MANY PLANNING HOME-COMING TRIP

Of interest to a number of Klamath Falls men and women are the letters coming to students and ex-students, as well as alumni, announcing home coming features for the University of Oregon.

It is hoped by a number of the younger set that Klamath Falls will be well represented on the university campus when home coming welcomes back many of the old-timers and others.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY ENJOYED BY MANY

Members of the Westminster Circle of the First Presbyterian church were entertained on Saturday evening with one of the jolliest parties of the year, with the spooky feeling of Hallowe'en predominating beneath the masques that hid the faces of the guests.

The party was given in the church parlors, decorated gaily with goblins and witches, black cats and ghosts.

Patronesses for the evening were Mrs. E. L. Elliott, Mrs. A. M. Worden and Mrs. W. S. Slough.

MRS. TRUAX IS HOSTESS

Mrs. L. L. Truax proved a delightful hostess on Friday afternoon when she entertained in honor of Mrs. W. L. Delzell of Salem, a former Klamath Falls resident, who was one of the most popular of the social matrons.

Fall flowers, arranged in attractive vases and clusters of the autumn leaves, which are being used to such beautiful advantage, added to the beauty of the rooms of the Truax home.

RECEPTION HONORS METHODIST PASTOR

One of the outstanding features of the week was the reception given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes in the Methodist Episcopal church when members of the church honored their presence.

Refreshments were served by the Teacup club of the church, assisted by Mrs. Mollie Belding, Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mrs. T. R. Skillington and Mrs. C. Winters. The program was arranged by Mrs. John Yadon, Mrs. Eva Bennett and Mrs. Esther Dunivan, the committee in charge.

More than 125 guests enjoyed the program as presented early in the evening. Games were enjoyed during the numbers arranged and led by Mrs. Eva Bennett.

Hallowe'en decorations added to the attraction of the church parlors with clusters of autumn leaves arranged tastefully around the rooms.

The program as given on the evening is as follows:

Welcome Address ..... F. W. Bechtel
Response ..... Rev. T. D. Yarnes
Piano Solo ..... Miss Jannette Schultz
Vocal Solo ..... Mrs. Glenn Kent
Violin Duet .....
..... B. Siewart and Mike Casper
Vocal Solo ..... Mrs. Esther Dunivan

DIVISIONS OF AID WILL MEET THURSDAY

At the home of Mrs. E. C. Stucky, 328 Canby street, both divisions of the Methodist Ladies Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church will be entertained on Thursday afternoon. The affair is the regular October meeting of the group. The hour is two-thirty.

P. E. O. DELEGATE RETURNS TO KLAMATH

Mrs. Harry Goeller has returned to Klamath Falls after spending the greater portion of a month in the east, where she served as a delegate to the national convention of the P. E. O. organization. Sent by the Klamath Falls chapter, Mrs. Goeller gleaned much which will assist her materially in working with the association.

While enroute to her home Mrs. Goeller visited with relatives in Minneapolis, several points in Kansas and with her brother in Los Angeles. She was met in the valley by her husband and children.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

For members of the Happy Hour club, Mrs. W. E. Beck entertained delightfully at her home on Lewis street. A number of guests also enjoyed the afternoon's pleasure.

The Beck home was attractively adorned with fall cut flowers and autumn leaves with marigold and fern interspersed about the rooms.

Assisting the hostess in her duties, Mrs. Carl Sandell served a dainty luncheon.

Guests included Mesdames R. Mostenbacher, Carl Sandell, L. Ruconich, George Humphrey, J. J. Keller, S. T. Summers, W. Steinmetz, Mrs. Jennie Hurn and Mrs. Beck, the hostess.

The group will be entertained by Mrs. W. D. Cofer on Tuesday afternoon, October 27, at the Cofer home on Alameda street.

* * *

INFORMAL EVENING

A number of friends were guests at the home of Miss Lois Bynon in the McCarthy apartments on Tuesday for an informal evening. A number of the guests enjoyed bridge, others spending the hours in a social manner. Tea was served later in the evening with Mrs. Charles Low pouring.

Invited guests included Mrs. Herman Giswold, Mrs. Charles Low, Mrs. Roy Patrick, Miss Josephine Lindley, Miss Aileen Mordoff, Miss Katherine Lindley, Miss Ferne Hanks, Miss Jean Perry, Miss Elna Jenson, Miss Frances Humphrey, Miss Pauline Clift, Miss Dorothy Currin, Miss Margaret Hargus and the hostess.
