

LOCALS

Issue Invitations—Invitations to attend the fall opening of the Women's Store given by H. N. Moe & company will be put in the mails today. The opening will be held Saturday, September 19 and the unveiling of the show windows will be at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

Week-End In Klamath—Mrs. John Shephard of the Shephard ranch at Pine Grove is included in the recent out of town visitors in the city this week, spending the week-end with her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Dutton and children.

Mrs. Moe Returns—Mrs. H. N. Moe, after spending more than a month in San Francisco and bay cities returned to Klamath Falls yesterday.

Visitors From Merrill—Miss Ellen McVeigh of the Merrill high school faculty is included in the numerous visitors in the city yesterday from her home in Merrill.

Mrs. Meissner Ill—Mrs. A. G. Meissner is confined to her home suffering from a severe attack of sore throat which has been the source of much illness in Klamath Falls during the past two weeks.

Miss Walker To Wed—Friends of Miss Aileen Walker of Ashland will be surprised to learn of her marriage yesterday to Dan Kay, well known Ashland garageman, which occurred at the home of her parents in the valley city. Her sister, Miss Mary Walker spent Wednesday in Ashland to attend the wedding and visit with her parents. Mrs. Kay is well known in Klamath Falls where she has spent a great deal of her time.

From Langell—Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald were in from their home in Langell valley yesterday on business.

Returned From California—Mrs. Cora Lofquist has returned from an extended trip to Long Beach and other California points.

Visits In Klamath Falls—Brown Michiel of Dalry, was a county seat business visitor yesterday.

Rancher From Poe Valley—Tom Roberts of Poe valley was in town on business the middle of the week.

Visits In City—F. J. Browne, from near Bonanza, was transacting business at the county seat yesterday.

On Business Here—Jay Manning of Midland district, was in Klamath Falls yesterday on business.

Old Timer Visits—Steve Low, an old time resident of Klamath county, who owned a splendid ranch near Klamath, several years ago, is here on business and pleasure. Mr. Low is a brother of C. C. Low of this city.

Job's Daughters To Meet—A meeting of members of Job's Daughters is scheduled for Thursday night, 7:30 in the Masonic hall. Business will be discussed as well as plans for the future work for the winter.

Special sale of silk combination suits for only $1.95, at Bee Begin's Dress Shop, 129 So. Seventh St. S17-19

Painting, paper hanging, Interior decorating, COFER BROTHERS Phone 389.

Brooms and dust pans are taboo. Here's the cleaner, ma'am, for you. Van Fleet's Serviceman Says Attachments that come with the Western Electric vacuum cleaner clean the curtains upholstery, walls—everything, everywhere in the house. Calendar payments.

DO IT ELECTRICALLY
VAN FLEET'S MOTOR SHOP
208 Main St.
Day Phone 758. Night 571

Chief Operator Here—Miss Edna Parsley, chief operator of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, of Portland, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday. She was on her way to Malin.

Miss Porter To Leave—After spending a week in Klamath Falls visiting with friends, Miss Ada Porter will leave today for her home in Chicago, first stopping for a brief time in Bend, Portland and other northern cities. Miss Porter will be accompanied as far as Bend today by Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes of Williamson river, with whom she has been visiting while in Klamath.

Visits From Pine Grove—Mrs. A. R. Campbell is included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday, from her home in Pine Grove, where the Campbell ranch is located.

Merrill Visitor In—Gus J. Hilliard of the Merrill district spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls transacting business affairs.

In Shopping Wednesday—Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes and Mrs. O. L. Brown of Williamson river and Miss Gertrude Cox of Barclay springs near Algoma are included in the visitors to spend Wednesday afternoon in the city visiting and shopping.

Cheyne In From Merrill—Bob Cheyne is included in the many business visitors in the city from his home in the Merrill district, where the Cheyne ranch is located.

Posters Out For Game—Posters are out for the Klamath county high school football game with Alturas high, on the home gridiron Saturday of this week. Enthusiasm is heavier this year than ever before with the backing of the business men of the city.

On Business From Medford—Frank Metzgar of Medford, is making a brief business visit to Klamath Falls from the valley. Metzgar is district agent for the Pacific Fruit & Produce company.

Kodak Finishing that pleases all is our specialty.
STINSON'S STUDIO
737 Main St.

STOCK UP NOW —with— GROCERIES

Winter will soon be here and Fresh Fruits and Vegetables will not be obtainable.

This is your opportunity to lay in your winter's supply of High Grade Groceries at prices that in several instances are less than wholesale.

FIXTURES FOR SALE

The following High Grade Fixtures remain and must be sold:
Dayton Computing Scales
Shelving
Show Cases
Burrighs Adding Machine
U. S. Meat Slicing Machine
Hubbard Electric Coffee Mill
Wm. J. Burns Check Protector
McCaeskey Credit System
Cheese Cutter
Cheese Case
American Multigraph
Addressograph
And other grocery equipment.

