AGENCY

KLAMATH AGENCY, Aug. 31.—Marion Gober and children returned Saturday from Lakeview where they had been visiting two weeks at the home of Mrs. Gober's parents. Mr. Gober went for them, bringing them home in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Moffat and daughter Miss Jessie Gray, and brother John Moffat of Medford are away on a five days' camp-trip up at an isolated lake high in the Cascade mountains. The lake is called Puck lake and has to be reached on horseback.

Mrs. Lulu Johnson and daughter Claire returned Friday from their vacation trip to Portland, Oregon, Washington and the Grand Canyon. Mrs. Johnson's cousin Mrs. Maxey, of Seattle, Washington returned with her for a visit to the Agency. Mrs. Maxey was formerly Miss Thayer Raymond and her domestic science in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Doherty of Columbus, Ohio, who have been visiting the former's brother Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Doherty left the Agency.

The first meeting of the Klamath County Women's club for the new year will be held Tuesday evening, September 1, in the living-room of the new building and will be an affair for the members and ladies of the Agency.

Mrs. Nannie Hunter, newly appointed matron of girls in the Klamath boarding school, came here today to take up her duties. Mrs. Hunter came here from Klamath Falls, Oregon, but her home was in Astoria.

Mr. Orville Elliott and daughter Misses Florence and Clara Elliott entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. O. P. Cardwell, of Portland, and her cousin, Miss Ruth Elliott of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy D. Arnold returned Saturday, returning late that night. Mrs. Arnold's sister, Miss Maud Ernest, who is attending school at Monmouth normal college returned with them for the week-end.

Thursday evening, August 27, the Misses Muriel and Dorothy King entertained a crowd of Agency people in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shedd, of Washington, D. C. and Miss Lorena Jackson, of the Washington, D. C.

The "Pit" played progressively accompanied by much hilarity. This delicious refreshments were served.

Week-end outing party was an event planned for these same days. The crowd who went in their cars drove to Crater lake Friday afternoon, remaining overnight and then went on to Diamond lake Sunday, returning to the Agency Sunday night. Those who enjoyed this excursion were: Misses Muriel and Dorothy King and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shedd, of Washington, D. C.

and Miss Lorena Jackson, of Seattle, Washington, the Misses Carolyn Rhodes, Ursula Mitchell, Alice Andrews and Messrs. Belva Dillstrom, Reuben Baird, Victor Jensen, Charles Minore, Ed. Gubernick and Jim Brophy.

Recently Mr. Broschius, secretary of the Indian Rights association, of Washington, D. C. visited the Agency and the reservation in the interests of his special work for that organization.

MERRILL

MERRILL, Aug. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Peasley of Klamath Falls were among the callers at the manse Sunday.

Misses Anna and Olive Hill were shopping in Klamath Falls Saturday.

Edd and Jim Jones had the misfortune to lose over 1000 tons of new alfalfa hay by fire Friday evening. The origin of the fire is unknown.

W. F. Jinnette and Chas. C. Hullet were in Klamath Falls working in the interest of the county fair Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Haskins is enjoying a visit with her only brother, William Kidwell, and his daughter Eva, of Chico, California. Mr. Kidwell and Miss Eva expect to return to their home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Merritt was unfortunately injured about her head Friday evening, while in auto going to the fire on Edd Jones place. The auto hit a small ditch across the road. Mrs. Merritt was thrown against the top of the car. She received a gash in her forehead, which made it necessary for the doctor to take 12 stitches, and several bad bruises were also quite in evidence. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Dalton and Mr. Merritt were in the car, but were not injured more than being shook up badly.

The S. S. is giving a basket banquet, to the "Live Wire class," Wednesday evening, 6 to 9 o'clock at the club rooms. The class won in a contest which the school put on early in the summer. The class is deserving of this honor. The school extends a cordial invitation to all the friends in the community to come and bring their basket. Ice cream and coffee will be furnished.

Miss Thirza Anderson entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anderson, for a few of her friends with a waffle supper Thursday evening. Those present were: Misses Ellen McVeigh, Louise Dalton, Alta Wilson, Miriam and Winfield Offield.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis and family returned Saturday from Eugene, where they have been visiting friends and relatives.
