FOOTBALL SEASON STARTED IN EAST

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(United News)—The game, but foredoomed guinea pigs of inter-collegiate football, will be trampled for experimental purposes Saturday afternoon in games with the bigger schools. The season begins in the eastern part of the country with Pennsylv-vania playing Ursinus. Penn State playing Lebanon Valley, and Syracuse picking on little Hobart; among other games in which the disparity is just as great.

The big three—Yale, Harvard and Princeton, will continue their practice, having booked no games thus early in the season.

Cornell has a date to abuse Susquehanna. Dartmouth has the same intentions toward Norwich, and Holy Cross will use Manhattan college for a sparring partner.

Other games on the opening day's card are:

Georgia Tech vs. Oglethorpe; Lafayette vs. Muhlenberg; Amherst vs. Rochester; Brown vs. Rhode Island; Georgetown vs. Drexel, and Williams vs. Hamilton.

GRIDIRON HEROES READY FOR GAME

Klamath high school gridiron heroes are ready for the first real contest of the year when they will meet Grants Pass on the enemy's platter.

Eighteen of the men with a number of rooters, Coach Dwight French and several of the faculty left yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock in one large bus, thrilled to the toes with the prospect of meeting their enemy.

A number of the players in both the line and the backfield have been shifted, according to French and the line improved considerably with the strength placed in the weak spots found in the Alturas game of last week.

Those who made the trip with the coach and principal were Athletic Manager Bill Kuykendall and the following men: William Bessles, Joe Bliss, Robert Oliver, Chas. Maguire, Angus Walsh, John Morgan, George Connors, Leslie Elmore, Don Soule, Zed Barnes, Frank Hall, Roland Cofer, Carl Yancey, Floyd Colson, Laurence Carroll, Raymond Yarnes, Gordon Loomis and Don Harlan.

The lineup printed some time ago in the News, remains unchanged, according to the latest plans of Coach French.

HAGEN TO DEFEND TITLE IN FINALS AT OLYMPIA CLUB

OLYMPIA FIELDS, COUNTRY CLUB, CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—(United News)—Walter Hagen will defend his national professional golf championship Saturday, meeting Bill Melhorn of Chicago, in the final round of the professional golfers' association tournament.

Hagen entered the final round Friday by defeating Harry Cooper of Dallas, Texas, 3 and 1. He encountered little difficulty in disposing of the dark skinned Texas professional and except for his first nine holes Friday afternoon did not equal par.

Melhorn, who was western open champion in 1924, survived the semi-finals by beating Mortie Dutra of Aberdeen, Wash., 8 and 6.

FOOTBALL SUITS ARE PRESENTED PLAYERS

Presentation of 18 football suits to the players on the Klamath county high school football team was made at a meeting of the associated student body at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

H. D. Mortenson, chairman of the Citizen's Student Athletic committee was master of ceremonies. Other members of the committee present were Dr. G. A. Massey, C. H. Underwood, Charles I. Roberts, R. C. Groesbeck, T. W. Delzell, Lynn Fabla and H. N. Moo.

Coach Dwight French gave a brief address before the student body urging the usual "pop" enthusiasm to be shown at the Grants Pass game today.

It is the hope of Principal Jackson to hold the student body meetings every week and to have worthy speakers address the students on timely subjects.

tions, third and fourth, are just about decided.

The Pirates and Giants were to have done some bag punching in Pittsburgh Friday, but the game was postponed until Saturday and the Giants will then excuse themselves from Pittsburgh until next spring.

The Senators, who will meet the Pirates in the series, let the Browns win a game in Washington, 4 to 3, and the Browns aren't very likely to be rushed out of third place by the Tigers at this late hour. The Tigers also won, defeating the Red Sox in Boston, 10 to 5.

The Athletics went through the motions of a ball game in Philadelphia, losing to the Indians, 9 to 5 and making five errors.

In the National league, third place belongs to the Reds, who whaled the despondent Robins again, 8 to 7. The Robins have gone to catch on the road in their journey and are doing tour without visiting a club.
