

LOCALS

Grimes Purchases Land—One of the most attractive pieces of property in the Klamath Indian reservation has been purchased by Henry Grimes, through Port Summers and the government. The land, 160 acres in all, is known as the Sunset camp on the Port Creek bank, the creek running directly through the acreage. According to members of the Grimes family, a summer home will be built on the newly acquired property, rustic style of log cabin design to be used.

Makes Business Trip—George Carson, of the Howard-Grimes Stage company made a brief business visit to Medford on Wednesday afternoon.

Topsy Residents Here—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Heup and family of Topsy are in the city for a brief business and pleasure trip. Heup is assistant manager of the Topsy Lumber company.

Bend Tourists Arrive—A party of Bend residents make up a group of tourists planning to spend a week in southern Oregon. Those who make up the party are: Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Wright, Varden Wright, Miss Elizabeth Wright, Miss Mary Wright and Charles James, all of Bend.

From Chico, California—Out of the city visitors and tourists this week include Mrs. D. C. Currie and her daughter, Miss Anne Currie, residents of Chico, California. They arrived last night.

"Dutch Kid" in Klamath—C. A. Hische, better known to his friends as the "Dutch Kid" is in the city for the remainder of the week from Camp 48, Natron cut-off. He is accompanied by Mrs. Hische.

From Deer Lodge—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tavenner and Mrs. C. H. Williams of Deer Lodge, Montana, are included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls. Deer Lodge is the home of one of the state prisons of Montana.

With Southern Pacific—J. H. Hickey with the Southern Pacific is stopping for a brief time to visit in the city, combining business and pleasure. He is a resident of Dunsmuir.

Burns Visitors in City—Clarence N. Young and family, residents of Burns are among the visitors and tourists in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

At The White Pelican—Among the visitors at the White Pelican hotel this week from San Francisco are: R. E. Steere, Al Shadick, R. D. Moore, A. T. DeRome and William Shrive.

Los Angeles Visitors—Edith H. Logan, resident of Los Angeles and Anetia Shaffer, also of Los Angeles are enjoying a summer's vacation in the southern section of Oregon, planning to make a trip to Crater lake today.

Berkeley Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Wilson and son, residents of Berkeley are included in the southern visitors in the city.

In From Kirkford—J. M. Jones, with Mrs. Jones, residents of Kirkford are among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

Portland Guests Here—E. A. Green, K. E. Funk and G. B. Rhoades are a party of three visitors in the city from their homes in Portland. They plan a trip to the various lakes before returning north.

In From Fort Klamath—M. P. McAniff, of Fort Klamath, is stopping in the city for a brief time from his ranch in that section.

Visiting Relatives Here—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Orem arrived in Klamath Falls last night from their home in Salt Lake City to make a brief visit with friends and relatives in Klamath county. Orem is a nephew of Horatio Orem, well known Klamath county rancher and a cousin of Roy Orem and Mrs. J. I. Beard, with whom he will visit while in the city.

Roseburg Visitors—Among the visitors in the city from the valley is W. C. Jackson, resident of Roseburg.

Word Received Here—Mr. and Mrs. Rhinehart Molschenbacher left last week for the valley by motor to enjoy a visit with friends in Ashland, Cottage Grove, Salem, Portland, Ostrander, Washington, Olympia, Tacoma and Seattle. Mrs. Molschenbacher's sister, Mrs. Percy Gilbert, resident of Olympia, is enjoying their presence as her house guests in that city.

Chiloquin School Ready—With the first clang of the school bell for the reservation children at Chiloquin they will enjoy the facilities installed by the county school board with work done during the summer. In order to accommodate the fast growing number of children, an additional room has been placed in the school, completion made this week in time for the opening of school September 7.

Mrs. Graybael in—Mrs. Frank Graybael, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Cleo Graybael, spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls enjoying a brief shopping tour and a visit with friends.

In Shopping Wednesday—Among the out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Mrs. Bob Dalton and daughter, Miss Louise Dalton, and Mrs. Elmer Merritt, all residents of Merrill. They spent the day shopping.

Lamm's Mill Visitors—Shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mrs. Solon Egeline and Mrs. Driscoll, both residents of the neighboring city of Lamm's Mill.

Merrill Visitors in—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Avery, well-known residents of the Merrill district, were in the city yesterday for a brief shopping tour.

