

IN SOCIETY

SUNSET
The sun silently sinking to rest,
Reflects a golden hue,
Creeping toward the hills of the West,
Admire the sky of blue.
Slowly sinks behind the hills,
The night I love to see,
And my heart with pleasure fills
For Nature's boundless beauty.

Ethel Dickey, 12 years of age. San Francisco.

FROSTY MORNING
One frosty morning,
Oh, what a surprise!
Little frosty fairies
Dancing before my eyes.
I hopped out of bed,
My teeth began to chatter,
My toes turned red,
But that didn't matter.

Jeanette Brown, 12 years of age. San Francisco.

"BEAU GESTE"
When Klamath Falls is in full sway with the winter's social season, no more attractive entertainment is found than in the perusal of books. With this idea in mind the women's library club of Klamath Falls was organized.
The initial meeting of the book department will be held in the club rooms of the library Monday afternoon, and members and their friends and others interested in the organization are invited to hear Mrs. G. E. Krause review the English novelist, Percival Wren's book, "Beau Geste." Those who know Mrs. Krause's style will be more than anxious for the opening meeting of the organization.
Not only will the latest books be reviewed but several of the members are interested in obtaining pre-reviews in order to have the latest literature.

MRS. WEST HOSTESS TO GUILD
For members of the Episcopal Ladies Guild, Mrs. Walter West entertained at their beautiful home on Riverside street Thursday afternoon. Interest in the meeting was keen as this is the first gathering of the Guild following the summer months.
During the business meeting the Guild proposed a food sale which will be given Wednesday, September 16, at Miller's Market. The funds will be devoted toward a piano for the church.

MISS BIEHN RETURNS FROM EUROPE
Friends of Miss Pearl Biehn of Portland, who has made her home in Klamath Falls, will be happy to learn that she has returned from an enjoyable two months' tour of Europe, visiting all the principal continental cities.
Miss Biehn was met in New York by her mother, Mrs. George Biehn, spending a week in New York city and returning west by way of southern route. Mrs. Biehn and her daughter arrived last night in Klamath Falls. They will be the guests of Mrs. Marvin Lucas for a week, returning to Portland for the winter. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Lucas and her young son, Marvin Lucas Jr.

MISS DIETZ ENTERTAINS
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Espinosa, for the pleasure of their young daughter, Dorothy Dietz, entertained at their home on 709 Upham street Saturday afternoon. The occasion was the tenth birthday of Miss Dietz.
The affair was given in the nature of a lawn party and dainty refreshments followed an afternoon of games and music.
Guests were: Roger Eric De-weese, Kathryn Eleanor Horbelt, Freddie Glover, Mary Priest, Sonny Hoyt, Ardis Leech, Martha Provost, Margaret May Young, Darline Kattenhead and the hostess Miss Dietz.

MISS PORTER TO SPEAK WEDNESDAY
The annual luncheon of the members of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will have an added interesting feature when Miss Ada Porter will address the group on the subject of her travels and experiences in South America, where she has served for five years recently as a missionary. The affair is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock in the church parlors. Chairman of the afternoon is Mrs. E. B. Phillips. Mrs. Wilbur Jones and Mrs. John Garrett are acting on the committee in charge of the luncheon.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. JOHNSON
At the home of her mother, Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, on Pine street, Mrs. W. P. Johnson entertained for members of the Happy Hour club on Tuesday afternoon of this week with several informal hours. Guests of the club were: Mrs. A. B. Park of St. Petersburg, Florida, who is visiting at the homes of Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Amelia Whitlock.

Those present were: Mrs. J. J. Keller, Mrs. W. E. Beack, Mrs. W. D. Cofer, Mrs. O. M. Hector, Mrs. Ed. Propst, Mrs. Jennie Hurn, Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. S. T. Summers, Mrs. Lawrence Ruchnich and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt and Mrs. Johnson.

GUILD TO MEET SEPTEMBER 24
Mrs. J. D. Morgan will entertain at the coming meeting of the Women's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, September 24. The meeting will be held at Mrs. Morgan's home on California avenue.

GUESTS ARE ENTERTAINED
Mrs. C. V. Fisher and Mrs. Homer L. West entertained for a number of guests with a delightfully informal afternoon Friday, honoring Mrs. J. G. Patterson of Portland, who is visiting with friends in Klamath Falls this week. Mari-golds, roses and autumn leaves lent a particular charm to the rooms in which hospitality was dispensed to the following guests: Mesdames E. M. Bubbs, L. L. Truax, H. E. Momyer, E. D. Trulove, Gay Satterlee, Holloway, E. W. Gowen, J. Gallagher, Mollie Belding, C. P. Mason, R. C. Groesbeck, Will Wood, J. I. Beard, C. E. Jay, C. N. Coseboom, L. N. Haines, Fred Cofer, Herbert D. Newell, R. D. Barnstable, Fred Garlich, C. H. Barnstable, C. I. Fisher, J. G. Patterson, the honor guest, and Miss Maude Carleton.

