Checks amounting to $1475 were issued last night from the office of Mrs. Thalia B. Newcomb, secretary of the Klamath county fair, to the winners and those who placed in the racing feature of the past three days.

On a small scale, betting was one of the features of the races and many a man, or woman, went down to disappointment when they lost on their favorite.

To Phillip Lennon went the largest check in the auto races, amounting to $116.74. Lennon, in his Lennon Dodge walked away in the three mile free for all automobile, his time Saturday being four minutes and five seconds. The Frute Special, driven by George W. Time, 54 seconds.

The three-quarters mile free for all, with a purse of $120, went to Loreta in one minute and 24 seconds, $84; Circulate, $24; Ella Retreat, $12.

YELLOWLEY TO CLEAN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The announcement that E. C. Yellowley has been named for the post of federal prohibition director of Chicago was received in bootleg circles here with lamentations and much wringing of hands.

Mr. Yellowley is well known in Chicago. He has been here several times during the last two years. The last time he was here the price of beer went up a nickel. All of which explains the sackcloth and ashes attitude now affected by the alkies, the beer barons and all the other exponents of the liquor racket.

Yellowley at one time was chief of general prohibition agents with headquarters in Washington, but it is said the job was too tame for him and he was given a sponge and a mop. Recently he was in New Orleans and worked the mop and sponge to the tune of a liquor seizure worth $1,000,000 (bootleggers' prices), obtained warrants against 1900 persons, blind pigs, cabarets and soft drink parlors, and came away with information which it is said, will enable him to taxicab to the business address of most of Chicago's liquor magnates.
