Local Briefs

Return From Southern Visit—Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Rice of the First Presbyterian church returned Tuesday evening from an enjoyable month's visit in the south, where they spent their vacation in all sections of California. According to Rev. Rice, yesterday they did not travel over a familiar road from the time they left the Oregon Caves until they returned to Klamath Falls over the Klamath-Ashland highway. An interesting visit was made in Yosemite park and Camp Curry. In Los Angeles Rev. and Mrs. Rice visited with her parents.

Threshing Completed—According to a visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday, threshing on the Tom Dixon ranch was completed yesterday and the workers are starting on other ranches in the county.

To Return To School—Miss Beatrice Walton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton will leave for Stockton, California, where she will enter her junior year in the College of the Pacific. Miss Walton has spent the summer in Klamath Falls with her parents and has been employed in the First National bank. She has been prominently identified with musical circles of the city as well as in the south, where she is recognized as one of the most talented young women on the campus.

Rancher Visits Klamath—Ned O'Connor, well known Merrill sheepman spent Wednesday in the city visiting and transacting business.

Announcement

To the People of Klamath Falls

We have taken over the Whitaker Groceteria at 407 Main Street, and invite your patronage.

The same low cash prices will prevail here, and we take pleasure in announcing to you that Quality and Courteous treatment will be our motto.

Come and visit our store. New goods are arriving daily and we are in position to take care of your orders, large or small.

We will continue this style of merchandising until the arrival of our complete set of Piggly-Wiggly fixtures from the Memphis house, at which time our store will be closed for installation of these fixtures, to be reopened as Klamath County's first Piggly-Wiggly, and as store number 1, of a chain of these stores to be opened up in Southern Oregon.

Trusting that you will come in, and get acquainted with us in the meantime, and let us help you keep the high cost of living down to a low level.

Yours for a big co-operative business.

S. O. Piggly Wiggly Co.
T. J. HAMPSON, Manager.
