

IN SOCIETY.

NOCTURNE IN A LIBRARY

Books on the tables, books along each wall,
Books in proud bindings, torn books in a heap,
Some books content with century-hallowed sleep,
And others that on quiet midnights call
Until they wake me from my dreams, and hale
Me shivering down to listen to their story,
While stars go by in unregarded glory,
And dawn comes up, cold and estranged and pale.
O long-time friends! What other power than you
Can nourish our old passion?—hold us true
To the young faith which once our hearts avowed?
When in the solitude of the evening light
We keep our quiet vigil with the night,
You bring the sun. The day brings back a cloud.
From the Harvard Phi Beta Kappa Poem.—By Arthur Davison Fiske.

LIBRARY CLUB TO STUDY SEAN

One of the most interesting organizations in Klamath Falls is the Library club, and especially the book department which is made up of women of the city interested in the latest in literature. The first meeting date has been announced by Mrs. Jack Kimball, president, as Tuesday afternoon, September 8, in the library club rooms.

An interesting outline of the new books to be reviewed has been given by Mrs. Del Gammon, chairman of the book department.

Following are the dates, books and those who will review the volumes:

- September 8—"Beau Geste," Wren, Mrs. G. A. Krause.
- October 6—"Scarlet Cockrell," Sullette, Miss Maybell Leavitt.
- November 2—"Carolinian," Raphael Sabatini, Mrs. Bernard Rea.
- December 7—"Matriarch," Stearns, Mrs. T. W. Delzell.

A review of the books to be presented will be given following the discussion of the books and the author. The volumes have now been placed on the reserve shelf where they can be obtained from the librarian, Miss Hawkins.

MRS. LINFESTY DINNER HOSTESS

Mrs. John Linfesty entertained with an attractive dinner party on Thursday evening at her home. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Syd Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. John Linfesty.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

With an informal theatre party and supper Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Meissner announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Josephine Meissner to Dr. Clifford R. Lucas.

The date of the wedding has been set for September 6, when Miss Meissner will become the bride of Dr. Lucas in their new home on Pacific Terrace. The ceremony will be read by Rev. A. L. Rice of the Presbyterian church.

Miss Thelma Clow will attend Miss Meissner. Dr. Lucas will be attended by Mr. Tugless Ross of Corvallis, who has been spending his summer in Klamath Falls from his studies in Oregon Agricultural college.

Following the ceremony early Sunday morning the bride and groom are planning to leave for Portland where they will spend a brief wedding trip, returning south by the coast where they will visit with Dr. Lucas' mother in Gold Beach.

Miss Meissner is one of the most attractive and talented young women of the city and is well known for her lovely voice with which she has pleased many. She was graduated from Klamath county high school during the past spring. Dr. Lucas is the son of Mrs. Sadie Pottinger of Gold Beach and has long been identified with the medical profession in Klamath Falls, where he has made a host of friends.

Guests at the party which announced the engagement and approaching wedding were Miss Beatrice Walton, Miss Katherine Walton, Miss Thelma Clow, Miss Virginia Tickle, Miss Bernice Hanna, Miss Emmy Lou Myers and Miss Meissner.

MRS. PITTS AND MRS. SIECK HOSTESSES

Among the pretty parties of the week was one at which Mrs. J. Sieck and Mrs. Margaret Pitts presided at the home of the latter the early part of this week. The rooms of the Pitts home were attractively decorated in yellow marigolds which added to the dainty color scheme of the affair.

Guests were: Mrs. N. M. Cantrell, Mrs. R. S. Moore, Mrs. J. J. Parker, Miss McCurdy, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, Mrs. L. Jacobs, Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mrs. E. E. Magee, Mrs. Herbert Savage and Mrs. Harry E. Herman of Portland and the hostesses Mrs. Pitts and Mrs. Sieck.

MRS. WHITMAN HONORED WITH DINNER

In honor of Mrs. H. C. Whitman of Shippington, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt entertained informally with prettily appointed dinner party on Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kirkwood and Mr. and Mrs. Cramblitt.

MRS. BELDING TEA HOSTESS

Mrs. Mollie Belding entertained during the week with a series of pretty parties, informal teas, honoring several of the attractive maids and matrons in the city. The affairs were given on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday at Mrs. Belding's home on the corner of Tenth and Pine streets.

On Monday afternoon, Miss Ruth Dixon, who is visiting from Los Angeles, was the inspiration for the affair.

Mrs. Lillian Hagman, sister of Mrs. E. H. Balsiger was the guest of honor on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Belding entertained a number of matrons of the city.

Again on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Belding entertained, completing her series of pretty parties in honor of Mrs. C. V. Fisher of California, a former Klamath Falls resident.

SET DATES FOR BAZAARS

The dates for the annual Christmas and holiday bazaar and the rummage sale which is given the fall of every year by members of the Ladies Aid of the Grace Methodist church have been set, according to an announcement made yesterday. The rummage sale will be held October 19, the holiday bazaar, December 5. The location of the sale and bazaar will be announced later in the month.

MISS PATISON TO BE BRIDE

Of interest to their friends in the city and the many students of Oregon Agricultural college is the approaching wedding of Miss Phyllis Patison of Corvallis and Roy L. Patrick of Klamath Falls which will occur at 5:30 Wednesday afternoon, September 2, in the Presbyterian church in the city.

Rev. T. D. Yarnes will read the double ring ceremony.

Miss Patison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Patison of Corvallis and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Davis of Klamath Falls. She is a member of the class of 1926 of Oregon Agricultural college where she was interested in a course of vocational education. Miss Patison is a member of Alpha Rho, women's social fraternity on the O. A. C. campus.

Mr. Patrick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patrick of Detroit, Oregon, and a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college, where he was affiliated with Theta Chi, men's social fraternity. He is a nephew of Mrs. Laura Moore.

Following a brief wedding trip to Point Comfort they will be at home to their many friends in the Sunset apartments.

Miss Millicent Walker of Corvallis, niece of Miss Patison will play for the wedding procession.

Miss Lois Bynon will attend Miss Patison, Harry Prather, fraternity brother of Mr. Patrick will attend the groom.

Among the guests at the wedding will be Mr. and Mrs. James Patison of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patrick of Detroit; Miss Millicent Walker of Corvallis; Adrian Fisher of Copco, Calif., and several fraternity brothers of Mr. Patrick.
