

DELPHIAN CLIQUE IS ORGANIZED BY KLAMATH WOMEN

60 Members Gather to Form Organization, With Plans for Coming Winter

More than sixty prominent women of Klamath Falls responded to the call of membership for the Delphian club, which became an organization in Klamath Falls Monday afternoon, when Mrs. Lena Latham Goble opened the organizing meeting in the library club rooms at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. T. C. Campbell was elected president of the organization with Mrs. H. R. Harrison, first vice president; Mrs. W. O. Smith, second vice president and Miss Clara Calkins, secretary.

An interesting discussion of the formation of the Delphian club was given by Mrs. Goble, and an outline of the four groups of study were announced.

Mrs. E. G. Wisecarver, Mrs. G. W. Baxter, Mrs. J. Royal Shaw, and Mrs. W. H. Robertson will be the leaders of the four groups for the winter season. Members are Mrs. E. G. Wisecarver, Mrs. E. D. EX-KLAMATH GIRL ATTORNEY WINS HER FIRST COURT CASE

Word has been received in the city that Miss Christine Murdock, now an attorney at Bakersfield, California has come through her first case in the federal courts with high honors.

Miss Murdock, born in Klamath county and receiving the major portion of her education here left several years ago to complete her education in the California schools.

The first case Miss Murdock accepted was held in the superior courts when she defended a Mexican charged with receiving stolen property. Following a particularly impressive plea, the jury consisting of business men and women of Bakersfield, acquitted the Mexican, Pablo Sarazura.

The trial was held before Judge J. W. Mahon, presiding jurist of department No. 3 of the superior court.

Miss Murdock was met in the trial by another young girl, the latter a graduate of the law department of the University of California. Miss Murdock received her degree in Stanford University.

Buck Fever Makes Horns Sprout Fast

Strange maladies may come and strange maladies may go but the strangest of all around here just now is known as "Buck Ague" which is afflicting several hunters in Klamath county this deer season.

Perhaps the most afflicted of the stricken ones is Bill Houston, who suffered the first case known to mankind.

Tracing the disease back it is found that Houston, while hunting over the week-end in Modoc county, saw a wonderful mule tail buck majestically standing not thirty feet from him.

So thoroughly did the disease seize Houston that he could but grasp his gun in his trembling hands and stare at the buck.

With the arrival of assistance the buck leaped into the forest and hid from the hunters. At 10 o'clock, still shaking, he said, the buck had eight points; at 12 o'clock the mule tail buck had 16 points and in the early hours of the morning the buck had so many points Houston couldn't count them.

Houston is still mumbling incoherently, still jibbering and meditating of Klamath Falls are sending into the department of research the history of "Buck Ague."

PRISON BRIBERY IS TOLD TO COURT

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—United News—A Chicago court room, packed with a crowd that had abandoned movie thrills for the bootleggers' melodrama, was listening Monday to Terry's continued story of bribery, while in jail. Terry, with his equally young and capable partner, Frankie Lake insists that he kept ex-Warden Wesley Westbrook on his payroll, that Westbrook, through a go-between, wanted $100,000 to give Terry privileges, and two guards were paid $200 a month salary from the bootlegger's pocket.

Westbrook, deposed from his post following the scandal, has hired Chicago's most spectacular criminal lawyer and announced that Terry is a liar, and nothing more.

But according to Terry's story on the witness stand Monday he certainly received privileges not common to the lot of persons for contempt of court.

Terry admitted that while in jail he used to "go out nights." Pressed for details, he said he went to his home on exclusive Lakeview avenue. When his wife moved from there, he said, he "got a few nights off from jail to help pack."

Yes, possibly he had been absent from jail for four days beginning August 15. Yes, he guessed he'd been out to his country place—a magnificent estate complete with stables, swimming pool and tennis courts—"a couple or three times," during his jail term.

Henry Forest, former secretary to Warden Westbrook, testified in confirmation of Druggan's charges, saying that he had acted as Westbrook's collector, and "got no more than $1,000 out of the whole affair for himself."

