

LOCALS

Visit in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Wilson and two children are enjoying a week's visit in the Rogue River valley with friends and relatives. They will return shortly after Labor Day.

Visiting Mother Here—Carl Newberry, a former Klamath Falls resident and son of Mrs. Wilbur Jones, has returned to the city to spend the remainder of the week after a brief visit in Minneapolis. Newberry, who is affiliated with the Dollar lines, will leave soon for San Francisco, where he is interested in work for the company.

Timber Sold—More than 160 acres of timberland was sold to the Weyerhaeuser Lumber company by Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Whiteside of Duluth, Minnesota, according to a deed filed in the county clerk's office this week. The land, located in Klamath county, lies above Yainax, consideration being $3,500.

In from the Fort—Robert Tyrell of Fort Klamath is included in the recent business and pleasure visitors in the city this week.

Merrill Visitors Here—Among the many out of town visitors that have been in the city this week is H. E. Dehlinger of Merrill.

Plan Fishing Trip—Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Veatch and family plan to leave over the week-end for the Rogue River valley to spend Labor Day. According to Veatch he received word last week that the heaviest run of salmon that the river has had for years is headed for Grants Pass, at the time of the communication being 35 miles west of the city. With the run of fish at Hell Gate, according to Veatch, the fish should be at Grants Pass in time for a good day of fishing.

Logging Superintendent Visits—Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Murphy and two daughters, all residents of Tennant, are among the recent visitors in Klamath Falls during the past few days. Murphy is well known in Tennant where he serves as logging superintendent for the Weed Lumber company.

Rancher Visits—A. J. Blaker of the Keno road is included in the numerous visitors in the city during the past few days.

Teachers in From Fort—Miss Bess Briscoe and her sister, Miss Ida Briscoe, are recent visitors in the city this week outlining the work for their schools in the county, preparing for the winter work. While here they also attended the teachers' institute.

Hildebrand Rancher In—Pat Callahan, well known rancher of the Hildebrand district is included in the many out of town visitors in the city during the past few days.

Ex-Prison Official Here—Gene Hawley, former deputy warden under Jim Lewis, whose administration was said to be one of the most successful in the history of the Oregon state penitentiary, is a visitor in Klamath Falls. Mr. Hawley, who is well known over the state, is now with the public service commission. He will be in the city but a short time.

Keno Visitors Here—J. A. Bushong spent the latter part of the week in Klamath Falls from his ranch located in the Keno district.

Big shipment of new Fall Coats and hats at Bee Beggs' Dress Shop, 129 South 7th St. 83-5

Kodak Finishing that pleases all is our specialty.
STINSON'S STUDIO
737 Main St.

SPECIALS
In Victrolas Still on at SHEPHERD'S

ALL NITE
Dance
BONANZA
Saturday Nite, Sept. 5
Hi-Life Orchestra

Another Fort Rancher—Another visitor in Klamath Falls is Jim Callahan, well known rancher of the Fort Klamath district who was interested in the happenings at the county fair this year.

To San Francisco Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stinson will leave Sunday morning for San Francisco, where they will spend a week combining business and pleasure. Stinson will spend some time in the south obtaining material and supplies for the holiday work in his studio. They will also attend the Diamond Jubilee. During their absence Mrs. Weston will be in charge of the studio.

Fort Klamath Visitors—Alice Ferguson, accompanied by Ida Briscoe spent yesterday in Klamath Falls from their homes in Fort Klamath.

Return to Marshfield—C. A. Howard, superintendent of the Marshfield public schools, accompanied by Mrs. Howard returned to Coos Bay yesterday after attending the teachers' institute of Klamath county during the past two days. Howard, who has a number of friends in the city made during his residence in Klamath Falls when he served in the schools here, is actively engaged in the candidacy for the republican nomination for state superintendent of schools.

From Odell Lake—George E. Muller of Odell lake is among the recent out of town visitors in Klamath Falls.

Visiting With J. A. Perry—Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rowley, daughter Miss Helen Rowley and son Harold A. Rowley, are visiting in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry and family from their home in Eugene. Mrs. Rowley is a sister to Mr. Perry. They plan to leave today for Crater lake which several of them will see for the first time.

McCloud Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. George Hughes and family of McCloud are visiting for the week-end in Klamath Falls.

