JACK HOLT, MOVIE STAR, MAY COME TO KLAMATH FOR MOVIE IN SPRING

Lava Beds Of Klamath And Modoc Counties May Be Scene Of New Screen Production With Former Klamath Boy Playing Romantic Star Role

Lava beds of Klamath and Modoc counties may be the scenes of several new pictures to be made by the Paramount film company with Jack Holt, former Klamath resident, in the lead.

This was the information received yesterday from J. A. Gordon, who discussed the proposition with Jack Holt in the lobby of the St. Francis hotel, when the former was visiting in San Francisco last week.

Old timers of Klamath county, and those who have lived here during the past 12 or 15 years remember Jack Holt, when with a cowboy named Starr he worked on one of Jack Morrell ranches in the southern section of the county.

According to friends of Holt, he was a picture cowboy and wore the dashing garb of the movie cowboys upon his residence here.

While in Klamath Holt plans to make arrangements with an old friend of his, J. Frank Adams, to use his wild horses in the filming of the picture.

According to Harry Poole, Paramount interests have been aroused in the Lava bed country and they have written for views of that section with hopes of making pictures with the coming spring.

MIDLAND