"Westbrook wanted me to get Druggan and Lake to give him $100,000 to let them out," he testified, "but the boys didn't want to pay that much, so the proposition fell through."

How He Discovered Best Constipation Relief

Mr. Joseph F. Glus of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes "In the past 20 years I have been constantly troubled with constipation. Every remedy I tried would work O.K. for a while—but soon failed. The only remedy I have been able to use steadily with good results have been Carter's Little Liver Pills. I don't guess when I take them—I know I'm going to feel relieved." 25c at all druggists.

PAINLESS PARKER HAS HARD CRUISE

Prominent Dentist and Yachtsman Nearly Starves While on Hawaiian-Coast Trip

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—(United News)—After making port Tuesday without a scrap of food on their craft, members of the crew of the racing yacht Idalia related a tale of near starvation on a cruise to the mainland from Honolulu.

The Idalia, the property of Dr. E. R. "Painless" Parker finished second in the San Francisco-Tahiti race last spring. Parker started the return from Paapeete with two white companions and four Tahitians.

The journey to 99 was without trouble and the Idalia left Hawaii with ample provisions for an ordinary run to the mainland. But unfavorable winds were encountered and the auxiliary motor refused to function properly.

On September 19 the food situation became serious and the supply was rationed. A 12 ounce daily allotment of water for each man was decided upon.

Last Sunday the last bit of food was consumed and since then the men had had nothing to eat and but a small quantity of water to drink. They were visibly weakened upon arrival here but hot food quickly restored their spirits.

LAWYERS DISCUSS LEGAL PROCEDURE

Failure to get cases in the Klamath county circuit court is not due so much to Judge A. L. Leavitt as it is to the lawyers of the city, who fail to live up to court orders. This was the finding of a committee appointed by the Klamath County Bar Association to investigate the circuit court docket.

At a report of the investigation, read last night before members of the bar association in regular monthly meeting it was found that after a careful analysis of the records of cases pending up until September 1 and dating back to May 1923 the bulk of cases are "dead." More than half the cases show on the register no appearance for the defense; 30 standing on motions or demurrers; those at issue resolve into 22 law actions; 11 equity suits beside five to be tried on affidavits of prejudice.

The big problem confronting the circuit court is the uncertainty as to when cases will come up for trial.

To alleviate this situation the bar association is considering suggesting amendment of several court rules to fit in with the Klamath court situation.

One of these will be the designation of every Friday as "Calendar Day," when court is in session or a judge sitting in the chamber, all motions or demurrers served and filed previous to that day shall come up for hearing in the order as filed and listed. The court is to set cases for all pending trials on Calendar Day. When arbitrary action is evident the clerk shall give notice to the attorneys of the parties at least 3 days in advance of the time set for trial.

CANADIAN BEAUTY FLEES WITH BABE

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 29.—(United News)—As a climax to a legal battle which has been fought for many months in the courts of the United States and Canada, Hilda Betty Cooke, Canadian beauty, Tuesday was declared "unfit" to have custody of her five year old daughter Shirley.

The child and her mother have disappeared and at the same time Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco, awarded possession of Shirley to J. Henry Cooke, Toronto attorney a search for the missing pair was begun.

The mother with the child is believed to be hiding in the United States.

for or against either railroad. The result of the vote will probably be in by late tomorrow.

Residents of Alturas and Modoc county want to defeat the plans of the Oregon public service commission in its Crane-Odell railroad proposal, and Frank McArthur, who appeared as spokesman for the Modoc Improvement association, appeared before the chamber of commerce directors today noon and urged support of that organization in getting a line through the Tule lake country to Alturas for an eastern connection.

"The Crane-Odell extension would leave us both off the map," he challenged.

F. M. Trout, of Malibu, said a main line through the Tule lake country was most needed.

"We want a railroad, but we don't give a damn who builds it," he said. Rev. C. C. Hutel, Merrill resident, said the people of his district endorsed the Southern Pacific program for its promised line through that section to connect up with eastern connections.

Mayor Anderson of Merrill said: "We are for the Southern Pacific. They have promised to build down through the valley, and the northern lines have said they didn't want to go any farther than Klamath Falls."
