

LOCALS

To Visit In Chiloquin—Mrs. Esther Stoner will leave today for Chiloquin to spend the week-end on business matters, returning Saturday.

From Shasta Valley—Among the interesting visitors in the city yesterday was Isaac Davis, prominent rancher and stockman of the Little Shasta valley in California. Davis is spending the week-end in Klamath county looking into property interests located both in Klamath Falls and in surrounding districts. One of the large land holdings owned by Davis is in a ranch below Merrill.

Midland Visitor—Mrs. Edna Flower is included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week from her home in Midland where she owns a store.

Merrill Guest—Business visitors in the city this week include Bob Cheyne of Merrill, prominent rancher of that section.

Mrs. Stewart Ill—Mrs. Grace Stewart of the Vanity Shop is confined to her home at 430 Washington street with a slight attack of influenza.

Returns To City—Miss Mariam Wortley has return to Klamath Falls, arriving in the city last night, after a three weeks' visit in Pittsburgh, Kansas, with her grandparents and sister, Miss Dorothea Wortley.

Malin Rancher In—Out of town visitors visiting in Klamath Falls yesterday included Ignatius Caska, prominent rancher and stockman of the Malin district, who spent several hours in the city transacting business affairs.

Returning to Klamath—Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Wisecarver returned to Klamath Falls late last night, after a three weeks vacation spent in Portland, Tillamook beaches and McMinnville, where Dr. Wisecarver's relatives reside.

On Business Here—J. F. Crandall of Endicott, New York, is in Klamath Falls for a brief business visit in the interests of the shoe house, Endicott, Johnson corporation of New York.

Leave For the South—Rollin Rodolph and Frank Beeten left by motor yesterday morning for San Francisco, where they make their home. They plan to return to Klamath Falls in late November, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. Both Rodolph and Beeten are well known in the city where their associations as expert accountants have made them many friends.

Attend "Lightning"—Mrs. E. M. Bubh and Mrs. Paul Noel left yesterday afternoon for Medford to attend the showing of "Lightning" in the Craterion theatre. A number of Klamath Falls residents are enjoying the production which is one of the finest which has been brought to the valley for some time.

From the Reservation—Ella Williams was among the reservation visitors in Klamath Falls from her home in Beatty.

Kedron Club Entertains—More than 25 young women of the First Presbyterian church with their guests enjoyed a dinner served in the church parlors last night, when the Kedron club assisted by the Ladies Aid entertained for new members of the organization. Following the dinner details were under the management of Miss Vera Houston and Miss Jean Perry.

Visiting in Klamath—Mrs. Hort, who was before her marriage Miss Helen Maguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Maguire of the Pelican Bay Lumber company, is in the city visiting with her son Jackie, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson. She plans to spend several months in the city, where she has a score of friends, made during her residence in Klamath Falls and during the time she attended the Klamath county high school.

Accepts Position—Mrs. Paul Evans is assisting in the First National bank during the absence of Miss Jo Upp, who with her sister, Miss Martha Upp, will leave immediately for the south to spend a fortnight visiting with friends and relatives.

Marx In Medford—William Marx, Klamath Falls attorney, is spending the week-end in Medford, where he has been called in the Klamath cases now before the Medford term of federal court.

Entertain With Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe entertained with an informal dinner party on Wednesday night at their home. Guests included Mrs. J. A. Gallagher, Mrs. Beola Norris, Miss Agnes Gallagher and Miss Wyma Brotherton.

Shop In City—Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dehinger of the Merrill route are included in the many visitors to spend Thursday in Klamath Falls shopping.

From Fort Klamath—Ray Loomer of Fort Klamath is included in the scores of out of town visitors in the city this week spending Thursday in Klamath Falls on business.

From Fish Farm—M. A. Winnifred is included in the many out of town visitors in the city this week-end to transact business affairs. Winnifred resides at the Eastbrook fish farm.

Business Visitor—J. A. Gordon, prominent rancher of the Fort Klamath country, spent Thursday in Klamath Falls transacting business affairs.

Merrill Rancher In—Hans Nylander was among the visitors yesterday afternoon from his ranch on the Merrill road.

On Business Here—Elias Deal of Madoc Point, is among the business visitors to spend Thursday in the city transacting affairs in the county court house. He was accompanied by his family.

Beatty Visitor—Jon Scott of Beatty spent yesterday in Klamath Falls to transact business in the county court house.

Fort Klamath Visitor—Mrs. Carl Hossig of Fort Klamath is among the out of town shopping visitors in the city yesterday.

At the Arcade—Henry B. Howard of Chiloquin, is listed among the many visitors at the Arcade hotel for the remainder of the week.

Another Dinner Dance—and dinner dance of the White Pelican will be given in the dining room of the White Pelican on Thursday night of this week according to an announcement last night by Hope Wainbourne. Galloway's orchestra provide the music that was appreciated at the last dance in the hotel.

From Fort Klamath—Mrs. James Pelton from known Pelton ranch in Klamath country, are spending several days in Klamath Falls.

At the Hall Hotel—L. J. derson, service man for the Standard Oil company, is spending several days in the city from his home in Yreka. He is a guest in the Hall hotel in Klamath Falls.

Medford Business Visitor—Mrs. Ted Gellauer and C. Johnston are business visitors to the city from their home in Medford. Gellauer makes business visits to the city from his home in the valley.

STYLE AT ITS BEST

Klamath Clothing Kompany's Wonderful Showing of Men's Fall Suits and Top Coats

Suits and Overcoats

Products of the foremost designers and leading makers of the country are at this store ready for your inspection.

Style, of course, is assured—so is quality—and our low prices make value certain.

OVERCOATS

$15, $18.50, $22.50 and up to $85.

SUITS

$25, $30, $35 and up to $60.

Kuppenheimer Clothes
Patrick Coats
Curlee Clothes
Kincaid, Kimball Clothes

2-Trousers SUITS

Always a Freshly Pressed Pair in Reserve

Think of the convenience, the economy, the insurance in case of emergency of a Suit with an extra pair of Trousers. Double service Clothes we call them. Double value Clothes you'll find them.

Stylish, durable woolens, dependably tailored, smartly cut—they're the Clothes that usher in a new era of greater purchasing power for your dollars. Make up your mind now to be in tomorrow and see this great selection at $30—$35—$40

Get out to the Football Game Saturday, Ashland vs. K. F.

The Fall line of Interwoves Sox is better than ever—Silk, Silk and Wool Mixed, Wool, and Lisle numbers.

Duofold and Lewis Fall Union Suits—every desirable weight and fabric—Cotton, Wool, Silk.

Classy new stock of Men's Fall Weights in Pajamas and Gowns—Flannels, Soisetts, Silks.

Fall Shirt Styles—the newest patterns in Men's Fine Shirts—with collars to match and collars attached—every desirable fabric.

Particular men and men of individuality in their shoe selections, want Nettleton Shoes as a rule—they are comfortable, stylish and give lasting satisfaction.

Ready—all the new Fall styles in Nettleton and Crossett Shoes.

KLAMATH KLOTHING KOMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1901

In the Center of the Shopping District