

PACKED HOUSE EXPECTED TO SEE K. F. FIGHT SEASON OPEN TONIGHT

With 30 rounds of boxing scheduled for the first card of the season tonight at the Scandinavian Hall local fans are looking forward to seeing a pleasant sporting evening which will start with the curtain raiser and gradually get better until the headliner starts—and then finishes.

Without a doubt the headliner between Sammy Olson and Earl Ritchie will be an ace in the card deck. Ritchie's showing against Frankie Murphy on the night of July 5 entitles him to nothing but the acme of expectancy for the bout tonight. Sammy Olson, who beat Rocky Strambo and several others here last season, is sure to go over big. The two men are fairly evenly matched. Some predict the bout will not go over half the scheduled 19 rounds, that Olson will lay Ritchie out before the half-way mark. But Ritchie and his friends, as well as those innocent bystanders who have watched both Ritchie and Olson work out don't think so.

The semi-windup between Duke Evans and Kid Starkey should be something no local fight fan should miss. Starkey has proven himself game to the last in his previous bouts here, and the fact that Evans is doped to have a shade the advantage should give him ample opportunity to demonstrate his spunk and aggressiveness.

The entire card is unusually well balanced. Promoter Earl Brown has determined to give the local fight enthusiasts all that is to be had this season. If he matches them all as well as this card tonight seems to be he will have little difficulty in getting a packed house.

Duke Evans, of San Francisco, who will meet Kid Starkey in the semi-windup of the 30-round fight card at Scandinavian hall tonight.

Senators Climb 1; Pirates Go Down 1

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—(United News)—In the only game of the American League Friday Washington went through the motions of playing and smothered the extremely humble Boston Red Sox, who are apparently trying to roll up 100 losses for the season. The score was 9 to 3. This gives Washington a six-game lead over the Phila. Athletics, who were idle there were no other games in the circuit.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, chesty leaders of the National league, had to lose some time and they chose Friday, when the St. Louis Cardinals overcame them by a 9 to 3 count. The Giants almost as far away from the Pirates statistically as New York is from Philadelphia geographically, managed to beat the Phillies at Philadelphia, 6 to 5, but only after a struggle. The Phils put up a stiff fight in the early innings, but lost when the Giants scored in the tenth frame of the extra inning game.

George Gibson's Chicago Cubs were unable to handle the Cincinnati Reds and the Ohio team captured the only other game in the league Friday 2 to 1.

Rain caused postponement of the Brooklyn-Braves battle at Boston.

LAKEVIEW ASKS K. F. TO JOIN IN BIG CELEBRATION

Following weeks of planning and preparations, the drama of the old west is to be re-enacted at Lakeview again this year, on today, tomorrow and Monday, when the picked men and women riders of the last great range gather in that place to pit their skill against the wildest steers and most stubborn horses the bunch-grass land can produce.

In Lakeview the setting is ideal for such a review of the glory of the riders of the old range. Centering a cattle country which extends across southern Oregon and northern California into Nevada, the most sparsely settled section in the Union, Lakeview's location for such a show may be considered ideal. Many sections of the west have built up shows of this nature which have assumed national magnitude through the undying enthusiasm of the citizens of their communities, backed by the perseverance and vision of a few men who could plan ahead and work out in faultless detail the re-staging of a picture with all the romance, dash and thrill that was displayed in the winning of the west. Lakeview has done all this—and more. The Roundup and County Fair, which will be staged in conjunction with the big wild west attraction, opens this morning and bids fair to get away to the finest start for a bigger and better show than ever before.

Lakeview has invited Klamath Falls to come to their fair city and celebrate with them. Sunday and Monday, which is Labor Day (a holiday), gives two days of vacation in which Klamath Falls people may join in the festivities. Put on a smile that will force a wrinkle in your back and go to Lakeview for the time of your life. You'll be accorded a royal reception and never regret the good time that you will have.

Do not forget the dates, today—September 5th—tomorrow (Sunday) and Monday (Labor Day). A good time is guaranteed—Lakeview knows how!
