Merrill High Notes

By ALTA WILSON Practice for soccer ad volleyball is being carried on in earnest. The first games will be played with the Henley team on their ground October 9. The Merrill teams have not yet been selected, but there is some mighty good material.

Richard Bogue brought a Fordson to school Tuesday, and securing a road drag, he and several other boys leveled the soccer ground.

William Hulet, who has been a student in Merrill high for the past two years, will leave for Myrtle Point shortly. His father, Rev. Chas. Hulet, will fill the Presbyterian pulpit there. Merrill will lose a good yell leader in William.

With the arrival of practically all the new school books, the students can proceed with their work without delay. The various committees have been appointed for the Freshman reception and the invitations sent out. Plans are well under way to give the Frosh a real initiation on October 2.

Mr. Paroungian visited the school Tuesday and gave a talk on the conditions in Armenia. He is a native of that country, and is here soliciting aid for the Armenian war orphans. The school voted to support one orphan for a year, and a ways and means committee was appointed to secure the necessary funds.

Donald Bailey, who has been spending a few weeks with relatives in California, resumed his school work here Monday morning. The Senior class had a debate Friday on the question, "Resolved: That Prohibition Has Been a Success." The affirmative side won with a decision of three to nothing.

The Junior class is planning on getting class rings and pins this year as well as the Seniors. The Juniors sold candy at the dance in Merrill Friday night as a means of securing the money for them.

Miss Muriel Nichols, who formerly taught in the Merrill school and is now the English teacher in Klamath County high, spent the week end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harwood.