Miss Loomis Leaves with Friends—Miss Aileen Loomis has left for Salt Lake City, where she plans to enter school and remain for the balance of the year. She accompanied Mrs. Dorothy Weaver and daughter, Miss Leah Weaver, who have been visiting for the past two months to the home of Mrs. Weaver's mother, Mrs. Mary Dixon.

Leave for Huckleberry Patch—This time the men let the women stay at home while they went to the Huckleberry Patch. The men in question were H. J. Winters of Klamath Falls and J. R. Hamilton and J. H. Hamilton of Sacramento. They left yesterday morning and were scheduled to return late last night.

In From Macdoel—Out-of-town visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday included Miss Irene Frothingham of Macdoel.

Return From Lake—Mrs. H. J. Winters, her brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hamilton and daughter, Miss Beth Hamilton, of Sacramento, were among the visitors at Lake of the Woods during the past week, returning recently to Klamath Falls.

Shopping from Mt. Dome—Mrs. Harry Mitchell, who makes frequent business and shopping visits to Klamath Falls, was in the city yesterday to make a brief shopping visit from her home in Mt. Dome, California, where the large Mitchell ranch is located.

To Leave for South—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hamilton and daughter, Beth, who have been the house guests of Mr. Hamilton's alster and brother-in-law, are planning to leave tomorrow for Sacramento, where they make their home.

Merrill Visitor in—Mrs. Rudolph Kattenhorn, wife of Mr. Kattenhorn, owner of the garage in Merrill, was in the city yesterday for a shopping tour and visit with friends.

Ranch Near Here Bought—George Born, a civil engineer, has purchased a ranch near Klamath Falls and expects to make his home here. It was announced yesterday. The ranch, of about 160 acres, is located 10 miles south. The consideration was not made public.

To Leave for Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. John K. Robertson have sold their home here and expect to leave soon for Eugene where they will reside in the future, it was said yesterday.

Youthful Dancer Lauded—Considerable praise was given Maxine Olson, 12-year-old dancer, who last week-end appeared before members of the Medford and Klamath Falls Business Women's clubs at the White Pelican hotel. The little girl is a resident of Klamath Falls.

Chamber Committee Meets—Should Jay Upton be in Klamath Falls at the time that the committee of nine United States senators is expected here, Mr. Upton will be asked to serve as chairman of the meeting, it was decided yesterday at a meeting of the chamber of commerce forum committee. Linn Nesmith is chairman of the committee.

Undergoes Minor Operation—Ray Loosely, of Fort Klamath, underwent a minor operation in Klamath Falls yesterday. His tonsils were removed.

Local Business Up—At a meeting of the state highway commission, to be held in Portland today, the matter of the Keno bridge is to be discussed. Two members of the Klamath county court are scheduled to be present.

Expert roof repairing, treating, and staining.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 389.

Enroute Home After Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mahan of Lakeview visited for a brief time yesterday in the city enroute to their home after a summer vacation spent in Newport on the northern Oregon coast. Mahan holds the position of county assessor of Lake county.

To Remain For Visit—Mrs. Fred Hammack and her mother, Mrs. R. E. Defebre of Sacramento, are planning to remain for some time in the city as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Winters of Klamath Falls.

Whits Promoted—Friends of Leland Whits, who has been stationed for the summer months in Macdoel, California, in charge of the Shell Oil company division there, will be glad to know of his promotion as salesman in the Klamath territory, where he will be stationed. He will make his home in Klamath Falls.

Dinner Guests—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crambitt entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. H. C. Whitman of Shippington. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kirkwood and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Crambitt. Whitman, Mrs. Kirkwood and Crambitt were friends in their childhood days in Payallup, Washington, and the affair was an enjoyable reunion with their memories of the past years.

Entertains For P. E. O.—In honor of the members of the P. E. O. society and their guests, Mrs. Harry Goeller entertained on Wednesday afternoon with an interesting informal meeting and discussion of winter plans.

Rev. and Mrs. Rice to Return—Friends of Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Rice of the First Presbyterian church of Klamath Falls are anticipating their return to the city the latter part of next week. Rev. and Mrs. Rice have spent their summer vacation visiting with his parents in Idaho. Rev. Rice will present his first sermon of the fall months during the morning church of September 6.

In From Barclay Springs—Miss Gertrude Cox of the Cox ranch in the Barclay springs district was among the visiting shoppers in Klamath Falls Wednesday afternoon with friends.

Keno Visitors in—Mr. and Mrs. C. Murdock, accompanied by their daughter Miss Christine Murdock were among the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday for a short time to shop and visit with friends.

