

LOCAL FANS ARE ALL "HOPPED" UP OVER FIGHT CARD

Crowd Takes Keen Interest In Work-Outs at Hall, De Pinto in Today

With Mike De Pinto, who is to fight "Kid" Starkey here on October 29, in the card booked by Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester in the Scandinavian hall on that evening, due to arrive here at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow all six fighters who are to appear will be in town and working. Matchmaker Sylvester received a wire yesterday stating that De Pinto would be in Klamath Falls on Friday.

This city is a much higher altitude than Portland and there are some athletic managers who have theories based somewhat on the following formulae, i. e. that "it is better to either get into a different climate or altitude a long way ahead of a fight, or wait until the date of appearance is so close that the difference in climatic conditions will not have time to get in its effect."

Anyway Mike is due to arrive here this afternoon.

In the meantime the other fighters, Sams, Stolz, booked for the semi-windup are working steadily at the quarters in the local hall. Harrington and Alcorn, booked for the preliminary also are going strong.

That the fans are interested in no small degree in the coming card is evidenced by the fact that there is a crowd on hand every afternoon and evening to watch the boys at their work. All seemed to feel that there is going to be something worthwhile to be seen on the night of October 29, when the three events take place.

Starkey, the local boy, realizes that he will have to step out in his coming battle with De Pinto. He also knows that if he makes a good showing against him, it means a lot more than just the immediate results of the evening's bout. It will be a step along and he fully realizes that fact, and is working hard for the reward which will be his if he makes any kind of a battle against the coast mixer.

"KID" STARKEY

Klamath Falls wonder who will battle Earl Stolz, Bend Wildcat, on Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester's card in the Scandinavian hall here October 20.

Walter Johnson to Be Real Estate Man

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—(United News)—Walter Johnson, pitching hero of the world series in spite of his defeat in the deciding game here Thursday, expects to leave soon for Tampa, Fla., where he will enter the real estate business.

Johnson made this decision last spring after his attempt to buy a Pacific coast club failed. He has already made several investments at Tampa, having purchased several business lots at Davis Island, a new suburb. He says he intends to make his home in Tampa, for the future and expects to retire from baseball after one more year as pitcher for the Senators. His contract, calling for $20,000 per year extends another year.

Soccer and Volley Teams Play Merrill

Members of the boys' soccer team and girls of the volleyball squad are leaving from Klamath county high school this afternoon to play Merrill teams in their first seasonal game of soccer and volleyball.

Winning from Malia, 2 to 1, the soccer team has not yet been defeated and Merrill is priming herself for the game which promises to be full of no few bumps.

Miss Rachael Cronquist is coach of the girls while Everett Vanderpool coaches the boys' team.

Johnson Offers No Alibis for Losing

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15.—(United News)—Harold (Muddy) Ruel, St. Louis, Mo., boy catcher of the Washington club was the first to congratulate Manager Bill McKeechnie on the success of his Pirates in winning the world series from the Senators after today's game. Also he was the only Washington player to extend his hand.

Manager Stanley Harris, started for the Pittsburgh dugout to congratulate his adversary but was unable to reach McKeechnie who was swallowed up by the crowd of frantic natives.

John Heydler, president of the National league made a speech in the Pittsburgh dressing room in which he hailed the Pirates as the "gamest ball club the National league has ever produced."

They are the first National league team to win the world championship since 1922, when the Giants beat the Yanks.

