

LOCALS

Here From Falls—John Board, manager of the Falls office, has been spent Thursday in Klamath Falls transacting business affairs.

Main Water Is—The Falls open Thursday afternoon in Klamath Falls from his ranch in the Falls district. Board is a member of the Klamath Water Users Board.

Backs Flying Well—According to W. E. Dalton of Falls, who was in the city yesterday for a brief time, the state in the Tule Lake country are better in well and many hunters came near striking in the fall.

Working Into New Home—Mr. and Mrs. George L. Henderson are spending the week moving into their new home at 72 Pine street, which has been recently completed. The building is of stone and one of the most attractive homes in the city and has an especially good view of the surrounding hills and lake.

Visiting With Parents—Mrs. James E. Howard and daughter, Miss Wynona Lee Howard, arrived in Klamath Falls the early part of the week from her home in Hornbrook, to spend a fortnight visiting with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Garcia. Mrs. Howard will be remembered as Miss Bonnie Garcia.

Hunt In Tule Lake—Armed with a California license, E. H. Bond, E. H. Halsey and Dr. G. A. Mabee left at four o'clock Thursday morning for the Tule Lake country, where they brought down enough ducks to give the families back home for several nights. According to the hunters the cold season will bring in more of the migratory birds and make the hunting more interesting.

Leaving For The East—John C. Lane, who has been employed with the California Oregon Power company plans to leave during the latter part of the week for the east, where he will remain indefinitely.

Wife In Klamath—Among the old residents to return to the city recently is Norman Taylor of Dorris, Calif., who was a former resident of Klamath Falls when he served with the Standard Oil company there. He is now with the company in Dorris.

Enjoy Hunting Thursday—Hunters of Klamath Falls to arrive early yesterday morning to bring home a supply of ducks include George Fife and Bill Amiche, who spent the morning in the Tule Lake district.

Mrs. Cummings Is—Mrs. Laura Cummings of the Merrill road district spent Thursday afternoon in the city transacting business affairs and visiting.

Leaving For The South—Mrs. George E. Taylor is leaving today for her home in Livermore, Calif., after spending the past three weeks visiting with her son, George A. Taylor, who is proprietor of the Quality Hotel here. Mrs. Taylor made a number of friends while in the city who will regret her departure.

Hunting Thursday—W. W. Southwell is one of the most active hunters here in Klamath county in near the end of the wild geese in the Tule Lake country, southward with Lee Smith of Polkton this week, the day in the region.

Returns To Lodge—Mrs. Lester Vizard returned to Harrison Lodge yesterday after visiting for several days in the city.

Out On Deer Hunt—A party of Klamath hunters are expected to return Sunday night from a two-week hunting trip which they have enjoyed in the Fly district near Campbell lake. Several hunters who have returned from the coast the here are having exceptionally good hunting luck. Those in the party are Harold Vester of Polkton, Clay Hunt, Herbert Lloyd (son of Harold), George Lee and Jimmy Reed of Klamath Falls and Ray Gehring of Chiloquin.

To Hunt Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Benton are planning to leave Sunday morning for Upper Lake to spend the morning hunting geese. They have a chance spot located near Lody Point where they hope to get the limit.

Visiting From Dorris—Mrs. Wilma Jorgensen and Mrs. A. J. Johnson are visitors and stopovers in Klamath Falls this week from their homes in Dorris.

Home From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harris have returned to Klamath Falls after a two-week vacation.

Leaving For Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Kincaid are leaving today for Portland, where Mr. Kincaid will spend a day transacting business, returning immediately to Klamath Falls.

Reverend Hunter Is—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Schick and child are included in the business vacation in the city yesterday from their home in the Merrill district.

Is From Rocky Point—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gentry, who are in from their resort on the upper Klamath lake, Rocky Point.

Circle In Klamath—Laura Taylor arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday from a brief vacation trip through the Klamath country. Taylor is a member of the Campbells-Taylor Center church.

In The Water Before—Out of town visitors in the city this week include Robert C. Johnson of Portland, who is a guest in the White Salmon hotel while in Klamath Falls.

Business Visitors—Among the business visitors in the city this week are J. P. Bennett and J. H. Mather of Bend, who are spending a brief time here transacting affairs.

