this subject during a visit here. "Klamath and Lake counties are spending a lot of money to control this pest," he said, but there are other counties not cooperating as actively as they should. The director said he hoped to bring together representatives of Modoc and Siskiyou counties in California and Klamath and Lake, in Oregon, for a conference dealing with elimination of the coyotes.

Order of DeMolay Dance on Thursday

Masonic Hall to be Scene of Entertainment for Members and Invited Guests

Klamath Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will entertain with a dancing party at the Masonic hall on Thursday evening. Dancing will start at 8 and continue until 11 p. m. Special invitations have been sent lady friends of the order and girls of the Daughters of Job. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bathlany, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bechtel and Prof. and Mrs. D. E. Jackson, will act as chaperones for the occasion. Prior to the dance a business meeting will be held at 8 p. m. at which master, senior and junior councilors will be elected for the remainder of the 1925 term. Furthering of plans for an initiation of a large class on October 22 will also be part of the business program.

Toul Held Over for Grand Jury

John Toul, whom it is alleged cracked the safe of Cofer brothers, contractors, late last week and who is charged with larceny of a dwelling house in connection with theft of women's wearing apparel, including a $600 mink coat and about $100 worth of silk underthings, was bound over to the grand jury by Justice of the Peace Kendall yesterday after a preliminary hearing. A half dozen witnesses appeared against Toul, who refused the aid of counsel. He pleaded his own case to Kendall who bound him over. The grand jury will consider Toul's case along with others early in October it is understood.

Mitchell Refuses to Stop Air Fight

refuse to prosecute his fight when called as a witness by the probers. The reply was emphatic in its insistence that under no consideration would he forego his "prosecution and sell out." That a separate order for his appearance before the board of inquiry sitting at Lakehurst, and probing the Shenandoah disaster would be issued for Mitchell's appearance there, was the opinion of his brother officers. Fingers of the aircraft investigators have not only reached to the eighth corps area headquarters, but have been felt at Kelly, Brooks and Duncan fields here. Orders were received Tuesday for chiefs of these flying fields to furnish immediately to Washington headquarters a detailed account of flying during the past year. Especially wanted are figures on the number of aircraft hours flown by individual ships of various types. Crest on Frock Is Stylish Now Dame Fashion says you may embroider your family crest or your own monogram on the front of your frock or you may make the embellishment merely a note of color. This jumper frock of fine French flannel with the 'spoked skirt', is stitched in green, yellow, red and other colors.

Fair Exhibits Shipped Friday

Armed with material from Klamath county with which to compete with every other county in Oregon, County Agent C. A. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lee and Frank Sexton will leave Friday morning for Salem where they will install and take charge of the booth for Klamath County during the week of the Oregon state fair. Teams to be taken to the state fair include the boys' livestock judging team which will compete with other teams of Oregon and possibly Southern Washington. The work of the teams will be supervised by Frank Sexton, boys' and girls' club work agent. Members of the livestock judging team are Cecil Haley, Bryant Williams and Karl Kiger. Included in the exhibits are three dozen jars of canned fruit, the pick of all canned fruits exhibited at the county fair. Fancy work, art work and vegetables that were awarded the blue ribbon prizes will also be included in the exhibits which are now packed and ready for shipment to the state fair at Salem next week.

EMPLOYERS TRAFFIC SCOUT WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—As a result of nearly being run down by an automobile recently, President Coolidge has the services of a traffic "scout" to protect him on his strolls about the capital. The scout is a bicycle policeman. He began his services Tuesday.
