

LOCALS

Mrs. Frakes Improving—Mrs. Bertha Frakes, manager of the Riverside cafeteria is but slightly improved, according to word received by friends yesterday. Mrs. Frakes is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. During her absence from the school during this week the cafeteria has not been serving.

Take Apartment—Ed Geary and C. A. Henderson have taken an apartment in the McCarthy building. They took up their new abode on Wednesday.

In from Spring Lake—Charles Mack of the Spring Lake district, was included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Days Dog License—Among the license to be issued yesterday in the county clerk's office was a dog license to T. R. Ledwema of this city.

Land Sold to Spiker—A. L. Washard has sold to William Spiker, lot 7, block 1, of Altamont acres for a consideration of $1,000. The deed was filed in the office of the county clerk Thursday.

Campbell-Towle Buys Timber—Timber from the land owned by Leslie Rogers, has been sold to Campbell-Towle company, 160 acres in all, for a consideration of $1,100. The timber land is located in the Sprague River country.

Hilton Sells Property—According to a deed filed in the county clerk's office yesterday, Paul Hilton has sold to Fen S. Walne, the N 1/4 of lot 5, block 29, of Hillside addition. The consideration is for $4,500.

Hunting Trip—Abe Barnes of the White Pelican hotel and C. R. Houston of San Francisco, the latter here on a short business trip, spent Wednesday afternoon in the Midland district, where they brought down two China pheasants. Houston is returning today to his home in the south.

Here from Grants Pass—J. R. Harvey of Grants Pass, is included in the many business visitors in the city this week.

Newport Visitor—M. H. Abbey of Newport, is among the important visitors in the city. Abbey is a well known hotelman from the resort.

At the White Pelican—Guests at the White Pelican hotel this week include J. H. Hickey of Dunsmuir, who is stopping in the city while transacting affairs for the Southern Pacific.

Hotelman Here—Glenn Ireland, manager of the hotel in Crescent City, is visiting in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week. He is accompanied to the city by H. R. Saltmarsh of Portland.

Letter Received from Islands—Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook, formerly of Underwood's of Klamath Falls, who are now living in Honolulu, where "Doc" Cook is connected with the Meyer Drug company. Mrs. Cook reports the weather exceedingly warm in the islands, the scenery beautiful and evidently "Roy likes the Hawaiian maidens, as he says he will never leave the Waikiki beaches."

Delta Gamma to Meet—Members of the Delta Gamma chapter of the Delphian club will meet on Tuesday afternoon, 2:30 in the sun room of the White Pelican hotel.

Ready for Occupancy—The handsome world of Klamath Falls will gladly receive the announcement of the near completion of the new show rooms and garage which K. H. Balogger Motor company and R. R. F. garage will occupy within the next three weeks. The building is located on the corner of Ninth street and Klamath avenue.

Returns from Seattle—Mrs. Edna Lyons who spent the summer in Klamath Falls affiliated with the White Pelican hotel has returned to the city for the winter, after a brief visit and vacation in Seattle.

Fresh Reception Friday—Committees in charge of the reception by the upper classmen, honoring the freshmen of Klamath county high school are working hard to make the affair a success. Scandinavian hall has been obtained for Friday night, October 24, when a Halloween party will be the motif of the evening.

Report Cards Out—Report cards of the first six weeks will be issued today in Klamath high school in the various enrollment rooms.

Whitlock in Portland—Earl Whitlock, Klamath county coroner is spending a brief time in Portland, transacting business and looking into several matters.

Visiting in San Francisco—Among the Klamath Falls residents to visit in San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall, who moved south to spend a fortnight. According to word received in Klamath Falls yesterday Hall attended the San Francisco weekly luncheon of Rotary.

Miss Clyne III—Miss Augusta Clyne, one of the teachers in the first grade of Mills addition school, was confined to her home yesterday with a slight illness. Her position was filled on Thursday by Mrs. Jane Claye, substitute teacher.

P. T. A. to Meet—Members of the Parent Teachers association will meet at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon in the Fairview school, where an interesting program has been planned. Mrs. H. N. Moe and Miss Vera Houston will speak to the students as members of the tree planting committee. Students of the seventh grade under the direction of Miss Ellen Clyne will be presented in a play, "The Landing of Columbus." Mothers of the second grade will be in charge of the refreshments when pumpkin pie and cider will be served.

You simply can't go wrong in buying the 1925 Essex Six Coach that the Howie Motor Co. is offering. New paint, spare tires, excellent upholstery. Just pay $195 down, easy terms on balance. See this car at Howie Garage, 12th and Main Sts. 022

Kedron Last Night—Members of the Kedron club met last night in the Presbyterian church for a brief business meeting and discussion of the winter's work.

In from Malin—Out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Alois Hazel of Malin.

