Battle Predicted When
Two Meet, Stolz and Also on Card

Statement over the card of night's boxing exhibition Matchmaker Sylvester last night an-has some good events stated for the next card on er third, to be given here in dianthus hall. Last Tuesday's card was rated first-will be pleased to hear that Sams and Earl Stolz of Bend, have a return go also on Nov. 7. But of these boys made with the local enthusiasts and will figure in the fight on the next card.

Dean of Bend, and Frankie of Pendleton, will stage the bout of the evening. Dean last Tuesday on a three-notice, and was not in shape up the battle he usually does, twisted his foot in the first which hampered him for the of the go. Even at that, he ck Crim, his opponent, got a round of applause from the when their bout was over.
Harrington and someone as signed, will go on for one preliminaries, insofar as can at this early date.

Dempsey Must Go on Every 6 Months

ATLANTA, Oct. 21—(United News)—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, must defend his title every six months, the national boxing association convention ruled at its closing session on Tuesday.

The association formally recognized Dempsey as the champion, said it expected to enforce the ruling if Dempsey did not make a noise like a fight within the next six months.

Just how it would do this, the association failed to add.

Other national champions recognized by the association are:
Fidel La Barba, flyweight.

Phil Rosenberg, bantam weight.
Lewis (Kid) Kaplan, featherweight.

Jimmie Goodrich, lightweight.
Mickey Walker, welterweight.
Harry Greb, middle weight.

Paul Berlenbach, light heavyweight.

The association passed a resolution urging federal control of boxing in the United States. Details of the plan are yet to be worked out, but the organization went on record as favoring passage of a law by the next congress, placing boxing on the federal statutes.

Another resolution provided for the classification of all fighters under three headings: Good, fair and poor. Under this plan, the secretaries of the various boxing commissions affiliated with the national organization will make reports to the national secretary on the showing of each fighter.

The New York boxing commission which is almost the head of the business in the United States, does not belong to the national organization. There was some talk about admitting the New York commission but it came to nothing.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were:

Latrobe Cogwell, president.
Allen W. Bachr, Ohio, first vice president.

Lisey Edmonds, Kansas, second vice president.

T. A. Murphy, Canada, third
vice president.

Lewis W. Pleas, Michigan, fourth
vice president.

Charles D. Arnett, Kentucky, secretary and treasurer.
Detroit, Mich., was awarded the 1926 convention.

World Series Pay
Day Apportioned

CHICAGO, October 21—(United News)—Wednesday was world series pay day for the pennant winning Pirates.

Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, mailed checks totaling $142,650.56 to the Pittsburgh players. Twenty-five first string men will receive $5,332.71 each.

Fred Clark, assistant manager, gets $1000, as does Will "Rube" Oldham, who pitched the last few innings of the last game and whiffed "Goose" Goslin for the last out.

The rest of the money will be divided among the other members of the team, including those not in a playing capacity.

Landis said Washington's share of the series money would be mailed within a few days.

PENN IS FAVORITE

PHILADELPHIA, October 21—(United News)—The University of Pennsylvania is a 7 to 5 favorite over the University of Chicago 3 days before the intersectional football clash next Saturday.

The western team, including 35 players, coaches and trainers is expected to arrive here Friday morning to complete training for the mid-season game, which promises to throw much light on the comparative strength of the eastern and the western teams.

The maroon players will go through a workout on Franklin field Friday afternoon. The Pennsylvania team will go out of town for the night.

Tickets for the game are selling at a premium, speculators being able to demand exorbitant prices for side-line tickets. It is estimated that 60,000 persons will witness the game.

WILL SPEAK AT P. T. A.

Mrs. H. M. Moe and Vera Houston, members of the tree planting campaign committee, Women's Library club, will speak at the Fairview P. T. A., on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. During the course of the meeting, in which the campaign to plant trees in the city will be stressed, the 7th grade pupils will present the Landing of Columbus. A most interesting program is planned generally, with the above two numbers as special features.

WIFE HEARS GIRL,
BREAKS UP PARTY

MINEOLA, L. I., Oct. 21.—A tale of the interruption of a party in her husband's apartment, and of how she heard simultaneously the startled voice of Wilda Bennett, was told Wednesday by Mrs. Katherine M. Frey, of Louisville, Ky., in her suit against the musical comedy actress for $100,000 for alleged alienation of the affection of the wealthy Charles C. Frey.

It was in July, 1923, Mrs. Frey said, that she went to the apartment. Frey met her at the door and blocked her entrance.

"I heard a woman's voice in there," she testified, "and recognized it as Miss Bennett's from having seen her in 'Madame Pompadour.' When I came to the door, she said 'Oh, Charlie.'"

Mrs. Frey said that her husband told her the voice was that of a man, and then forced her out of the building.

MA FERGUSON IS
FEELING POLITICS

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 21.—(United News)—Who's the real governor of Texas?

The question has been raised by the political enemies of Gov. Miriam A. "Ma" Ferguson, the implication being that "Pa" Ferguson may be the actual guiding power of the woman executive's administration.

Opponents of the Ferguson administration have seized upon the high department probe to voice long and loudly their belief that "Pa" and not "Ma" is the one in control of the state's destiny. They point out that less than a week after Gov.
Ferguson's inauguration the impeached governor was seceded in the office he once ruled, and had established himself as an important member of the administration. Since then he has attended all meetings of the different state departments in the role of an advisor-director, they claim.

