

LOCALS

Section Not to Meet—The drama and dramatic art study group of the American Association of University Women will not meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones due to the absence from the city of Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, leader of the group. The next meeting will be announced at a later date.

In From Keno—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. L. Boten of Keno, who spent the day visiting with friends and shopping.

Visit on River—Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bortke have been visiting for the past few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shorthill on Williamson river. They will return the latter part of the week.

Install Machine—The Palace Market has installed the only bone grinding machine in the city, according to announcement made yesterday which will be of interest to owners of poultry. The bones are to be ground on Tuesday and Thursday of every week and will be sold for chicken feed.

Mrs. Frakes Ill—Mrs. Bertha Frakes who has been manager for the past two years of the Riverside school cafeteria was confined to her home yesterday with an attack of grippe. Her position in the cafeteria was taken yesterday by Mrs. Chester DeLap.

To Close Cabin—Superintendent of city school J. P. Wells, with Mrs. Wells is planning to make a week-end trip to Lake of the Woods, weather permitting, to close their attractive home for the season. The Wells cabin was the scene of many hospitable week-end parties during the summer months.

Hunting in Pokeyama—Bob Stinson and LaVerne Carter spent yesterday hunting in the Pokeyama country, where they plan to remain for several days.

Lear Improving—Jimmy Lear, son of Ben Lear, is improving at his home, according to his father yesterday. Lear has been suffering for some time from a severe attack of rheumatism.

Returns from Portland—E. W. Vannice returned yesterday from Portland where he spent several days on a hurried business trip.

On Business in Chiloquin—Miss Phyllis Hogan is in Chiloquin for several days, where she is transacting business relative to the Golden Rule store in the reservation city.

On Business Here—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Williams of San Francisco are making a brief business visit to Klamath Falls from their home in the south. Williams makes frequent business trips to the city in the interest of a southern wholesale house.

Babeck Improving—Charles Babeck, who has been confined to his bed at the home of his aunt for over a month is improving from a severe attack of rheumatism, according to friends who are interested.

Returns from Chiloquin—G. N. Clifton has returned from Chiloquin where he spent several days on business. According to Clifton the roads are in splendid condition from Klamath Falls to the reservation.

Leave for North—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stoner, well known residents of Astoria, left yesterday for their home in the north, after spending an interesting three weeks visit in Klamath Falls with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stoner.

In City on Business—F. G. Chard and Mr. Collins, who are both connected with the Dalton Adding Machine company are included in the many out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls this week. Chard and Collins are residents of Portland.

Leaving for Valley—George Metz is leaving today for the valley, where he has been called to Medford to attend the annual southern Oregon district term of court. Metz will appear as a witness in the Fred Hood case.

Leave for Home in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delzell and son Charles who have been spending the past three days in the city visiting with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Delzell, returned to their home in Salem yesterday. Delzell, while in Klamath Falls transacted business as well as visiting with his many friends. He serves as secretary to Governor Walter M. Pierce.

Report Carls Next Week—There will be many a heart skip, many a sigh and perhaps many a surprise next week when the first report cards of the school year are issued to the scores of students in the Klamath county high school. The exact day of the distribution of the tell-tale cards has not been announced by Principal Paul Jackson who will have the cards issued as soon as the teachers' reports are filed in the office. There will be introduced this year two honor rolls, one an honor roll and the other grand honor roll. A student must, according to Principal Paul Jackson, obtain at least three "A" marks and not less than a "B" in any other subject. To be rated as a grand honor roll student, one must have at least a straight "A" card, although a number of students are anticipating a grade of "A Plus."

Leaves for the South—Ceell Bass of Susanville, who has been visiting for several days with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Fife, left yesterday for Hill, California, where he is interested in the installation of a sprinkling system in one of the Hill mills.

Return from San Francisco—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane and children and Mrs. John Sargent, all of Klamath Falls, returned the early part of the week from San Francisco and other bay cities, where they enjoyed a week's visit with friends.

