Prodigy Reads at Age of Two

Charles Baker, two-year-old Chicago prodigy, reads headlines to his mother. What's more startling, the infant is teaching his sister, who is one year old, how to read.

NEW KLAMATH STORE GOVERNMENT NURSE BUYS ORE. EQUIPMENT EXAMINATIONS WILL BE IN K. F. SEPT. 26

A. A. McDonald, manager of the R. A. Pilcher Co., ne. returned to Klamath Falls Monday evening from a buying trip from the north.

According to McDonald, all fixtures to be used in the building are Oregon made, and will add greatly to the appearance of the building, which is now submitting to extensive repairs. Stucco finish will be used on the exterior of the building, according to McDonald, and the stairway will be placed in the rear of the building.

Fixtures and equipment to complete the store on the corner of Fifth and Main streets, should be in Klamath Falls in the near future, and the store will open its doors to the public September 15.

The building, which is now on an angle, will be shaped square, providing two entrances to the sides, which contain ladies' apparel and men's furnishings.

Alleged Non-Supporter Released On Cognizance

Acting Justice of the Peace Ed Kendall yesterday took under advisement the case of George E. Brooks, charged with non-support.

Brooks, released on his own recognizance, will appear at 10 o'clock today to receive sentence. His attorney held that the defendant was at all times willing to support his wife and children.

20 SIGMA NUS BANQUET HERE

Twenty members of Sigma Nu, representing eight different universities or colleges, met in the White Pelican hotel on Saturday night for their fifth annual banquet. The dinner was given in the Dutch room. Ed Geary served as toastmaster for the evening and interesting phases of college life when he attended school were added to the program by Vernon Vawter. He is president of the Jackson county bank and a regent of the University of Oregon.

H. D. Mortenson, fraternity brother from Stanford, spoke during the evening, as did a number of visitors from Medford. Those present were Kenneth S. Perry, Tom W. Delsell, Martin Ramsby, Orin Dadman, Paul J. Keller, Ed Geary, all of Klamath Falls; Ed Sweeney of Chiloquin; P. Hedges, now of Klamath Falls, formerly of Montana. Grants Pass was represented by J. E. Kerr and Medford visitors included Vernon Vawter, William Vawter, Floyd Hart, Don Newberry, K. F. Engle, J. W. Judy, Geary Garrett, Ned Vilas and D. W. Herring.
