

MITCHELL SLAPS PLANE DISASTER BLAME ON DEPT.

court martial for his fiery statement at San Antonio, Texas, in which he charged the war and navy departments with "criminal negligence" and "general incompetence," according to official sources tonight.

In the absence of Acting Secretary of War Davis, who was in New York attending the Davis appointments matches, war department and air service officials would not comment in any way whatever on Mitchell's charges or the department's probable course concerning them.

Unofficially, however, it was learned that Mitchell's statement was considered as flagrant insubordination and disrespect to superior officer under the articles of war, and would almost inevitably require an investigation by Maj. Gen. Ernest Hinds, commanding general officer of the Eighth corps area.

SENTIMENTALISTS RESPONSIBLE FOR DISORDER IN PEN

animal-like, forever looking for his chance of escape. On the street, I believe, I would know he was a "con."

Murray a Hard One
"How?"
Hawley smiled.

"In the same way that detectives always recognize—I mean frequently recognize and apprehend—the man who is against society. He doesn't exactly look over his shoulder continually—but he gives you that impression. You feel it. You know what I'm trying to convey."

Through the constant vigilance of the guards under the Lewis regime, no man ever escaped from the yard of the penitentiary. But at the same time, Hawley said, officialdom was constantly hampered by the indefatigable sentimentalists on the outside, working for "better" prison conditions.

Hawley, now connected with the public service commission, will be in Klamath Falls but a short time.

PEGGY JOYCE

DON'T SHINE IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 5.—The bass horn with which Peggy Hopkins Joyce generally announces her presence anywhere and everywhere, is really a muted toy horn.

The jolly, rollicking and titled Peggy, with all of her escapades and marriages, really hasn't come up to Hollywood standards, or may be something is wrong.

Instead of storming into the city with a fanfare of trumpets, Peggy stole in at night, rented an obscure cottage and has stayed there ever since.

Now Peggy lives in Hollywood, and Peggy is making a picture. Two very important reasons why Peggy should get her horn in shape and her name in print.

She hasn't come up to expectations, and all the leading papers are peeved at her. Really the papers like her and would print whole columns about her. They like her so much that they have spent hundreds of dollars in salaries sending star reporters on her trail.

But Peggy has evaded them all, quietly slipping out of her house in the early morning and as quietly "hitting" at night.

Two Peggy was cornered and, eventually speaking, she let down her curls of innocence and "big" would fire questions at her "interviewers" who fled in dismay.

Now Peggy hasn't even advertised cold cream preparations, which incidentally, the lowest form of publicity. Peggy's name just simply doesn't get in the production notices, which is very unusual.

Even the least temperamental extra girl would throw a dozen cat fits at this very obvious and insulting neglect. A star would murder her publicity man for an insult of such magnitude.

Because of these unusual circumstances, the profession has come to see some deep significance in Peggy's silence.

Some think Will Hays, the movie boss, quietly slipped Peggy some information to be good and keep her name out of print if she wished to make motion picture acting her profession.

Of course Peggy's friends deny this, and naturally Mr. Hays does also.

Peggy herself says it is absurd to think anyone could ever keep her name out of print if she wanted otherwise.

But Peggy has that "please don't mention my name" look in her eyes.

Headquarters for Time and Labor-Saving McCormick-Deering POTATO MACHINERY

Where a considerable acreage of potatoes is grown a McCormick-Deering two or four-horse potato digger soon pays for itself in the time and labor saved... These diggers are well-built, correctly designed machines that will dig under all workable conditions, and stand up to work in the hardest soil

Made in six-foot size for two horses, and seven-foot for four horses. The six-foot can be furnished with a rod link elevator, or with bar grate or "riddle" elevator... The seven-foot digger has a rod link elevator.

The rear shaker thoroughly separates the potatoes from the dirt, and the vine turners cause the vines and weeds to be thrown to the side, leaving the potatoes in a neat, clean row behind the digger.

A McCormick-Deering digger means less power required, less labor, and better potatoes. Make ready for digging time by arranging with us now for delivery of a digger later.

Remember: We can furnish both diggers and planters of McCormick-Deering Quality.

The results are not only indicated by the thrifty appearance of the trees themselves but are shown every year by their heavy yield of fruit.

Tree planting with dynamite is successful because it—thoroughly loosens and shatters the sub-soil makes root penetration easy puts great stores of plant food in easy reach destroys fungus and nematode causes early maturity cuts down tree losses

and pays a heavy return on the investment through increased yields. Ask our dealer for Du Pont Dynamite.