At The Arcade—Charles H. Gunther with the American Automobile Association is spending the remainder of the week in Klamath Falls from his home in Portland, in the interests of the work to be organized here.

Returns From San Francisco—G. B. Richmond, purchasing agent for the Oregon Trunk railroad has returned from San Francisco, where he was called on a brief business visit. Richmond's home is in Portland.

At The White Pelican—Jesse D. McComb of Corvallis is visiting in Klamath Falls, stopping in the White Pelican hotel while in the city.

Tourists From Maine—The day when visitors came from a state or two away, has gone for all time, as evidenced by the registers of the Klamath hotels. Louis B. Girdall, accompanied by Miss Lela H. Girdall and Miss Lois A. Ford, all of Sanford, Maine, arrived in the city last night to spend the week-end.

Visitors From Portland—Dr. and Mrs. J. Arch Stewart, residents of Portland are visiting in Klamath Falls from their home in the north with others of the medical profession, friends and relatives.

Coos Bay Merchant—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harvey and son, residents of Coos Bay, arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a brief pleasure visit. Harvey is a prominent Marshfield merchant.

Teachers Arrive—Miss Gudrun Waage and Miss Laura Waage, her sister, arrived in Klamath Falls last night from their home in Elko, Nevada, to take up their duties as teachers in the Klamath schools this year.

At The Arcade—W. S. Dobbin, S. P. Dobbin Jr., and William Pearson, form a party of three visitors from Vacaville, California, who are spending the week-end in Klamath Falls, stopping in the Arcade hotel while in the city.

Ministers in Klamath—Rev. M. B. Paroungian and Rev. W. A. Sellwood of Salem and Portland, arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a brief business visit.

Kirk Visitor Here—Among the visitors to spend the week-end in Klamath Falls is M. Madison, well known resident of Kirk.

From Lumberton Here—W. H. Fairbanks is included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls from his home in Lumberton to spend the week-end in the city.

Shopping From Tennant—Mrs. A. K. Morton of Tennant, is spending several days in Klamath Falls shopping and visiting with friends.

Shopping From Lakeview—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Williams of Lakeview are shopping in Klamath Falls from their home in the neighboring county.

RAGS WANTED
Highest price paid for clean cotton wiping rags. The News.

Expert roof repairing, treating, and staining.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 380.

Business Visitor From Medford—Fred L. Colvig, income tax collector, is in Klamath to spend the remainder of the week, interested in business transactions. Colvig is a resident of Medford.

Shopping And Visitors—Mrs. C. M. Sheehan of Paunina and Mrs. J. M. Skaggs, also of Paunina are among the visiting shoppers in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week.

Doctors At The Hall—Among the interesting visitors in Klamath Falls this week is a party of Astoria residents. Dr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Kinney, accompanied by their son, Dr. A. M. Kinney, are the guests, stopping in the Hall hotel while here. To be the first president, 50 years ago, of the state medical society is an honor that only falls to one, that honor going to Dr. Kinney Sr. But to be elected nearly 50 years later to serve a second term is quite a different thing. Dr. Kinney's second term in office of president expired when Dr. Paul Rockey of Portland, was elected to fill the vacancy. Dr. and Mrs. Kinney and their son will leave this morning for Bend, returning north on The Dalles-Bend highway after attending the meeting held Wednesday and Thursday in Medford of the State Medical Society.

Klamath Agency Visitors—Mrs. Harry Dobbins and a number of friends are included in the many visitors from Klamath Agency who attended the county fair Friday afternoon.

In From Prineville—Lex Long of Prineville, where he has made his home until recently has accepted a position with the Golden Rule store, where he will be actively interested in the men's department of the store.

Merrill Rancher In—E. M. Hammond, prominent Merrill rancher was among the visitors to be noticed at the county fair yesterday. Hammond is spending the three days of the fair in Klamath in order to care for his splendid display of sheep.

To Leave For South—Miss Louise Cattuzza will leave Sunday for the south where she plans to spend a fortnight visiting with friends and relatives in San Francisco and other southern points. While in the bay city Miss Cattuzza will be the guest of her cousins.

To Spend Winter In East—Miss Miriam Wortley and her sister, Miss Dorothea Wortley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wortley will leave the early part of next week for the east where she will spend the winter. They will reside with Mrs. Wortley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Shaw of Pittsburgh, Kansas. Miss Miriam Wortley spent a winter with her grandparents, Miss Dorothea Wortley who has been in ill health for some time, will make the visit to benefit for health and possibly attend school. Miss Wortley has resigned her position with the American National bank.