Visit in Medford—Miss Margaret Worden and Miss Maybelle Leavitt will leave today for Medford, where they plan to spend the day in the valley city as the guest of Mrs. Don Newberry.

To Return from Hunt—Will G. Houston and other members of a party of hunters to spend the past week in the lava bed country are expected to return to Klamath Falls today after an interesting hunt. According to word which has been received from the hunters, each member of the party obtained the game limit and will return to Klamath well stocked with venison for their winter larder.

Mrs. Schultz Returns—Mrs. Bert Schultz and her infant daughter have returned to Klamath Falls from the south, where they have been for a brief time. Little Miss Schultz was born in the south and has had her visit to Klamath Falls at a very tender age. The family reside at 521 Washington street.

In from Rocky Point—Mr. and Mrs. Doug Puckett and son Robert, of Rocky Point, where Puckett serves as a logging contractor, spent Wednesday in Klamath Falls transacting business affairs and shopping.

Leave Today for Prairie—Mrs. W. E. Beck and Mrs. Carl Sandell will leave today for Hayden Prairie, where they will visit for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Emmitt and Mrs. W. P. Johnson who have been hunting in that section for the past few days.

To Discuss Tree Planting—Women who are residents of the Hot Springs addition in Klamath Falls are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers this afternoon at two-thirty, to discuss the tree planting question which has aroused much interest in the city during the past month. The species of tree and the time of planting will be among the features to be discussed during the afternoon.

Max Returns—William Marx, Klamath Falls attorney has returned to the city after heading several days in Medford, where he was called as a witness in the case of E. J. Murray vs. Lloyd Low.

Visited in Valley—B. E. Grigsby, with his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Sandets spent Wednesday in the valley visiting with friends and relatives in Ashland and Medford.

In from the River—Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes, frequent visitors in the city were in Klamath Falls yesterday from their combined ranch on Williamson river.

Superintendent at Chiloquin—Fred Peterson, county superintendent of schools, was at Chiloquin yesterday, inspecting the schools there.

Mrs. Poole Ill—Mrs. Harry Poole of Klamath Falls, has been ill at her home for several days, and for a time, was threatened with pneumonia. Yesterday she was reported improved.

Highway Engineer Comes—R. H. Baldoek, chief maintenance engineer of the state highway department, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls today on a tour of inspection. He expects to spend but a short while in this vicinity.

Pool Expert Leaves—Last night, before a large crowd at the Mecca pool hall, O. J. Mills of Denver, cue expert, made his final appearance in Klamath Falls and today leaves for Sacramento. He defeated Bert Cook by a score of 100 to 65 and executed a number of fancy shots.

Shopping in Klamath—Mrs. L. R. Anderson and daughter Esther were shopping with local merchants yesterday.

Job's Daughters to Meet—Tonight in the Masonic hall, members of Job's Daughters will hold an interesting meeting, consisting of installation of officers and initiation of new members of the organization. They will also discuss their dance which will be an interesting event of the latter part of the month in the White Pelican hotel dining room.

Stopping at the Hall—Mr. and Mrs. W. Martin of Kirk, are included in the many guests in the Hall hotel for the remainder of the week. Mrs. Martin was, before her marriage of yesterday, Miss Gertrude Sullivan, also of Kirk. They obtained a marriage license yesterday afternoon from the county clerk's office and were married later in the day.

From Lakeside—Prominent visitors in the city this week from Lakeside include H. A. Brattain, who is stopping for a short time in Klamath Falls to visit with friends and transact business affairs.

From The Dalles—Among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week is Mrs. Julia A. Smith of The Dalles, who is spending several days in the city while in southern Oregon.

Visiting in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe are visiting in Klamath Falls from their home in Central Point.

On Business in Klamath—Miss Edna Wimer of Marshfield on Coos Bay and Mrs. A. B. Cornell of Grants Pass are among the out of town business and pleasure visitors in the city this week. Miss Wimer is affiliated with La Pointe's exclusive women's shop on the bay and is transacting business for that firm while here.

