests, LaFollette spoke for some time about his father, telling of his ideals, his struggles, his opposition and the joy he experienced in fighting the things that he felt were wrong. He summarized the care of his father in the national capital bringing up the issues that arose, and explaining the stand his father took regarding them.

LaFollette next explained his platform, explaining fully the issues of which it is built. He said, he was first and primarily for the reduction of the federal taxes, and for strict economy in every branch of the public service. Young LaFollette assailed the present republican administration, from the highest to the lowest.

Ft. Klamath Holdups Injured When Driver of Car Refuses Stop

Two mysterious men, in an attempt to hold up a passing motorist on the Dallas-California highway, four miles north of the filling station on the Fort Klamath fork, were seriously injured late Sunday night when the motorist failed to stop the car, striking the alleged bandits to the ground.

Dr. E. Dietzsch and Dr. K. Burchard were roused from their beds at a late hour and called to the men. Who placed the call, it was unable to be ascertained.

Arriving at the scene, six other cars were parked mysteriously along the road unable to assist the injured men. It is claimed by one of the men that they were signalling to the motorist to stop in order to help them move their car from the side of the bank. The six cars and their occupants, companions of the others, would give no explanation as to the part they played in not assisting the car in fighting itself.

One of the men is suffering from a fracture of the skull, internal injuries and bruises, while the other was unable to walk or assist himself, due to flesh wounds when the passing car struck him into the gravel on the road.

Both men refused to divulge their names or to accept medical attention.

Wakefield And Mather Are Fined $200 Each

Justice of the Peace Ed Kendall continued yesterday to mete out stiff fines for alleged liquor possession.

Ed. Wakefield and Ed. Mather, charged with the unlawful possession of whiskey, entered pleas of guilty.

They were each fined $200 and costs.

CELEBRATES WEED VICTORY; FOR ONCE AGAIN IS UNPOPULAR

Even Mayor Goddard, who remonstrated upon the crowd's arrival in Klamath Falls, against the boys and girls having a little fun, much to his unpopularity, could not be restrained, and the merry-makers continued their peaceable, but exuberant celebrating.

On the way back, the baggage car of the special train was thrown open and used as a dance hall while the train was enroute to Klamath Falls.

WATER FLOWING IN BIG SUMMER LAKE MAIN CANAL

K. F. Engineer Responsible For Success Of Big $360,000 Project

Water is flowing in the main canal of the Summer lake irrigation project. Apparent victory crowns a fight which began three years ago against what seemed to be insuperable odds. Board after board of engineers said to salvage the Summer lake dam after its break under the first pressure either couldn't or shouldn't be done. Now a project of 8,000 acres, against which the bonded debt already is $200,000, has a fighting chance for success, thanks to the efforts of C. T. Darley, Klamath county engineer, who, against advice of many expert engineers, said it could be done, and proved it with his own skill and ability.

Broken Outlet
When, three years ago, the irrigation works of Summer lake project, at the north end of Lake county, had been built and water was turned on from springs which flow 130 second feet, and become the source of Anna river, the dam slipped on its clay base. An outlet broke in the sag. Escaping water sucked out a hole in the dam into which a large dwelling house might have been dropped. With money exhausted, people of the district felt the case to be hopeless. It was decided to make one more effort. The task was put in the hands of Rhea Luper, state engineer, J. R. Mason of San Francisco, representing the bondholders, having raised the money. The cost was reduced from a first estimate of $130,000 to $40,000.

Darley Placed in Charge
C. T. Darley of Klamath Falls, was put in charge of construction, and where others said it couldn't be done, Darley, with Luper's supervision, has done it.

No other project like Summer lake exists. The irritable lands are snuggled under a mountainous rim which towers more than 3000 feet above. Although the altitude of the lake is 4900 feet, it grows melons, peaches and apricots, with quending profusion of garden products and apples. Other projects not so protected are limited to hay, grain and products not killed by summer frosts.

Plans are made by Dean D. Harris, Lester E. Elder and James Small, directors, and E. F. McKee, secretary of the district, to take aggressive measures for colonization and the development of what they believe are its unusual prospects.

Santa Claus Given Early Rush Orders

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 24.—(United News)—Douglas Miley, of Delphos, Kas., either is somewhat of a practical joker or a very cautious kid. In either case, his lack of initiative is not to be questioned.

On August 17, with a hard led pencil gripped in one hand, he wrote:

"Dear Santa Claus:
"How are you? We are all right. I want a bicycle and a steam engine. Cleo wants a doll and a carpet sweeper. I can't think of anything more so will say good bye."

The letter, the first of its kind received this year, was turned over to Mayor Batch. It will be given instant attention—in about four months.

COL. HARVEY BREAKS OLD SOCIAL RECORD

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass., Aug. 24.—A social world record went glimmering Monday when Col. George Harvey, former ambassador to Great Britain, passed the 48-hour mark as a guest at White Court, summer white house, and prepared to spend another night.

