LOCALS

Tea Cup Club To Meet—Members of th Tea Cup club will meet on Thursday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Stuckey, at 328 Canby street. This meeting will start the fall activities of the group.

Visiting In Klamath—Mrs. Harold D. Chapman of San Francisco, who will be remembered as Miss Dorothy Shive before her marriage, is visiting in Klamath Falls with her sister, Mrs. Austen Hayden and brother, Oscar Shive.

Announces Birth Of Child—Mrs. George B. Downing of Klamath Falls has received a telegram announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Holden on September 14, at Fabiola hospital in Oakland, California. The young lady will be christened Shirley Anne. Mrs. Holden will be remembered as Miss Anne Hackland of Klamath Falls, and daughter of Mrs. Downing.

Mrs. Cochran Passes Away—The many friends in the city of Mrs. Roy Cochran, who formerly made her home here will be grieved to learn of her death last week, which occurred in a sanitarium in Portland, where Mrs. Cochran had been receiving attention for some time for tuberculosis. Mrs. Cochran was the wife of Roy Cochran, leader of an orchestra during their residence in this city and at one time employed with the California-Oregon Power company as electrician. The deceased is survived by an infant daughter and husband.

Relatives Visiting In City—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote are enjoying a visit from Mr. Chilcote's mother, Mrs. Fannie M. Chilcote and his nephew Aubrey Chilcote, residents of Mammoth Springs Arkansas. The visitors arrived the early part of the week and plan to remain for the balance of the month.

Leaving For U. of O.—Among the many students of the University of Oregon who will leave for Eugene from their homes in Klamath Falls is James Manning, son of Horace Manning, who leaves this week to enter his second year in the university. Manning is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

In San Francisco—W. D. Miller, Klamath Falls contractor is making a brief business visit to San Francisco, where he has spent the past week.

Olene Rancher In—H. C. Tipton, well known rancher of the Olene district made a brief business visit to Klamath Falls yesterday.

Society Being Formed—Many women of Klamath Falls interested in the formation of the Delphian society by Mrs. James Goble, are joining the society which promises to be one of the most interesting groups for the coming winter. The club will embrace interesting features of reading, study, art and music, which many women of the city have been studying for some time.

From Rocky Point—J. H. Doak of Rocky Point, is included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

Buell Ill At Home—Friends of Dwayne Buell will be sorry to learn of his illness which will keep him confined to his home for several days. Buell is suffering from a severe attack of sore throat.

Visitor From Merrill—Among the business visitors to spend Tuesday in Klamath Falls transacting business from his ranch in Merrill was Harry E. Wilson.

Hunting Near Clear Lake—Paul Dalton and Walt Waggonner left the early part of the week for Steel Swamp near Clear lake in California, to spend three days hunting for mule deer, which are said to be exceedingly plentiful in that district. They are expected to return to the city Thursday night.

Miss Pearson Ill—Miss Ethel Pearson is confined to her home with a severe attack of sore throat which has been prevalent since the early fall rains.

Hunt In Lava Beds—Among the Klamath hunters to respond to the first call of the season were Fred Grobs and Carr Dalton who are spending the week in the lava beds hunting for big buck.

Visiting From Merrill—William Graham, prominent rancher of the Merrill district, was among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Out After Mule Tail—J. Frank Bryant and W. D. Satterlee left yesterday for the lava beds, where they plan to spend the remainder of the week hunting for mule tail deer.

Out For Deer—Bob Sloan and Charles Moore left Monday morning for Hart mountain, where they plan to spend the remainder of the week hunting for mule tail deer. Sloan and Moore are among those fortunate hunters who enjoy especially good luck and their friends are waiting anxiously to hear the results of their first deer hunt of the season.

Visiting In Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McKimmon, residents of Los Angeles are visiting in Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Mills. Mrs. McKimmon is a sister of Mrs. Mills. The visitors plan to remain in the city for the coming month.

Move Furniture—Furniture of the First State & Savings bank, defunct, was purchased recently by W. O. Smith, to be used as fixtures in his new printing shop. The furniture and fixtures were moved yesterday from the basement of the court house, where they have been for some time, to the office of W. O. Smith.

