JUDGE LEAVITT ADDRESSES CLUB
"The Birthday of Klamath Falls," was the topic chosen by Judge A. R. Leavitt when he called upon to speak to members of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the meeting held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. R. E.
Wattenburg on Pine street.
As the first mayor of Klamath Falls, Judge Leavitt was perfectly versed in the subject which he used during the evening. He carried the listeners back to the days when Klamath Falls was not Klamath Falls, but Linkville, huddled on the banks of the Link River.
Judge Leavitt arrived here in 1884.
"Constitution Day" was the interesting theme discussed by Mrs.
E. L. Cramblitt. Another phase of the meeting which proved of interest to all was the review of the recent trip enjoyed by Mrs.
Rachael Applegate Solomon to Alaska, where she spent the month of August.

Special guests of the evening were Judge and Mrs. A. R. Leavitt, Miss Maybell Leavitt, Mrs. W. H.
Hudson, Mrs. Morrison and Miss MacKenzie.

MOE'S STORE HAS OPENING One of the most delightful affairs of the week that interested every woman in the city who takes pride and care in her grooming was the fall opening of the Woman's Store on Friday evening.
The display, according to many in the city, is the most fascinating exhibition of garments that the city has ever seen.
Especially attractive was the large middle window which held portrayed a beautiful evening scene with dainty frocks in pastel shades and a number in the ever popular blacks. The store was thronged on Saturday by patrons to enjoy the frocks, hats from the Peggy-Claire shop and other departments of the store which could not display their new fall goods in the window space.