Bonanza Visitors in—Frank Poole, well known rancher of the Bonanza district, accompanied by Mrs. Poole made a visit to Klamath Falls during Wednesday afternoon. While here they spent some time visiting with their infant son who is ill in a Klamath hospital.

Bonanza Folk Here—Mr. and Mrs. James Luebke, of the Bonanza country, were business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

California Tourists—Among the tourists to arrive in the city yesterday were many from California. The day experienced Wednesday was one of the lightest of the year, according to the attendants in the chamber of commerce. Those to register were: W. E. White, Riverdale; V. E. Mitchell, Los Angeles; Richard Barclay, Marysville; A. J. Jack, Stockton; W. F. Wight, Palo Alto; C. C. Turney, Sacramento; Thomas R. Worth, Sebastopol; J. B. Boye and W. P. Brewer, Chico; A. W. Howard, Bieber; J. H. Fairbairn, Perkins; A. T. Leal, Yreka; Reese Carell, Tennant; R. C. Bentin, Los Angeles.

Nevada Visitors—Among the out of the state cars to register in the chamber of commerce yesterday was only one car from Idaho, all others registering from California. Claude Simmons of Reno, with a party enroute to Crater lake, are among the visitors here.

Mrs. Perry to Return Soon—Friends of Mrs. J. A. Perry will be glad to know of her return to the city, when she will arrive in Klamath Falls Sunday morning, after a visit in the north, and along the Oregon coast for the past summer months. She is visiting this week with friends in Roseburg.

Kodak Finishing that pleases all is our specialty.
STINSON'S STUDIO
737 Main St.

DANCE
—at—
BONANZA
SATURDAY NIGHT
Sailing's Orchestra

Massey Sells Land—F. L. Massey has sold to Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Farrell lot 15 in block 36 in Hot Springs addition, according to the deed filed yesterday in the offices of the county clerk. Consideration was set at $1000.

Crater Lake Motorists—A party of visitors spent Sunday at Crater lake, where they enjoyed the scenery and surrounding country to the utmost. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton and daughter, Miss Beth Hamilton, of Sacramento; Mrs. R. E. Lefebre, Mrs. Fred Hammack, also of Sacramento, Mrs. C. L. Reckard, Glen Reckard, J. R. Hamilton, Miss Ida Hamilton, Miss Bethel Nixon, Norval Hamilton and Hilton Hamilton.

Home Site Sold Yesterday—According to a deed filed yesterday in the offices of the county clerk, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Naftiger of Los Angeles have sold to George W. McCollum a section of land in the Canal addition of Klamath Falls, for a consideration of $1500.

McCullum Purchases Property—George W. McCollum has purchased a home site in Canal addition from Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hervey, consideration for $1000.

Visits in Klamath Wednesday—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included W. H. Tucker of the Bray mill.

Land Sold To—A section of land in the district has been sold to Head, who is interested in the Owens valley drainage. The deed, which chased property in the at $1000, was recorded in the county clerk's office. The property was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. P.

In from Altamont—McDonald, now staying at Altamont auto park, was a visitor in Klamath Falls.

KODAK FINISHING
1 Hour Service
The Photo
Opposite Court

SPECIAL
In Victrola Store
SHEPHERD

Fire Insurance
—Of Course
John H. H.
Slough B.

ONLY ONE MORE WEEK

Frank & King's Comedy

in

The Big White Tea

Seventh and Pine Street

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

The Swede Comedy Drama

"OLE AND THE CITY SLICE"

Prices 25c and 50c. Jazz Orchestra

Seat Sale

Opens TODAY

AT

Southwell's

for

Kiwanis Club's

BIG Pirates

Of

Penzance SHOW

First Showing!

Men's Fall Hats

With this announcement we inform you that we have completed plans for the display of the season's new Headwear. No season in the past has seen such an interesting array, such high quality and such moderate prices.

"Knox," "Stetson" and other good makes.

$3.50 to $20.00

Klamath Clothing Company

LEADING CLOTHIERS

THE Eileen
BY JOHANSEN

Why not wear the smartest shoe of the month—the shoe that experts have acclaimed the foremost footwear fashion. The Eileen, Calendar Style for September, costs no more than ordinary shoes!

In Memphis Brown Kid, Caramel Underlay Spanish Louis Heel

$9

Houston & Jester
315 Main

Painting, paper hanging, Interior decorating.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 389.