Cousins Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McNealy are enjoying a fortnight's visit from Mrs. McNealy's cousin, Mrs. Maude Higgins of Minneapolis, who arrived from the east recently.

Daltons In For Fair—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton are among the Mall residents to spend the week-end in Klamath to attend the fair where Mr. Dalton is serving as judge.

Merrill Visitor—N. E. Woodhouse of Merrill, well known rancher of that district is spending several days in Klamath to attend the county fair and transact business.

Leave For Orland—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rea and children have left Orland, California, where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kent Ballard over the coming week.

Big shipment of new Fall Coats and hats at Bee Beggs' Dress Shop, 129 South 7th St. 83-5

Painting, paper hanging,
Interior decorating.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 380.

Piggly Wiggly Co.

Successors to

WHITAKER GROCETERIA

Save Your Money
BUY HERE

Creamery Butter, lb.	54c
Jello, package	10c
10 lbs. Fancy Potatoes	25c
15c Pkg. Graham & Soda Crackers	12c
Ashland Table Peaches, can	25c
Pint Wesson Cooking Oil	29c
Quart Wesson Cooking Oil	53c
Half Gallon Wesson Cooking Oil	$1.00
Fancy Apples, box	$1.65
Tomatoes, box	80c
Plums, box	85c
Sekel Pears, box	90c
Maxwell House Coffee, lb.	53c
Fancy Maine Sugar Corn, can	20c
Tall Milk, per can	10c
3 Rolls 9c Toilet Paper	25c
Med. size Van Camp's Baked Beans	10c
All Campbell's Soups, per can	10c
Can Grape Fruit, can	29c

Labor Day Picnic At Wlul-Kse

You are invited. If you have no car come to the corner of 5th and Main, between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning. If you have a car and have room for a passenger pick me up at 5th and Main.

Bring your baskets and tin cups. Coffee will be furnished free. Don't forget the little ones.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION

Closed Monday

Please Do All Your Shopping Today

Today only—20 lb. crate Italian Prunes for	60c
Fancy Wrapped Peaches	$1.00
Fresh Local Cider, gallon	50c
Four Cantaloupes	25c
Winter Banana Apples, box	$2.00
Cooking Apples, 5 lbs.	25c
Wild Plums, per lb.	10c
Pickling Cucumbers, lb.	10c
Thompson Seedless Grapes, 4 lbs.	25c
Concord Grapes, per lb.	15c
Watermelons (Rogue River) lb.	.02c
Gravenstein Apples, box	$1.75
Plums, per crate	$1.00
Bunch Vegetables, 2 bunches	15c
Head Lettuce, 3 for	25c
Genuine Damson Plums, locally grown, lb.	.08c

50 Steps North From 6th and Main.

Public Market

HOURLY DELIVERY

Phone 169.

126 No. 6th.

northern route and you can east by the seaport.

North Bend Visits—Mr. and Mrs. Bedford of North Bend, accompanied by their two children, are visiting in Klamath Falls from their home in the Keno district. They were former residents of the city before moving to Coos Bay.

Visitors Return—Mrs. F. A. Smith, who has been visiting for some time with friends and acquaintances in the city, returned to her home in Coos Bay yesterday for their home in Coos Bay. Mrs. Smith will be accompanied by her many friends in the city, including a cousin of the American National Bank.

Fire Insurance
—Of Coos Bay
John H. Henderson
Slough Bldg.

BARGAIN
TODAY'S SPECIALS AT
KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY

MEN'S FINE WOOL HOSE
Reg. 35c pr.
Today 4 prs. 95c

MEN'S CANVAS CLOTHING
Good Value
2 prs. for

This is Positively the
BEST SHIRT BUY
Klamath County Ever Saw
Genuine English Broadcloths in Fancy Blue and Lavender Checks, also plain colors, all with collars attached.
Extra Special $1.95

MEN'S HEAVY CALF SKIN SHOES
Special $2.45

MEN'S SOX
Black and Regular
Special 3 prs. 50c

Men's Fine Khaki Riding Pants
Double Seated
Together With Belt
$1.95

KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1861