WIRE NEWS OF THE WORLD

WASHINGTON—While there is sufficient coal on hand in the United States to last until December, government experts are working out plans for operating mines should the nation-wide anthracite strike last longer than three months.

PORT WASHINGTON, L. I.—Baby Bootlegger won the race here yesterday which gave her the nation-wide reputation as being the fastest motorboat in the country. She was piloted by C. G. Bragg of Detroit.

LOS ANGELES—William Bethurum fainted when he learned his friends had bailed him out of jail. Physicians pronounced him dead 30 minutes later. As a recorder was writing out the death certificate Bethurum came to. It wasn't hard dying but it was hell coming to life he commented.

LONDON—Malaria mosquitoes are being used at Epsom mental hospital to infect patients suffering from general paralysis of the brain to determine if the resulting malaria fever will alleviate or cure their insanity. The treatment has met with fair success.

CHICAGO—Germany is recovering more rapidly from the effects of the world war than France, according to George Wallace, banker, who returned yesterday from a visit to Europe. The people of France are spending their money while they have it, for a good time. The Germans are saving.

OLYMPIA, Wash.—Kentucky is now coming to the Washington range for its horses. Kentucky noted for its fine horses, finds finer ones in Washington. Six carload shipments left here last week for prospective use on Kentucky race tracks.

Printer's Sick Stomach and Headaches Almost Cost Job

YOUNG MAN CHANGED COMPLETELY WAS PREMATURELY OLD

Health and vitality are the greatest assets of the rising generation. Competition in all walks of life, especially in social and business affairs, makes our existence a strenuous one. One of our young men was questioned by a curious friend as to the cause of his apparent rejuvenation, and he said, "I sure was in bad shape, and no one knew it better than I did. I was all in, and my nerves shot to pieces with worrying and sleepless nights. I looked twice as old as I really am, and I thought I would soon be a complete physical wreck. One day I overheard a friend telling what Kath, the Gland Tonic, had done for him, and I decided to get a supply for myself, the results tell the story. My glands needed nourishment, and it was supplied by the Extract of Fresh Glands used in Kath. Then what a relief, I felt like a new man, and slept all night, waking up refreshed and mentally active. Believe me, I had some appetite, my weight increased, my face filled out and had the color of perfect health that comes from pure blood. You can bet I am strong for Kath, the Gland Tonic." Extracts of Glands are prescribed today by all the leading physicians, and in our scientific combination of the Extracts of Glands you can take the treatment without inconvenience, and assure yourself of health and longevity.
