BIRTH CONTROL U. S. BANK BOOK IS SOCIETY'S AIM

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 20.—(United News)—Determined to compel the public dissemination of birth control information by municipal and government health officers, delegates to a convention of the society for constructive birth control and racial progress will launch a national propaganda campaign Wednesday.

Dr. Marie Stopes, leader of the birth control movement in England, and Sir James Barr, former president of the British Medical association, will speak.

Birth control already has made great progress here. Information about it can be obtained easily by women, and Dr. Stopes' series of books on birth control methods are widely sold. But advocates of selective conception do not want women to have to buy books to obtain their information, because they believe such knowledge should be free. They demand that all health officers in all cities be instructed to give complete and free information about contractive methods to married women, who desire it.

"We are fighting for a better race," Dr. Stopes said in discussing the objectives of the convention. "Birth control means better babies; better mothers; fewer defectives; less poverty."

Great Britain's over-population and trade depression could be remedied by birth control, its advocates declare. Some of them have urged that free education be provided for only three children of any family, in an effort to induce parents to have fewer children.

FIGHTING BOB'S WIFE DESTITUTE

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—United News—The history of fistiana has many stories of prize fighters who fought their way to fame and fortune, only to fall later into oblivion and poverty.

This is the story of the wife of a famous fighter who has met that fate. She is Mrs. Phillip Reiner, widow of Bob Fitzsimmons, the heavyweight who took the championship from James Corbet more than a score of years ago.

Mrs. Reiner lies on a cot in the Presbyterian hospital here, incurably ill of heart disease. She has been ailing for three years, and as many times she has been cared for by the hospital without compensation. Monday the doctors told her she could not recover.

Mrs. Reiner is old now. Her money has gone, and with it many of the friends of better days. She lives among her memories.

"I married Bob in France after he became champion," she relates. "I was a little French girl, who knew no English, and Bob knew no French, but he soon learned to say 'I love you'."

Fitzsimmons married the little French girl in 1903. After becoming Mrs. Fitzsimmons she completed her musical studies and with her voice earned a measure of fame and enough money to divorce her prizefighter husband.

She has given a great deal of money to charity, enough, perhaps, to keep her out of the charity ward of the Presbyterian hospital, but the money is gone, and the fighter's widow does not begrudge it. In one of her evangelistic crusades she built a hospital for babies in Los Angeles.

Before her marriage to Reiner, from whom she has become estranged three years, the champion's widow appeared many times in light opera here in Chicago professionally.

Since her second marriage she has become the mother of two children, Marvin, 5, and Avalon, 4. She wonders what will become of them, now, that she must die.

BULGAR AND GREEK TROOPS IN CLASH

ATHENS, Oct. 20. — (United News) — Strong Greek reinforcements are moving on Demir-Hisar, Macedonia, where Greek and Bulgarian frontier guards are fighting.

The Bulgarians have occupied the heights around Demirhisar. They attacked a Greek post, killed a Greek watchman and a Greek captain, who advanced with a white flag. Fighting became general at once.

Demir-Hisar formerly was in European Turkey. It is 13 miles northwest of Seres; population is about 8,000.

Fighting Ceases.

ATHENS, Oct. 20. — (United News)—Fighting has ceased at Demir-Hisar, where Greek and Bulgarian frontier guards have battled for almost 24 hours. The Bulgarians have retired before the Greeks.

The Greek government has sent a severe note to Sofia, protesting the conduct of the Bulgarians.