Chiloquin Merchant Here—A. C. Geisner of Chiloquin, well known merchant of the reservation city made a business trip to Klamath Falls yesterday to transact affairs.

In from Merrill—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carleton of Merrill spent Thursday afternoon in Klamath Falls to visit with their many friends and look into business matters. Carleton is a prominent Merrill rancher.

Merritt on Business—C. M. Merritt of Merrill is among the business visitors in the city this week looking into affairs yesterday afternoon.

Visits Daughter—John T. Thackara, prominent rancher of the Dorris district was in the city yesterday for a short time to visit with his daughter, Miss Inez Thackara of Klamath Falls.

Bad Luck Hunting—J. I. Beard, "Bud" Conway and Lloyd Porter, armed with husky rifles attempted, with six shots each, to bring down one China pheasant on the Orem ranch on Wednesday night. At least that is the story that was heard on the streets yesterday. They left again late yesterday afternoon taking with them J. M. Glover for better luck.

To Visit in Klamath—Mrs. Frank Brazil, sister of Mrs. Walter Rigney and Mrs. C. W. Kaler, will arrive in Klamath Falls this week from her home in Seattle to visit for some time. Mrs. Brazil is well known in Klamath Falls, her husband being on the Seattle ball team was an event of early summer. Brazil is now in Los Angeles playing ball. Mrs. Brazil will join him later in the winter.

Visiting in Klamath—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was E. P. Pool of the J. A. Gordon who transacted business at the city as well as at other

In from Merrill—Out of town business visitors in the city yesterday included Frank Gray Merrill, who spent the day looking into business matters at the ranch.

Visiting in Klamath—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was E. P. Pool of the J. A. Gordon who transacted business at the city as well as at other

In from Bonanza—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bechtold, well known ranchers of the Bonanza country, were transacting business in Klamath Falls yesterday.

In from Valley to Visit—Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Tichner, well known residents of the Langel valley district are included in the many out of town visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls.

Transacting Affairs Here—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Koller and son Bill are among the visitors to be included in the out of town guests in Klamath Falls Wednesday. They are residents of Langel valley.

Tuttle in on Business—Robert Tuttle, accompanied by his two daughters, Miss Lula and Miss Bobbette Tuttle, were in the city yesterday transacting business affairs and visiting from the Tuttle ranch in Langel valley.

Visiting in Klamath Falls—Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Gunther and Mrs. Sol Chandler, residents of Lakeview are in Klamath Falls to visit for a time with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ahlstrom. Mrs. Chandler is Mrs. Ahlstrom's mother and the mother of Mrs. Gunther as well.

Entertaining on Monday—Mrs. Kenneth Klahn and Mrs. Tom Richardson, are entertaining with informal bridge parties on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

Lakeview Visitors—Dan T. Goddall of Lakeview, is included in the business visitors in the city this week from his home in the neighboring city. Goddall is connected with the government service.

In from the Fort—Mr. and Mrs. James Pelton of the well known Pelton ranch in the Fort Klamath country are spending several days in Klamath.

At the Hall Hotel—D. W. McCormack, well known sheepman of Sacramento, is included in the guests in the Hall hotel, stopping for the remainder of the week to transact affairs.

On Business Here—J. C. Wiley, resident of Dunsmuir, where he is connected with the Southern Pacific, is in the city for several days to transact affairs.

Visiting in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Hector are visiting for several days in Medford, on a brief buying trip and visit.

Miss Rafferty Here—Among the interesting visitors in the city this week is Miss Aileen Rafferty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rafferty, of the chief traffic office department of Oregon. Miss Rafferty is in Klamath Falls in connection with the hearing of the Bly and Klamath residents in the water right affair which will be settled with a meeting this week.

In from the Fort—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Page of Fort Klamath, are among the visitors in the city yesterday to shop and visit with friends. Page is proprietor of the Rainbow garage in Fort Klamath.

Mrs. Lee Leaving—Mrs. William Lee is leaving early Sunday morning for Los Angeles, where she will visit for the coming month with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Niolen.

To Meet at Hawkins Home—Miss Dehila Hawkins will be hostess tonight at her home for members of the committee in charge of Harvest Home fetes which will be an event of November 6.

Leave for the South—Carl Bennett and Travis Van Syckle, residents of San Jose, left yesterday for their homes in the south, after visiting for the past fortnight with Leo Houston, enjoying a hunting trip in the Pogeama country.

In from Worden—Business visitors in the city yesterday included Floyd A. Wilson of Worden, who spent some time transacting business affairs in the court house.

Leaves for Lakeview—Luke Walker of Klamath Falls left yesterday for Lakeview, where he plans to spend several days on business, returning the middle of the coming week.

Police Grist—Wallace McCray paid a fine of $20 in the police court of Judge Lem Garghan yesterday afternoon on charges of drunkenness.