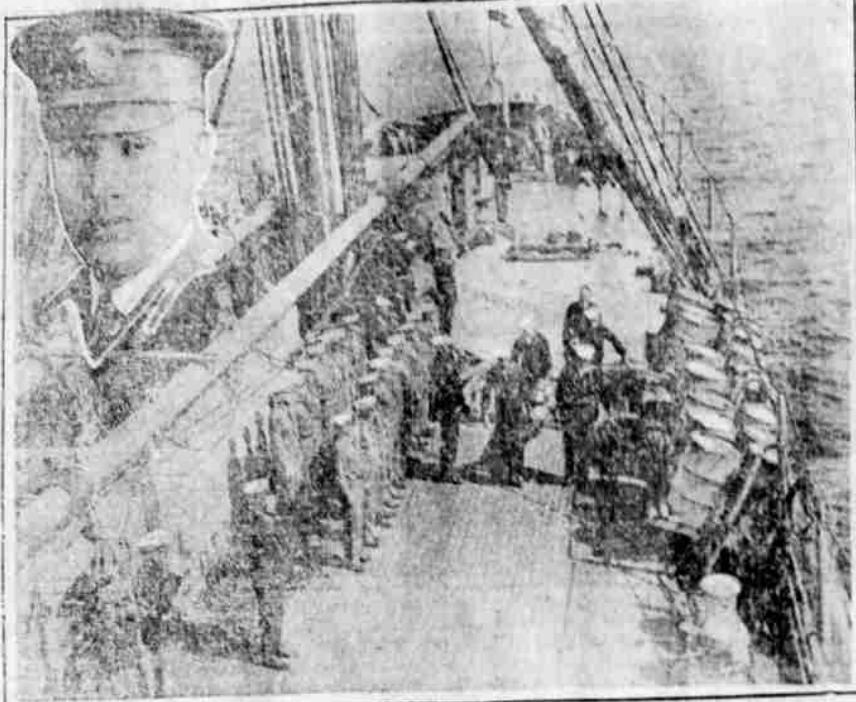

Walter Johnson, who pitched with his right thigh bandaged up to prevent a "charley horse" from stopping his work said, "I have no alibis. The better team won."

Bucky Harris and I admire a fighting team and fighting players. Don't think it possible to find a gamer club than our team, but the Pirates out fought us and won. They have a great team and one which should win the National league pennant for several years as its line-up includes many youngsters. Congratulate Manager McKeechnie."

Manager McKeechnie had plenty of praise for the Washington club. "I must admire the gallant stand of Walter Johnson and the Senators," he said. "They have nothing to apologize for in losing. They showed us some great players in Johnson, Joe Judge, Sam Rice, Bucky Harris and the rest to a man in their line-up."

UPPER CLASSMEN PLAN PARTY
Fresh of Klamath high school will be honored in the Scandinavian Hall, October 30 with a reception in the form of a Halloween party given for them by the upper classmen. Members of the entertainment committee are girls of the domestic science department under Miss Esther Martinson.

Navy Gives Dead of S-51 Burial of Heroes

Burial rites of heroes are being given by the navy to the men who went down with the submarine S-51. Photo shows crew of U. S. S. Camden paying tribute to one of the dead as the body is taken aboard at the scene of the disaster to be transported to the home of the man. Inset is the photo of Lieut. Redway H. Dohsen, commander of the submarine, best liked by his widow.

PITTSBURGH WINS SERIES OF 1925

It was a fumble of Moore's high pop fly.

Carey followed it by slicing out a double, which Goose Gosline let fall after reaching it in deep right field, and Moore came home. Carey then scored the run which first pulled the Pirates up on even terms with the Senators at 6-all. Pie Traynor drove a long triple past Rice in center field, bringing Max Ruel in. Traynor tried for a home run but was nipped at the plate when Peck made a great relay of Joe Harris' peg, from deep right field.

Peck made his bid to redeem himself in the first half of the eighth when he pulled a drive over the fence in left field for a homer, again putting Washington in the lead. But that lead was short lived, as the Corsairs made their winning rally in the last half of the inning.

Ray Kremer was winning pitcher. He worked four innings, from the fifth to the eighth, and allowed only one hit—Peck's homer. But it was "Red" Oldham who made victory safe for the Pirates. This veteran American league southpaw, who was brought back to the majors by the Pirates after a sojourn to the minors, pitched the ninth inning, fanning out Rice and Goslin, while Manager Harris lined to Eddie Moore, the chunky little Pittsburgh second baseman. Kremer had given way for a pinch hitter in that winning 8th inning rally.

