

LOCALS

Fort Visitor—Mike Weiland of Fort Klamath is included in the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Returns to School—Carey Tally, who has spent his summer in Klamath Falls, employed in the city, left the latter part of the week for Corvallis, where he will enter his senior year in Oregon Agricultural college. Tally is a member of Sigma Phi Sigma.

Returning to the South—After spending an interesting summer in the northwest, and mainly in Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clarkson and their daughter, Miss Jeanette Clarkson, are planning to return to their home in Clarksville, Louisiana. Mrs. Clarkson and Miss Clarkson are leaving today for San Francisco where they will make a brief visit and then to Los Angeles for a short time. From California they will go directly to their home in Louisiana. Mr. Clarkson will follow his family in the near future. Miss Clarkson plans to return west with the coming spring.

Miss Moore to School—Among the students of Klamath county who are leaving this month for schools throughout the coast, where they will spend the winter months, is Miss Hallie Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Moore of Merrill. Miss Moore left the latter part of the week for Chico, where she will enter California state normal school.

Return to Nevada—After spending the past three months at their summer home near Paunina, formerly Skookum, Dr. C. C. Collins and his daughter, Miss Lean Collins, have returned to their home in Sparks, Nevada. They were former residents of Klamath Falls more than 12 years ago, when Dr. Collins served in the Episcopal church.

Leave for School—Fred Pope of Merrill and Melrose Flamm of Portland will leave from Klamath Falls for O. A. C. Thursday morning, September 17 to enter the institution for the remainder of the winter. Pope is in his third year, Flamm, who spent the summer in Klamath county, will enter for the first year course.

Return from San Francisco—Among the Klamath Falls residents to attend the diamond jubilee in San Francisco last week were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stinson, who returned to the city late Sunday night, after a week's visit in the south. While in the bay city, Stinson spent much of his time transacting business and preparing for the holiday rush.

Return from Pleasure Trip—Mrs. J. W. Argraves and children and Miss Margaret Post have returned to Klamath Falls after spending a most delightful week's visit and vacation trip in Lakeview.

In From Merrill—C. C. Hulet of Merrill spent Monday afternoon in the city on one of his numerous business visits.

On Months Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent and two sons and Miss Bernice Phenecis have left Klamath Falls for a vacation, leaving Saturday and expecting to return October 1. While on their vacation tour they will visit in Seattle, Tacoma and other Washington points.

Hische On Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Hische of Natron Cut-Off, Camp 48, are visiting for several days in Klamath Falls while Mr. Hische transacts business affairs relative to his work.

Myers Returns to Klamath—After an absence of some time O. V. Myers of Medford, well known business visitor in the city with the Mack trucks, has returned for a brief visit. He is accompanied by Mr. Ward.

Brother Visiting—Joe Henderson, brother of T. P. Henderson is visiting in the city for several weeks before leaving for Harvard where he will enter school.

At The White Pelican—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eakin of Salem are visitors in Klamath Falls, stopping in the White Pelican hotel while in the city.

Meets Family Here—Mrs. Frank Horn and son of Onkdale, Louisiana, arrived in Klamath Falls the early part of the week after motoring overland from their home in the south. They were met by Frank Horn in charge of the Forest Lumber company in Klamath Falls and will make their home at company headquarters this winter.

Odell Lake Visitor—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls to visit in the city over the week-end was J. A. McAlpine of Odell Lake.

Lakeview Visitor—O. M. Corkins of Lakeview is included in the out of town visitors in the city to spend the week-end.

Frame Work Complete—According to officials of the Forest Lumber company the frame work for the mill is fast nearing completion and the building is being whipped into excellent shape for the winter's work.

Major General Visits—Prominent week-end visitors included Maj. Gen. Hale of the United States Army. Hale is connected with the aviation camp at Corvallis.

From The Agency—James W. Overson of Klamath Agency is included in the business visitors to spend the week-end in Klamath Falls.

Returns From The South—Mrs. Ed. Martin has returned to Klamath Falls from Oakland for a month's visit with her husband. Mrs. Martin has many friends in the city, where she made her former home, who will welcome her to Klamath Falls.

Stockmen on Business—Leland Casey and Robert J. Chambers, both residents of Pringle are included in the many out of town business visitors in the city. Both are interested in stock.

Son Is Born—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Dalton of Mills Addition are being congratulated upon the recent arrival of a son, born September 12. The young man will be named Milton.

W. C. T. U. To Meet Tuesday—Members and friends of W. C. T. U. of Klamath Falls are requested to attend the first fall meeting of the year in the Methodist church Tuesday, September 15, at 2 p. m. All ladies in the city are issued an invitation.