Dairy Rancher in—William Wight, rancher of Dairy spent yesterday in the city on business.

Visit At Fort—C. S. Carrin with C. C. Carrin and Paul Cochran of Portland, spent yesterday at Fort Klamath, where they visited with I. J. Straw, uncle of the Carrins.

Returns from the North—Dr. E. D. Lamb returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit in Portland and vicinity. While in Portland Dr. Lamb took a post graduate course in anaesthetics, and afterward enjoyed a hunting trip in the Tillamook country.

On Business and Pleasure—W. F. Whitley and wife, and Jack MacDougal and wife are spending a few days in Klamath Falls visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Claud H. Davis. Mr. Whitley and Mr. MacDougal are both certified public accountants, and will attend to business matters while here.

Submits to Operation—Miss Agnes Sly, sister of Mrs. W. D. Miller, is confined to a local hospital, where she underwent an operation yesterday for tonsillitis.

Severson Ill—George Severson, connected with Houston and Jester shoe store, is convalescing from an operation for tonsillitis.

On Business Here—H. C. Eckrutz, salesman for Grey, McLean and Perry of Portland, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls.

Visit in Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sloan made a trip to Ashland yesterday, combining business and pleasure.

Returns from Hunting—R. I. Sloan and Dr. L. D. Gass have returned from a week's hunting trip through the Bly country. A good sized buck, shot by Sloan, was brought to the city with them as a trophy of their hunt. This is the second buck of the season to Sloan's credit.

In Thursday Afternoon—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Southwick were in Klamath Falls yesterday for a brief business visit, from their home at Crooked creek hatchery.

Wilde on Business—Frank Wilde, well known resident of Weed, spent Thursday in the city transacting affairs.

Returns from the South—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert, who have been visiting on a combined business and pleasure trip in Oakland, Calif., returned to Klamath Falls on Wednesday evening.

To Leave for Florida—D. B. Campbell and Charles Riley are contemplating a trip to Florida in the near future, planning to leave by motor the latter part of the week. They will spend the winter in the south.

Here on Business—Howard F. Steiner of Medford is included in the out of town business visitors in the city this week.

On Business in Klamath—James Hannaby of Weed, in the city on business for the Weed Mercantile company, is included in the out of town visitors.

Miss Hannan Leaving—Friends of Miss Myth Hannan, who was formerly employed with the California Oregon Power company in the city, will be sorry to learn that she has resigned her position, and is leaving today for the south, where she has accepted an offer in the office of a lumber company of Portola, Calif. Miss Hannan returned yesterday from Roseburg, after visiting for a short time with her parents before leaving for Portola.

At the White Pelican—Among the guests this week-end at the White Pelican hotel are E. C. Jerome, M. D. Cole and R. H. Boyd, all prominent business visitors, from their homes in Medford.

Leaving for Portland—J. J. Hayward of the Oregon Trunk, has left for Portland, where he will spend the greater part of November on business for the railroad company.

MacAuley to the Bay—Gordon MacAuley left Thursday for Marshfield and North Bend on Coos Bay, according to his friends, yesterday. MacAuley is interested in the Mungler chain of laundries, one of which has recently opened operations in Klamath Falls.

That Essex 4 touring for $188 down sure has a lot of extras and is one real buy. See it at the Howie Motor Co., 12th and Main Sts. 021

ELKS
Apron-Overall
Dance
Wednesday Night
October 23, 1925
Dancing Invitational
At 9:30

ATTENTION!
CARPENTERS and BUILDERS
C. D. Long, business representative of Carpenters No. 190, has been called away for a short time. His place will be filled by E. F. Duffey, secretary of the C. L. Council. All carpenters out of work kindly report at the Labor Temple at 9th and Walnut. Contractors and builders call 843-W for competent help. This service is for the employer and the employe.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Keep Your Eye on the Pilcher Building
It's Nearing Completion

Isn't It The Truth?
—when a fellow's dressed just right he can put things over—he feels like a million bucks—full of "pep"—ready to do his stuff.
You may have all the qualifications for the big job, confidence, brains, etc., but in this day and age you've got to LOOK THE PART if you're going to put things over BIG.
That's our business—to make you look the part—we take pride in doing just that thing. We don't hang clothes on you—we fit your personality and we fit your purse.
FROM MILL TO MAN—CLOTHING
The fabrics are made in our WOOLEN MILLS at BROWNSVILLE, OREGON, from pure VIRGIN WOOL—then hand-tailored into the finest clothing by our own expert workmen. You get the best materials—no shoddy or re-worked wool—the finest of tailoring in clothes that will give you REAL SERVICE—AT THE LOWEST PRICES.
$25.00 to $45.00
BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS STORE
5th and Main Streets