Courthouse Visitors—Included in the many visitors to spend Tuesday in Klamath Falls was Ivan Doak of Chiloquin, who was transacting business in the Klamath county court house.

Leavitt In From Resort—Arthur L. Leavitt of Rocky Point was among the many outside business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday for a brief time, returning to the resort after a short transaction of business.

Return From Jubilee—Mr. and Mrs. John Houston, who spent the past week in San Francisco, attending the Diamond Jubilee have returned the early part of the week to Klamath Falls. According to Houston the streets of the city were crowded past anything he had ever seen during a celebration in San Francisco.

Wattenburgs Leave Today—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg are leaving today for Portland by motor to attend several features of interest during the next two weeks. Mrs. Wattenburg plans to attend the National association of the Rebekah lodge of which she is past president of the chapter in Klamath Falls. Serving as a delegate from Klamath Falls, Wattenburg will attend the Odd Fellows meeting. He is Sovereign of the Klamath chapter.

Coolidge Sees Pilgrim Shaft

President and Mrs. Coolidge visit, in Plymouth, Mass., the monument immemoralizing the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620.

Move into New Home—Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. Noel and young son have moved into their new home at 715 Jefferson street which was recently completed.

Annual Luncheon Today—Members of the Presbyterian Missionary society will hold their annual luncheon this noon in the Presbyterian church parlors. The luncheon will be followed by an interesting discussion of the work and life of Miss Ada Porter while a missionary for 5 years in South America. Miss Porter has many friends in Klamath where she formerly lived who will be interested in her topic.

Clark to Speak.—A. E. Clark, prominent Portland attorney, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon to address the members of the American Legion. He will speak at the chamber of commerce forum meeting today.

Many Pledge Support—According to a report read yesterday at noon at the meeting of the members of the board of directors, Klamath county chamber of commerce, more than 95 per cent of the returned "feelers" sent out last year are in favor of the dropping of the word "Falls" from the city's name. The report was made by President Andrew Collier.

Goldie Miller Improves — Miss Goldie Miller, who has been confined to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will G. Houston with an attack of severe sore throat, was reported as much better yesterday by friends who visited her.

Liquor Possession—Charged with the unlawful possession of liquor, Charles Eland, arraigned before Justice of the Peace Ed Kendall yesterday, entered a plea of not guilty. His trial was set for September 18. He was released on bond.

Langell Valley Shopper—Mrs. Homer Roberts of Langell valley spent Tuesday afternoon in Klamath Falls visiting with friends and transacting business.

From Chiloquin — Mrs. Daisy Lauritsen of Chiloquin is included in the many out of town shoppers in the city yesterday.

Olene Business Visitor—John Shepherd of Olene was among the scores of business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday afternoon to look into affairs.

Mrs. Lubke Accepts Position—Mrs. James Lubke has accepted a position in the Bonanza schools, due to the rapid increase of students in the school enrollment during the past week.

Visits Schools In County—County School Superintendent Fred Peterson spent Tuesday in the Kirk, Lamm's Mill and Chiloquin districts looking into affairs for the schools which have opened this week with the exception of Kirk. While in the latter town the proposition of opening a new school was presented.

Teacher's Position To Be Open—Another teacher in the Klamath county schools will be employed in the near future with the faculty of the Merrill public schools. The enrollment in the Merrill schools has increased largely during the past week of school.

Death Of Mother—Preaux Van Doern of Klamath Falls left yesterday for Idaho, where he was called by the sudden death of his mother near Pocatello. Mrs. Van Doern was an elderly woman. Van Doern is employed as a clerk in the Star Drug company, in the city.

Makes Radioed Voice Secretive

John Hays Hammond, Jr., is pressing Edison hard for invention honors. He has a score of discoveries to his credit. His latest devices are a symphonic organ, and a machine that will make possible the sending of the human voice through the air to a directed point without danger of interception. He is shown with the latter.

Marriage License—John Edwin Tighe of Klamath Falls and Mary Bernice Provost, also of Klamath Falls, were issued a marriage license yesterday afternoon in the Klamath county court house. The young couple will reside in the city, where they have many friends.

Father To Go South—M. H. Daggett, father of Claude Daggett and Junior Daggett will leave next week for Berkeley, where he will spend the winter months, planning to return in June to spend the summer with his sons in Klamath Falls.