Goslin Fann
Goslin, the Senators' slugger, who set a new world series home run record with six, three in this and three in last series, fanned out on four pitched balls, all wide breaking curves, to end the game. The last pitch was called a strike.

Peck Basis "Record"
Peckinpaugh, Washington shortstop, who was voted the most valuable player in the American league, proved the most colossal bust of the series. He made a total of eight errors, breaking the hoopy fielding record originally set by Hans Wagner, who made six while playing for Pittsburgh in the 1909 series. His seventh error came in the seventh inning, and it placed a run on first.

Manager McKeechnie used four pitchers to take the victory. The iron nerves which had enabled Aldridge to triumph in the second and fifth games of the series, snapped when Rice, first batter, bounced a single over the pitcher's head. And before Johnny Morrison was rushed to the pitching trench, Aldridge had issued two wild pitches, walked three batters, and allowed another single—by Bluege—for two runs, while getting out a single batter.

Smith Pails Boomerang
Earl Smith committed a blunder immediately after Morrison started pitching, by rushing in front of Peck, preventing the runner from getting started for first, after rolling to Wright for what looked a double play. Umpire McCormick ruled Smith had interfered after a force play had been made at second, and called both runners safe, filling the bases.

Muddy Ruel then showed what there is in a name when he splashed the ball through mud to Moore, opposite second, and Mr. Moore fumbled it, as two more runs came over.

Moore made up for this fielding mistake in the third inning, with a two-base wallop against the left centerfield screen, it scored Morrison who had opened the rally with a looping single to left.

Max Starts Assault
In this steel city which was turned into a bedlam of baseball mania by the victory, they say "when Max Carey is fielding and hitting, the Pirates win." Max was going on high, it was Max who started the assault on Johnson with a long double in the first inning, only to die on second base as Walter struck out Cuyler and Barnhart. And it

Washington batters, led by Rice, got two of those three runs back in the fourth at Morrison's expense. Rice singled, and after Bucky Harris fanned, Goslin and Joe Harris crashed out long singles for the runs.

Kremer Goes In
That left the score at 6 to 2, when Kremer took up the Pirate pitching job in the fifth, Morrison having left in favor of George Grantham, pinch hitter, in the fourth.

Carey was still hitting. His third hit of the game, another double in the fifth inning, was good for another run when Cuyler doubled past third base as a follow-up blow. That cut the Washington margin to two runs, enabling the Bucs to tie the score in the seventh, and win in the eighth.

Pittsburgh has a great champion ball club. They had to fight up hill, for they were down three games to one a few days ago. The Senators needed only one game to win, and the Pirates took three in a row from them.

Plays Thrill Fans
Pie Traynor and Glenn Wright, the dazzling pair of infielders on the new champion team, scintillated on the left side of the diamond, with their sensational plays.

Playing Thursday in a steady drizzle, which made the pitching box so muddy Walter Johnson called for saw dust, and which made fielding difficult, these two cut off many Senatorial hits. In the sixth inning, Traynor threw himself to the ground and knocked down Ruel's hot drive, then made the throw for a put out. In the fourth inning he leaped fully five feet to pull down a bounce from Bluege's bat. In the same inning Wright went into left field for a play on Peck's ground smash.

Carey Batting Hero
Carey has been the outstanding hero, making four hits in five times at bat today. He ran his total hits for the series to 12, tying the record. In the fourth inning of the final game Carey sprinted for a great catch on Ruel's looper to center.

Cuyler, whose winning smack is the talk of this town, also started afield. In the third he made a pretty diving catch of Peck's short fly in centerfield.

Rice, Washington's flyhawk, who caught a home run at Griffith stadium last Saturday, also turned in a beautiful catch, a shoe-string spear of Smith's liner in the fourth inning.