Hotel Lake Visitor—D. E. Roberts is in the city for a brief visit from his home in the Steel Lake district.

In Business Here—Among the business visitors to spend some time in the city this week are L. E. Doherty and A. H. Wilson of the Tillamook district.

Home From Hunting Trip—Will Prosser, Nelson, Wallace of the White Salmon hotel, to each their home as they fall. Mr. Prosser, right back to the hotel and George White spent Thursday morning in the Tule Lake district, where much to harvest surprise, there was very little water. Nevertheless, the hunters returned "ired, but happy" and killed a little the more for year for chasing the two birds which had under their night fire.

From West—W. E. Horn is a business visitor in the city this week from his home in West.

In The Arcade Hotel—Out of town visitors in the city this week include a number of Portland residents, among them E. H. Peterson. While in Klamath Falls Peterson is a guest in the Arcade hotel.

From Oakland—Dorley Watson is the city visitor in the city this week from his home in Oakland, who are making a brief business visit in the city for some time.

Hornback Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. W. Hutton and Paul Hutton are among the guests in the city from California this week. All three are residents of Hornback, and are making the trip to Klamath to hunt for several days.

From Oakland—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hutton are visitors in the city this week from their home in Oakland and his week.

Main Water Here—Mrs. G. McNamee of Falls is among the visitors in the city this week from her home in the neighboring city.

Hunting Week—Hunters who are planning to go out over the weekend include Ray Amiche, James A. Reed and George Fife.

Get "Hunt"—Bud Carney and Lloyd Taylor of the First National bank visited yesterday from a week spent in the Tule Lake country with a "hunt" consisting of two ducks. Both of the men are well up with the weather when the ducks will be a little later.

Auxiliary News—Members of the Women's auxiliary of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church on Pine street to discuss for winter work and the dinner which will be held on Saturday. The business for the day were Mrs. George Hunt, Mrs. Ray Reed and Mrs. W. E. Hornback.

In From Chicago—E. C. Campbell of Chicago is included in the list of town visitors in the city this week. He is the proprietor of a post and in the association city.

Home In Williamson House—What will be the case of the best hunting grounds of the season for ducks in Williamson district according to the report brought by a group of hunters who spent Thursday in that county. Hunting was more than "hot," according to members of the party. Those to make the trip were Jack Reed, J. T. Karamolis, Charles Sargent, J. H. Smith, Bill Hutton and E. E. Bennett.

In From Merrill—Out of town guests in the city yesterday included Mrs. Vera Hammond and Mrs. Will Hammond, both well known residents of the Merrill district, where the Hammond ranches are located.

Visitors From Bonanza—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mrs. Leland and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Freddie Leland of Bonanza. They spent the day shopping in the city stores and visiting with friends.

Forbes Pure Lard
Eighth at Market
Good Service—Good

New Beauty Culturists at Moe's Beauty Shoppe
Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McBride, experts in the art of Women's and children's hair cutting, Marceling, paper waving, manouring facial and scalp treatments are here to satisfy the demands of particular women. You will find them courteous and efficient and we are quite certain that this new and better service will please our many customers.

SATURDAY OUR LAST DAY
So successful has been our Close-Out Sale that we find upon close inventory we are down to ten dozen Ladies' Pumps and Oxfords. We want action on these, so for Saturday we have arranged every one, with sizes on bottom for your convenience, and marked them

$1

In this lot you'll find values up to $10.00. Buy several.

Store Closed All Day Friday

KLAMATH SHOE STORE

The Wear's in the Quality

Suits and Topcoats

Your Clothes must be styled correctly and made properly to give you the utmost service. That's why so many men appreciate the Clothes we present them, season after season.

Kuppenheimer's Suits and Top Coats

Patrick's Fine "Bigger Than Weather" Overcoats
(are better than ever.)

See the largest and finest stocks of Men's Clothing in Southern Oregon before you outfit for winter.

Suits from $25 to $60
Top and Overcoats from $15 to $80

See the new styles in Men's Sport Wear
Sweaters Blazers Leather Vests
Mackinaws
Water Proof Hunting Clothes

KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY
MAKING CLOTHING SINCE 1892

In the Center of the Shopping District