M. L. BLOTCKY
Purchaser of the Stock of
HOUSTON & PHELPS
8th and Main

Marriage License—Wilford Hall Landon of Klamath Falls and Anita C. Marx also of Klamath Falls were issued a marriage license yesterday in the office of the county clerk, Landon gave his occupation in the city as an electrician.

Fairview Lot Sold—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Santamaw have closed a deal which has transferred lot 1, block 5, of Fairview district to Dehlah C. Terry. Consideration was $2,500. The deed was filed yesterday in the county clerk's office.

Frank Light In Klamath—Frank Light with the United States Land Office in Lakeview, passed through Klamath Falls yesterday enroute to Portland, where he will spend several days on business. Light is one of the most prominent men in southern Oregon and especially in Lakeview and known to nearly every traveling man in Oregon who has had Lakeview in his territory. For years Frank Light conducted the Lakeview hotel and has only recently turned over his work to the United States Land Office.

Officers Elected—Meetings of all four classes of Klamath county high school were held Tuesday evening in the school building and officers for the coming year were elected.

P. E. O. Enjoys Party—Members of the P. E. O. society and their husbands enjoyed an interesting old-fashioned party at the home of Mrs. Syd Evans on Tuesday night. The affair marks the first winter activity which members of the P. E. O. have scheduled for the coming months.

Arnold From The Agency—L. D. Arnold of Klamath Agency, superintendent of the Indian reservation, spent Wednesday in the city transacting business affairs.

On Business And Pleasure—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bonnell of San Francisco, are making a business and pleasure trip through the southern Oregon section and left Klamath Falls yesterday for Diamond lake, where they will spend the remainder of the week fishing. Bonnell is connected with the United States Coal company of San Francisco.

Two Lots Sold Yesterday—Lots 798 and 799 in Mills Addition, block 196, were sold by Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan P. Rucker to Mrs. S. R. Berry for a consideration of $5,000, according to a deed filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk.

Pretty new silk dresses at Bee Legin's Dress Shop. S17-19

Ed Clark Ill—Edward Clark is confined to his room at the L. Lindsey home suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. Constant medical attention has been given Clark who became ill the early part of the week.

Site Given As Gift—John C. Miller filed a warranty deed in the office of the county clerk yesterday, deeding to the Langell Valley Irrigation project a land site as a gift to the project to be used in furthering their work.

From the Port—C. R. Leever of Fort Klamath spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls attending to business matters and other affairs in the county court house.

From Algoma—Ray Bruce of Algoma is included in the many business visitors in the city yesterday.

Ashland Visitor Here—Fred Cole is spending several days this week in the city interested in business affairs from his home in Ashland.

Expert roof repairing, treating, and staining.
COFER BROTHERS
Phone 389.

In from Lorella—Among the business visitors in the city yesterday was George Noble of Lorella and a number of other prominent ranchers of that district.

On Business Here—G. G. Analin of Abel, Oregon, spent Wednesday afternoon in the city on a brief business trip.

Quartet Sings at Forum—One of the enjoyable features of the forum luncheon yesterday was the vocal numbers by the Klamath chamber of commerce quartet. Mrs. Fred Cofor accompanied the quartet, composed of R. E. Patterson, Lynn P. Eabin, W. W. Southwell and Wayne Akers. F. R. Olds, commander of the Klamath American Legion post, presided at the meeting.

Masons, Attention
Work in F. C. Degree Friday, Sept. 18, 7:30 P. M. Also discussion of plans for reception to Grand Master Kelly.
C. E. DENNIS, W. M.

Laundry Max Arrives—Max Munger, Jr., of Portland, who has interests in the Klamath Falls laundry, is in the city by Marshall Falls of Klamath branch.

Used Instruments $48.50
This used piano is a good buy at $10 and balance on monthly payments.
See it at Earl Shepherd 507 Main St.

We invite your inspection of the finest and largest of Men's Fall Wear ever put under one roof in Southern Oregon

Mackinaws (Sport Coats) and Leather Vests from Patrick's.
Sweater Coats—in slip-ons and button styles.
Blazer Shirts—in all the newer style ideas.

Suede and Chamoise Coats and Jackets—in a lot of new color ideas.
Lewis and Duofold Union Suits.
Interwoven Fall Hosiery—in wool, and wool mixed—some beautiful new numbers.

Filson's and Duxbak Hunting and Outing Clothes
Cutter-Bergman and Napatan Paces and Outing Boots.
Woolen Shirts in every desirable shade and weight.

We have the genuine blue 30 ounce weight Stag Shirts and Mackinaws.
Look over our Fall Stocks—we have the styles and qualities you will want and can save you money.

KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1901