REV. RICE IS HOST
Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Rice of the First Presbyterian church entertained on Thursday evening of this week with an informal party for officers and teachers of the church at their home on North Second street. Plans for the work of the coming year was clearly outlined, followed by a social evening.
The date of October fourth, has been set for Rally Day for members of the church. Dainty refreshments were served following the meeting.

D. A. R. SCHEDULED TO MEET MONDAY
On Monday evening of this week the initial fall meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg at her home on Pine street.
Two interesting discussions for the first meeting of the year have been scheduled, one to be given by Judge A. L. Leavitt, of the Klamath courts, the other by Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt.
Judge Leavitt has chosen as his topic, "Birthday of Klamath Falls" and as one of the pioneer residents of the Klamath country, his discussion is promising.
Mrs. Cramblitt will speak on "Constitution Day" which will be an event of the week and honored by members of D. A. R. chapter in Klamath Falls on Monday evening.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO HOLD FALL RALLY
Although meetings of the Business and Professional Women's club of Klamath Falls have been enjoyed during the summer months, the affairs have been more or less informal and little or no business actually outlined for the winter's work.
With the approach of winter activities from all quarters, long dormant, the organization will enter with much enthusiasm the affairs for the coming season.

On Monday evening in the White Pelican hotel dining room, all members, their guests and their friends are invited to attend the initial affair of fall for which the Business and Professional Women will be hostesses. A business meeting outlining the winter's work will be held in the sun room of the hotel immediately after the serving of the dinner.

MISS HOLST BRIDE OF WEEK
Among the interesting September weddings was one which occurred Saturday afternoon when Miss Lavene Holst of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Ernest Hollenbeak, also of Klamath Falls. The wedding ceremony was read in the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church with Rev. A. L. Rice reading the ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tower attended the bride and groom. Following a brief wedding trip in the south, Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeak will make their home in Copco, California, where Mr. Hollenbeak is with the California, Oregon Power company.

MRS. EVANS HOSTESS AT BRIDGE
Mrs. Percy Evans entertained delightfully with an informal bridge luncheon, prettily appointed at her home in the Evans apartments on Friday afternoon. Following luncheon, four tables of bridge were enjoyed with high score going to Mrs. H. Foster, consolation to Mrs. Will W. Wood. Guests included Mesdames Guy Manning, H. J. Winters, G. I. Stebbins, Allan B. Jones, Syd Evans, A. Campbell, E. G. Wisocurver, W. L. Sanders, Will W. Wood, H. Foster, J. I. Beard, Joseph C. Avery, E. L. Lawrence, Charles D. Garcelon and F. C. Murphy and the hostess, Mrs. Evans.

MRS. CURRIN ENTERTAINS
For the pleasure of a number of the younger set, Mrs. C. S. Currin entertained on Sunday afternoon with a swimming party followed by a waffle breakfast at the attractive Currin home on Pacific Terrace. She was assisted by Mrs. Claude Davis.
Guests were: Miss Ellenor Torrey of San Francisco, Miss Aileen Teague of San Francisco, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Dorothy Currin, Miss Elma Jensen, Miss Lois Bynon and Kenneth Perry, Jay Cizek, J. Martin Adams and Neal Stewart.

AT HOME IN EVANS APARTMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Patrick are at home to their friends in No. 8 of the Evans apartments. Their wedding was of interest to a number of their friends on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Patrick was Miss Phyllis Patton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Patton of Corvallis.

MRS. FOSTER ENTERTAINING
The second of a series of delightful bridge parties will be given by Mrs. James Bishop Foster on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week at the Foster home in Hot Springs Addition. Invitations were issued recently.

INTERESTING MEETING HELD
Members of the Woman's Library club held a meeting Friday afternoon, three o'clock, for club members and their friends. The subject of the meeting was "You and Your Looks" and owners of various beauty salons in Klamath Falls discussed the care of the face, hair and hands.
"Care of the Hands" was discussed by Mrs. Mary Wilson of the Pearce Cosmetic Shop; "Care of the Skin," Gloerena Warren of Boston Beauty Shop; "Improving Your Looks," Miss Louise Heese, Moe's Beauty Parlor; "Care of Hair and How to Shampoo," Mrs. Stewart, Vanity Beauty Shop; "Correct Facial," Inez Thackara, White Pelican Beauty Shop.

Before the discussion by the visitors, a brief business meeting outlining the work for the coming year was held.

MRS. MOORE HOSTESS OF WEEK
Mrs. Rufus S. Moore entertained on Friday for Mrs. Cordelia Ankeny at her lovely home on Riverside street. Pastel shaded flowers were used effectively about the rooms for the pleasure of the guests, who were: Mrs. Ankeny, Miss Gladys Ankeny, Mrs. N. M. Cantrall, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. L. Jacobs, Mrs. Margaret Pita, Mrs. Gertrude Moore, Mrs. Faye Morris, Mrs. Slick, Mrs. E. E. Magee, Mrs. Fred Glover, Mrs. George Ulrich, Mrs. J. J.