The colonel already had beaten the duration record of the most persistent previous guest by many hours. He has not given any hint as to the nature of his discussions.

Gov't. Employees Seek Pay Raise

Federation Of Employees To Wage Stiff Battle For Bigger Minimum

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(United News)—President Coolidge's economy program is under fire from another quarter. Government employees are seeking a raise in pay, asking a minimum salary of $1500 a year. This would increase Uncle Sam's annual payroll by several million dollars.

Many salaries now are under $1000. The average pay of 75 per cent of government employees here in the capital is $1325 a year, and there are several times more workers in the field service than here, with about the same salary range. There are 64,000 government employees in Washington.

Meet in Two Weeks
The campaign for higher wages will be taken before the annual convention of the National Federation of Federal Employees in Boston, beginning September 7. This federation is the union of government employees.

The increase asked would mean around $5,000,000 a year among employees here in the capital, and several million more among the field employees, who are scattered throughout the country, serving in one capacity or another.

Employees Dropped Off
Several weeks ago, there was uneasiness in huge government buildings here, when it was indicated that many employees would be dropped in carrying out the economy program. It was said that the government payroll would be lowered by a million dollars during the year through reducing forces at the shipping board.

The number of employees in Washington, however, has remained practically the same through replacements and increases in other bureaus.

The federation, apparently, is taking things now in its own hands, and will force the battle for the thousands of government workers, whom it represents, before another move comes from the other direction.

$56,000 IN NEW BUNGALOWS ARE TO RISE SHORTLY

Weekly Building Permits Soar To $113,390 At Council Session

E. J. Murray, local newspaperman, is to spend $56,000 in bungalow courts to be constructed between the reclamation canal and the Southern Pacific tracks on Esplanade street, according to a building permit approved by the city council at its regular meeting last night.

Other building permits included: Helen W. Powell, garage, $375; P. C. Eayrs, dwelling, $2200; H. C. Cleveland, dwelling, $1200; T. P. Henderson, dwelling, $3000; Mrs. Daisy Osborn, garage, $25; C. C. Healy, dwelling, $375; R. E. Wattenburg, garage, $1000; Warren Hunt, addition to hospital, $40,000; Mrs. Zem Yearsley, structure, $400; Mrs. Maud Klensner, structure, $600; T. C. Becholdt, structure, $300; Allen B. Jones, garage, $100; George Earlandson, dwelling, $2500; Arthur Oberg, garage, $40; J. C. Peck, dwelling, $25; E. Quittich, living rooms, $5,000; and E. H. Balsiger, dwelling, $250.

Lone Argument Favors Poor Shippington Road

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., N. J., Aug. 24.—A hole in the street saved the life of Nora Palmer, age 12. An ambulance was rushing her to the hospital after she had tried to swallow a quarter and it stuck in her throat. The car hit the depression in the street and the bolt jarred loose the two-bit piece.

7 GUARDSMEN ARE KILLED, 14 HURT AS GUN EXPLODES

Trench Mortar Explodes In Maneuvers Mowing Its Victims Down

CAMP GRANT, Ill., Aug. 24.—Seven national guardsmen were killed late Monday, when a trench mortar exploded during firing practice here. Fourteen other persons, including a number of spectators of the drill, are injured. Five of the injured are in a serious condition.

The dead soldiers were members of the Eighth regiment, thirty-third division, Illinois national guard, encamped here for summer training maneuvers. All were Chicagoans, of a unit recruited on the south side. For the past week Camp Grant, a World War mobilization and training center, has re-lived war days in the colorful maneuvers. Battle conditions have been imitated and the countryside has rung with roar of field pieces and howitzers on the firing range.

Flame Belches Forth
The gun crew was grouped close in service of the piece with live shell, when the explosion occurred today. A roaring sheet of flame shot from the muzzle, the breech splintered and shrapnel-like fragments of metal mowed down the crew and bystanders. Six men were killed instantly. Hospital units rushed wounded to Rockford, Ill., where one soldier died later in a hospital. Brig. Gen. Milton Foreman, commanding officer of the camp, has begun an investigation of the tragedy, to determine whether faulty construction of the mortar or faulty service of the piece was responsible.

Cattle Rustling Ring Is Uncovered in Bend

BEND, Aug. 24.—(United News)—Charges of cattle rustling, reported to have been done on a large scale, resulted in the arrest here Monday of P. Robertson and Ralph Whaley, with others expected to be taken into custody soon.

The evidence is understood to include numerous hides of cattle, mutilated so that the brands do not show, and huge piles of partly burned bones found on a deserted ranch 45 miles east of Bend.

Mother, Slayer Of Illegitimate Babe Must Go On Trial

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 24.—(United News)—Physicians here are fighting desperately to save the life of Miss Alma Siler, 18-years-old mother, to bring her to trial for the murder of her illegitimate child.