From Merrill—Among the out of town visitors in the city this week is Charles McCarty of Merrill, well known rancher and sheepman.

Here from Hildebrand—Emil Egert was a county seat visitor yesterday from Hildebrand.

Rancher Returns to City—J. L. Sparretorn has returned from a week's business trip to Portland.

In from Malin—Dan Liskey, accompanied by his mother were business visitors at Klamath Falls yesterday from Malin.

On Business Here—Ben Pickett of Malin was in town yesterday on business.

A series of advertisements in The Klamath News will do more than start people thinking of you and talking of your offerings; it will bring you new business. Have us submit a tentative campaign, without obligating you in any way.

Modoc Road Be Again

Resurfacing of the north limit of the Modoc Road is today, it was stated by the local highway department. For five days it has been out of the only yesterday job. It was expected per cent completed.

Special sale on dresses at Bee Dept. 129 So. 7th St.

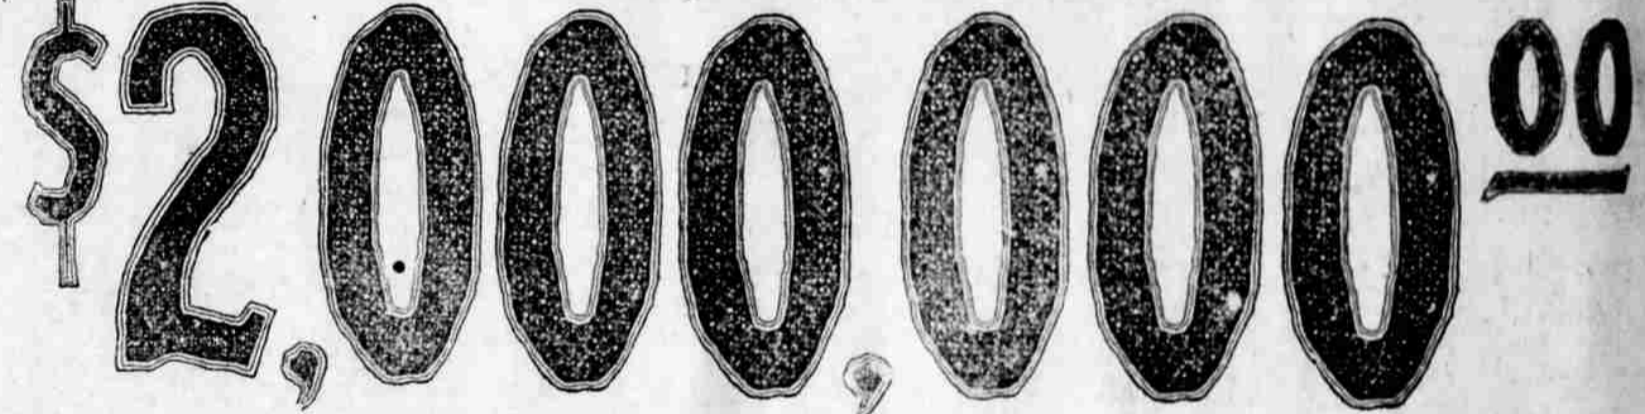

KAPSO FOR FORM PURE DR

Announcement
Dr. O. H. Mather
 Specialist
 Chiropractic and Physiotherapist
 Has opened offices at Maguire Building
 715 Main St.
 Opposite Pine Tree Theatre

The American National Bank of Klamath Falls, Oregon

Takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons and friends that its Resources are now over

We wish to thank our many loyal depositors for the splendid co-operation they have given us in making this wonderful growth possible.

December 1, 1920, opened for business

December 31, 1921	Resources	$587,364.31
December 31, 1922	Resources	$1,048,421.07
December 31, 1923	Resources	$1,365,644.13
December 31, 1924	Resources	$1,490,027.08
October 13, 1925	Resources	$2,027,424.28

Let This Strong Progressive Institution Serve You