Charges that he had used his influence as "advisor to the governor" to obtain advertising for his weekly paper, the Forum, which previous to his wife's election was badly run down, also have been voiced.

TANKER AFLOAT

PORTLAND, Oct. 21.—At 10:36
p. m., Wednesday the marine station of the federal telegraph company received a wireless message stating that the Shell Oil company's tanker Ampularia, which 45 minutes earlier had sent out a S. O. S. saying she was ashore at Point Sur, had succeeded in freeing herself from the rocks, and was in need of no further assistance.

SOLD CONFISCATED BOOZE

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 21.—William C. Landrum, acting chief boatswain's mate in charge of a coast guard patrol is in jail with three of his crew, following a court martial Wednesday on charges that they sold confiscated liquor.
Strict secrecy followed the hearing and what final action would be taken against the men could not be learned.

HUDKINS VICTOR

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 21.—Ace Hudkins, Nebraska wildcat, won a 10-round decision over Mike Bal-lerino, junior lightweight champion, in their fight here Wednesday night.

Ballerino was outweighed six pounds. Hudkins knocked his opponent down in the ninth and tenth rounds for counts of seven each time.

LODGE TO BANQUET

Third degree work will occupy the meeting of the Klamath lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., beginning at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, during which a large attendance is especially requested by lodge officers.

Following the lodge business, a banquet will be served. Local members are urged to attend in force, owing to both Merrill and Bonanza lodges announcing their intention to be present in a body.

FLAT FEET EXPLAINED

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Dancing is the chief cause of flat feet among city girls, and the Charleston is the most injurious of all, says Dr. Joseph J. Interland, president of the Podiatrists Research association. "I found 360 out of 420 girls examined in the last six months suffering from fallen arches, and without exception dancing was the cause," he said.

Harry Greb to Meet
Walker and Shade

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—(United News)—Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, will defend his title twice in Tex Rickard's new Madison Square Garden this winter.

Greb, according to an announcement by the promoter, will meet Mickey Walker, welterweight champion, and Dave Shade, the California welterweight. Dates for the bouts will depend upon the arrangements Rickard can make.

Plans for the Walker-Shade match have been impeded by the excessive financial demands of Walker, Rickard said.

Vatican Negotiates
Huge Loan in U. S.

ROME, Oct. 20.—(United News) Financial relations between the vatican and Blair & Co., and the Chase National bank of New York whereby a credit of $1,500,000 is established for the vatican, have been established.

This vatican credit signifies that the Blair and Chase banks will become the vatican depositories, and is a flattering compliment to American banking. The holy see wishes to insure itself against the vicissitudes of continental European currencies, and to facilitate relations with the American hierarchy, the growing importance of which is acknowledged by the holy see.

Cardinal Gasparri, the papal secretary, completed arrangements for the credit in a letter sent to the New York banks on October 11.

The conditions of the credit are as follows:

The amount of the credit shall be $1,500,000, part of which always shall be left on deposit in the Chase National bank to insure continuity of relations between the holy see and the banks.

That part of the credit, which is used by the holy see, shall be repaid upon the expiration of one year from the date of its withdrawal.

For credit drawn, interest of 4 per cent shall be paid.

Cardinal Gasparri's letter stated that the vatican would request, through the two banks, any financial assistance desired in the future.

BISHOPS DECIDE BY VOTE TO DROP OBEY
FROM MARRIAGE VOW

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—By a bare constitutional majority, the house of bishops in the Episcopal convention Wednesday concurred with the house of deputies in their vote of two weeks ago, to drop the word "obey" from the marriage ceremony.

One vote less for concurrence, and the time-honored "subjection of wives," brought into the American ceremony during the reformation in 1552, when the English church broke away from the Roman, would have been saved.

Other changes in the marriage ceremony were made and some were rejected by no such close decision.
A large majority of the bishops voted to omit the line which the bridegroom now painfully repeats:
"And with all my worldly goods I thee endow."

The belief seemed to be that if the wife were given equal rights of counsel she should lose the endowment.

VISITING FROM ROSEBURG

Dave Lennox, well known in Klamath Falls, accompanied by Mrs.
L. McDonald, of Roseburg, were visitors in the city yesterday. Mr.
Lennox and Mrs. McDonald are brother and sister of Mrs. Lottie Agee and Mrs. Edith Ream.

HOLLY GETTING SCARCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Native holiday greens will soon become extinct if substitutes for Christmas holly and winter berry aren't used more extensively, warns Kenneth R.
Boynton of the New York botanical garden.

M'LEAN WINS

OAKLAND, Oct. 21.—Stewart McLean of St. Paul, scored a technical knockout over Mike Segel, Oakland lightweight, in the seventh round of a scheduled ten rounder here tonight.

CAPPER CRITICIZES

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 21.—Advocating an application of creative commercial genius to the affairs of the government, Senator Arthur Capper, farm bloc leader, branded the present government machinery as "antiquated, costly and archaic." In an address before the chamber of commerce here Wednesday.

Fifteen per cent of the national wealth now is used to conduct governmental affairs, and a large percentage of the expenditure is wasted, he said.