Arriving here from Judsonia late Sunday, the girl gave birth to the child in an alley, beat it to death with a large stone, and then dragged herself to the home of friends, where she called an ambulance.

"I couldn't stand the disgrace," she sobbed, when taken to a hospital.

Prison Investigators Inspect Salem Prison

SALEM, Aug. 24.—After devoting more than a day to an inspection of the state prison here, the committee named by Governor Pierce Saturday adjourned its labors Monday to a later date as yet undecided upon. Adjournment of the investigation was prompted, at least in part, by the inability of Col. C. G. Thompson, superintendent of Crater lake national park, to continue as a member of the committee.

300 FIRE FIGHTERS BATTLE NEW BLAZE

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 24.—Three-hundred fire fighters were battling a fierce new blaze here which by Monday night had already penetrated into the tall timber of the Cleveland forest reserve. The fire, the most destructive of the season, was fanned by a strong west wind and is heading toward the fertile valley of the San Luis Rey river.

Mail Train Is Looted By Gang

Railway Clerk Near Death Result Of Holdup Of Santa Fe Flier

SANTA ANA, Calif., Aug. 24.—(United News)—B. E. Campbell, a government mail clerk, was taken out of a Santa Fe mail car unconscious and near death shortly after the train pulled in here late Monday.

The mail section of the train had been rifled of a considerable amount of cash and registered mail. The exact amount of the loss was not determined because of the confusion mail manifests had been thrown in by the robbers.

Two bandits are believed to have boarded the train between Oceanside and this city. Campbell was severely beaten about the head and may die. Trainmen were unaware that a robbery had taken place until they opened the mail car and stumbled over Campbell's prostrate body. The train was enroute from San Diego to Los Angeles.

SAKES ALIVE! SNAKES ALIVE! TWO HEADED ONE FOUND BY K. F. GIRL

Snakes and no snakes, there is at least one girl in Klamath Falls who has no fear of them!

One headed or two headed, it makes no difference to Fernie Koenig!

Miss Koenig, a young Klamath Falls girl, found a two-headed snake, a young garter, in the rear of her home at Third and Jefferson streets.

There may have been a scream or two—little ones—but these

YOUTH, ATTACKER OF LITTLE GIRL IS NOW AT LIBERTY

Boy Alleged To Have Made Confession But Is Turned Loose

ASSAULTED GIRL OF 3

District Attorney Claims No Provision In Laws For Jailing Youth

A Klamath Falls tot, a baby girl, was outraged by a 17-year-old youth, according to a confession alleged to have been obtained yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Kimsley. And the little girl's assailant was not lodged in jail. On recommendation of E. L. Elliott, district attorney, the youth was released on his own recognizance.

Elliott, explaining to newspapermen who demanded to know the reason for his action, said yesterday that "there is no regular place in Klamath county for the incarceration of a youth under 16 years of age."

Moron At Large
Prominent Klamath Falls attorneys declared last night that it is absurd to say that a person, accused of a heinous crime, could not be detained, regardless of his age.

"Do you mean to say," Elliott was asked by a reporter, "that there is nothing you can do with a man of the type arrested today—that Klamath county has no place where he can be kept?"

And the district attorney replied that, with the exception of some makeshift quarters, the community provides no place for erring youths. Many Klamath Falls citizens, learning of the district attorney's suggestion to the court, declared that some move should be made to provide for characters accused of a crime of the nature of the one brought to light yesterday.

Attacked Baby Girl
A youth, who gave his name as Kenneth North, said to be an employe of a local lumber company, was alleged by Deputy Sheriff Kimsley to have admitted the assault on the three-year-old girl.

"If we had had a judge available we would have dealt with his case immediately," District Attorney Elliott insisted. "As it was—according to my interpretation of the law—there was nothing more we could do."

A number of citizens of Klamath Falls declared last night that, if there is no place to jail individuals who annoy children, one should be arranged for immediately.

But District Attorney Elliott said he believed that the 17-year-old youth ought not to be placed upstairs with the other law violators.

ALLEGED BANDIT SLAYER CAPTURED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—(United News)—Edwin Schultz, 37, believed to have been one of the men who latched the police in the robbery of the Hellman bank in Los Angeles last Saturday, was arrested here late Monday.

Schultz was seated in an automobile bearing the license number which Los Angeles officers had telegraphed here as the one on a machine used in the robbery. He was accompanied by a woman, said to be his wife, who also was detained.

SAKES ALIVE! SNAKES ALIVE! TWO HEADED ONE FOUND BY K. F. GIRL

are not reported by the neighbors who were called to witness the find of Miss Koenig, when she captured the little Siamese snake, and placed it, with a little grass, in a pink pasteboard box.

A little bread, a fly or two, and such delicacies, dear to the palate of all Mr. Snakes, have been placed in the box, but what worries Miss Koenig, should there be two files for two heads, or what is the diet for a Mr. Two-Headed Garter Snake?