Visitor From Lakeview—H. M. Molte is included in the many business visitors in Klamath Falls from his home in Lakeview.

Visitor From Bonanza—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Langell of Bonanza are included in the many business visitors in the city yesterday to transact business. Langell is a prominent stockman and rancher of that district.

Cooked Food Sale Today—Members of Women's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will hold a cooked food sale this morning at 10 o'clock in Miller's market on Main street. Everything from choice meat dishes to dainty pastries will be offered for sale by the guild. Funds derived from the sale will go toward the payment of the church piano. Those in charge of the sale are: Mrs. C. C. Seeley, chairman, Mrs. J. D. Morgan, Mrs. A. R. Morrison and Mrs. N. D. Ginsbach. This is the first fall activity of the group.

At The White Pelican Hotel—Guests in the White Pelican hotel this week include a number of San Francisco residents, among them the following to arrive in the city last night: E. L. Chaffer, Charles C. Hamilton, G. H. March, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sanford, J. M. Randolph, O. L. Olsen, A. H. Stevens and E. F. LeFavre.

Timber Man In—Howard H. Havey of [illegible] is in the city for several days transacting business with the extensive timber holdings in the county.

Used Instrume
$48.50
This used piano is a good buy at $10 and balance on mo payments.
See it at
Earl Shepherd
507 Main St.

Tremendous

And Still Going Strong

Men's shoes and oxfords are picked up by eager buyers. Many buying two pairs. Ladies, too, continue to avail themselves of the vast savings in satins, patents and kid slippers.

Rainy weather means Hi-Cut shoes for the boys. Here they go! 12 in. top, pac lasts, in sizes 1 to 6. A real $6 value.

Today $4.89

BOYS' RUFF SHOES

Made of heavy oil grain leather, triple stitch, leather soles and heels.

Now Going $3.39

BOYS' DRESS SHOES

Bought for fall and couldn't cancel, so out they go. Cordovan brown, calf leather, rubber heels, a $5.50 value.

Now $3.89

DON'T WAIT!

Until too late to get a good range of choice. This opportunity to save will soon be over, and the new prices we quote each day throughout the store will help us move sooner.

FIXTURES FOR SALE
Counters, Setees, Window Fixtures, Shelving.

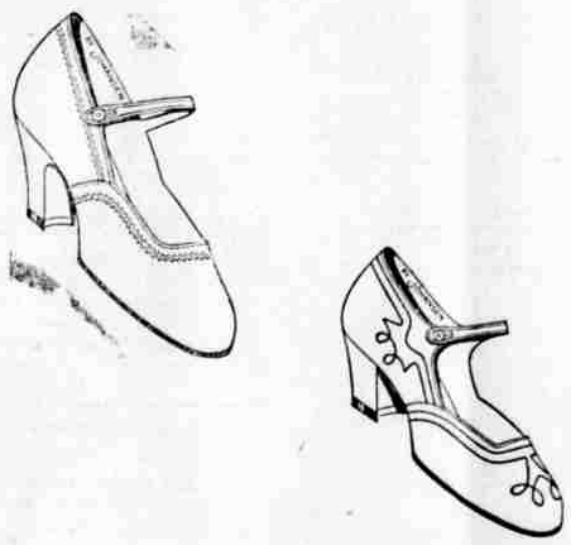
Down They Go. Out They Go. Then We Go.

KLAMATH SHOE STORE

Dancing Wed. Night
MOOSE HALL
Music By Galloway's Orchestra.

1922 OAKLAND TOURING
An exceptional buy at $275.
Howie Motor Co.
Phone 379 12th and Main Sts.

Only Two



OF THE NEW FALL STYLES
We are showing many others. Black is a good tip for fall.
Houston & Jester
515 Main St.

The End Nears

Women all over Klamath County have been talking of the amazing values they have found here, where they have purchased

QUALITY MERCHANDISE —at— HALF PRICE AND LESS

Such bargains cannot last a great while longer.

Never again will it be possible to buy high grade ladies' apparel at such money saving prices.

La Vogue Store
8th and Main Sts.
Former Location of Houston & Phelps