Spends Week-End in Valley—Dr. Phillip Cole of Klamath Falls was among the visitors in the valley over the week-end when he visited in Medford.

Kodak Finishing that pleases all is our specialty.
STINSON'S STUDIO
737 Main St.

Don't Forget

That plenty of groceries remain unsold from the stock of Houston & Phelps.

Take Advantage of Real Money-Saving Prices!

FIXTURES FOR SALE

The following High Grade Fixtures remain and must be sold:
Dayton Computing Scales
Shelving
Show Cases
Burroughs Adding Machine
U. S. Meat Slicing Machine
Hubbard Electric Coffee Mill
Wm. J. Burns Check Protector
McCaskey Credit System
Cheese Cutter
Cheese Case
American Multigraph
Addressograph
And other grocery equipment.

M. I. BLOTCKY
Purchaser of the Stock of
HOUSTON & PHELPS
8th and Main

Merrill Rancher Visits—John H. Dennehy, well known rancher and sheep man of the Merrill country, is visiting for a brief time in Klamath Falls.

At the Hall Hotel—Sol Dewey, Jr., well known resident of the Lorella district, is spending the early part of the week in Klamath Falls, stopping at the Hall hotel while in the city.

On Business Here—G. L. Forge of Salem, general agent of the Montana Life Insurance company, and J. F. Wesely of Seio, Oregon, are among the out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls.

Visitors From Chiloquin—E. R. Wilson and R. A. Fogle of Chiloquin are included in the business visitors for the week from the reservation city.

Enjoys Deer Hunt—Wilmot Sandham of Klamath Falls is among the city's residents to enjoy hunting over the week-end below Keno.

Tatlow Gets Four Pointers—One of the best bags of the season was obtained by Ray Tatlow over the week-end when he killed a four point deer in the Spencer Creek district.

Directors To Meet—Members of the board of directors of the Klamath county chamber of commerce will meet this noon in the chamber dining room for their weekly business meeting and discussion of affairs.

Return After Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnston of Portland have returned to their home in Klamath Falls at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Walton. They made an interesting tour of Klamath county also visiting at Crater lake. Mrs. Johnston is a sister of Phillip J. Sannott, former Klamath Falls newspaper man now in San Francisco.

Weather Prophet Good—According to the weather prophet there will be balmy days over the coming week-end and the outlook for Sunday looks especially bright when the dedication of the plaque in honor of John Wesley Hillman, who discovered Crater lake in 1853 will be observed by the Klamath county chamber of commerce.

Returns From Jubilee—J. A. Gordon, who with Mrs. Gordon and Miss Hope Gordon spent the past week in San Francisco, at the Diamond Jubilee, has returned to the city, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon. Miss Hope will remain in the south attending school for the winter.

In From Bonanza—Among the visitors in the city was W. W. Fordney of Bonanza. Mr. and Mrs. Fordney are interested in the erection of a new apartment house which will be completed in the immediate future.

Home From Vacation—Lloyd Porter of the First National bank resumed his duties yesterday morning behind the "cage" after spending a fortnight motoring in the north, accompanied by his parents. The party visited Portland, Seattle, Vancouver, B. C. and other northern points.

Attend Meeting—Among the out of town visitors at the meeting of the Business and Professional Women last night were Miss Muriel King and Miss Dorothy King of Klamath Agency. Both the young women are serving in the government work at the Agency.

Enjoy Visit At Lake—Mr. and Mrs. R. Leland Couch and two children, Buddy and Beatty spent Sunday at Crater lake, where they enjoyed the day at the resort. This was the first visit for the party.

Taking Vacation—Frank... enjoying a two week's vacation in Sacramento, where he will visit friends and relatives.

Spend Sunday in Ashland—Among the visitors in the city who spent Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Stone and F. T. Halverson, in Ashland.

Leaves For The South—Bert Cook is spending a week in San Francisco, visiting with Mrs. Cook motored south morning.

Expert roof repairing, and staining.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 389.

Exposition of Men's New Fall Apparel

Smart Apparel for Men—the advance guard of Fall's Newest Fashions is presented by Klamath Clothing Kompany. Fall's smartest Suits and Top Coats for men and young men, tailored by America's most famous makers—fashioned of all-wool fabrics in the most popular patterns and colorings. Models and sizes for the tall man, the stout man, the short man, and the regular build man.

Suits From $20 to $60
Overcoats and Top Coats From $15 to $75

Kuppenheimer Good Clothes
Patrick's Fine Overcoats, Mackinaws and Sport Wear

Complete stocks of the best the world produces in men's apparel now here.

Painting, paper hanging.
Interior decorating.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 389.