

BEND FIGHTER IS FIT AS A FIDDLE

Earl Stolz Arrives Fine and Dandy After Winning 10rd Bout Last Saturday

Looking fit as a fiddle and with only a couple of scratches on his face as a result of his battle last Saturday night with Cowboy Martin of Bend, Earl Stolz, also of that city, who is to fight Chuck Sams here on October 29, as a semi-windup attraction on the card being staged by Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester, arrived in Klamath Falls this afternoon. Earl was due to arrive in town Sunday but could not make the grade in such short notice. Anyway he had a pretty stiff go with Martin Saturday night and almost anyone would feel like a rest after a ten round go in which he gave away 23 pounds.

Martin, he is remembered weighed 153 pounds. Earl went on at 145, just to give the fans some kind of a run for their money. He did. Three times during the 10 rounds Earl floored the big puncher. The first time he sent Martin to the canvas for a short nap in the third round. In the sixth Earl sent him for a brief flight with the ankle again, and once more in the seventh. Martin is not a cunch for any 145 pounder and in order to lay him for a trip, if even a short one, a man in the boxing business has to send his mitt across as if it was going somewhere in one great big hurry. Well, Earl can do that too.

Chuck Sams, Stolz's opponent to be, is no dumbbell either. He knows what those mitts are hung on his arms for and Earl will have to give all that is in him to get anywhere with the local boy. However, a good fight is what Matchmaker Sylvester is looking for and he believes Sams and Earl will give the fans just that. Earl stopped hard training for Monday and Tuesday, but will be at the Scandinavian hall working out tomorrow at 2:30. Matchmaker Sylvester says any of the fans who wish to be welcome to come around either in the afternoon or evening to watch the boys at work. Starkey, Chuck Sams, Alcorn and Harrington all have been working during the past few days. Each one of them are trying to get in the best possible shape for their battles on next Tuesday.

On October 24 Stolz will fight the Black Panther of the Pacific, Scott Holliday, who has been battling around Astoria for the past several months. The Panther has fought in Bend also and is an elusive battler when in the ring.

1925 TO BE MILLION DOLLAR WORLD SERIES

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(United News)—This will be a million dollar world series. The gate receipts mounted to $928,680, when Tuesday's intake of $187,936 was added to the total.

All of Tuesday's and Wednesday's receipts will go to the owners of the contending teams, the players and advisory council deriving no share after the fifth game.

Tuesday's attendance was the greatest of the series, 43,810. The total attendance is 239,974.

Walter Johnson Is Slated for 7th Game

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—(United News)—Can Walter Johnson beat the Pirates a third time in the present world series?

Only four pitchers ever won three games in one series, and 2 of them have worked in the current show.

They are Stanley Coveleskie, who won three from the Dodgers in 1920, when he was a member of the Indians, and Babe Adams, who whipped the Tigers thrice in the series of 1909.

Corey has lost both of his games against the Pirates, and Adams has appeared in this series only as a reserve pitcher in Sunday's game.

Christy Mathewson and Jack Coombs also won three apiece in a single world series.

Johnson is slated to start a third time for the Senators in the seventh and final game Wednesday. He has beaten the Pirates twice.

Bill McKeehan, manager of the Pirates, has decided to use Red Oldham, who used to beat the Senators now and then when he was with the Tigers. If he wobbles, Johnny Morrison will be the next in the line, and if necessary Vic Aldridge, also a two-game winner in this series, can be called on for relief work.

CUBS WIN CHICAGO CITY CHAMP TITLE

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—(United News)—The last place Cubs played first place baseball against the White Sox here Tuesday, winning the game, 7 to 4, and with it the city title. Cooper pitched for the Cubs and allowed 9 hits. Errors by the Sox and brilliant work at the bat by the Cubs determined the result.

Eddie Collins, manager of the Sox used three pitchers but to no avail. Of the six games played, the Sox took only one, the first being a tie.

Batteries—Cooper and Gonzales; Faber, Connally, Blankenship and Schalk.

FAMOUS POOLIST SHOWS AT MECCA

Billiard and pool fans of the city last night crowded Bert Cook's Mecca to witness O. J. Mills, of Denver, wizard of the pool table, perform on the green cloth. Mills gave an exhibition of some fancy shots which were a marvel to enthusiasts of the cue. Mills has a repertoire of 280 fancy shots, not all of which he displayed last night reserving some for this evening when he will again perform.

Mills is known all over the country. He shoots with one cue, two cues, or no cue at all. Some of his runs total 169 line-up, 85 rack, 412 Chinese, 1108 finger and 15 straight bank pool.

Not only are the performances of Mills vastly entertaining but he also gets a laugh now and then from his audiences. There are some funny things that can be done with a cue. Tonight among his features will be his famous airplane shot.

HARRY WILLS TO MEET JOHNSON ON OCT. 26

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Harry Wills will meet Floyd Johnson, the Iowa heavyweight, in a 12-round bout in Newark, October 26, according to announcement by Babe Culnan, Newark promoter.

Culnan said Paddy Mullins, Wills' manager, had closed for the negro, and that he had obtained Johnson's promise to fight over the long distance telephone from Seattle, where Johnson is now living. Financial arrangements were not disclosed.

The bout is understood to be the first Wills will undertake to condition himself for his 1926 match with Jack Dempsey.

Johnson, who has a number of good fights under his belt, despite his knockout by Jess Willard, has been living on a Washington ranch, and is said to be in perfect condition. He has looked good in recent bouts on the coast.

Pirates Pay $100,000 For Two Infielders

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—Although they have one of the best infields in baseball now and a surplus of good outfielders, too, the Pirates have paid $100,000 for an apprentice shortstop and an apprentice outfielder, who will report for trials next spring.

The club offices Tuesday evening confirmed reports that Hal Rhyne and Paul Waner, shortstop and outfielder, respectively, have been purchased from the San Francisco team of the coast league.

Joe Davine, the Pirate scout, recommended the youths.

COMMISSION URGES DRAINING OF LAKE

PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—The state game commission has gone on record urging that the lower Klamath lake, drained for irrigation, be reflooded in order to restore former conditions there.

The action was taken when William L. Finley, noted naturalist and member of the commission, declared he believed thousands of ducks were dying in that region because there was too much alkali in the waters of the lake.
