

LOCALS

Leave for Medford—Chris Christensen and Oliver Jessop left yesterday for Medford, where they will spend some time on business, later proceeding to Corvallis, where they will attend Oregon Agricultural college home-coming. Both Christensen and Jessop are members of the Phi Delta Theta chapter on O. A. C. campus, and have been spending the past month in Klamath Falls.

Guild Makes Money—More than $70 was realized by members of St. Paul's Episcopal guild during their cooked food and rummage sale, held on Saturday. The money will go toward the payment of a piano which the guild is buying.

Royal Neighbors to Dance—Cards are out in the windows announcing the dance to be given in I. O. O. F. hall on October 28, by members of the Royal Neighbors. The affair is the first winter's activity of the group. Les Salling's orchestra will provide music.

Leaving on Trip—Carl Coleman, known to practically every traveling man that stops in Klamath Falls as the night clerk of the Hall hotel, left late yesterday afternoon for the north to enjoy a two weeks' grumpy tour to fill in his fortnight's vacation. Coleman, well stocked with cutting paraphernalia, plans to go as far north as British Columbia, including Portland and Seattle in his itinerary.

Mrs. Davis Ill—Mrs. Claude Davis has been confined to her home for several days with an attack of illness.

Delphian Club to Meet—One of the most interesting programs of the year will be heard today in the sun room of the White Pelican hotel, when Delta Gamma chapter of the Delphian club will hold their regular October chapter meeting at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Thomas C. Campbell, president, will preside, and a number of members will contribute to the afternoon.

To Entertain With Party—Miss Eida Houston and Bess Brown will entertain for a large number of the younger set with a party at the Brown residence on Halloween night. The affair will be a "spook" party, in accordance with the weird night.

In from Williamson River—Mrs. Frank Sutton of the Williamson river store and hotel, spent Monday in Klamath Falls on business.

In on Business—Ellsworth Moore and Elsie Moore, his brother, prominent ranchers of the Pee valley country, were in the city yesterday to transact business affairs.

Return from South—Miss Martha Upp and her sister, Miss Joe Upp, have returned from Los Angeles, Long Beach, Hollywood and San Francisco, where they spent their two weeks' vacation, visiting with their sister and many friends. They returned to Klamath Falls Saturday evening, and assumed their positions Monday morning. Miss Joe Upp is employed in the First National bank. Miss Martha Upp with Lorenz company.

Visiting from Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Morehouse and daughter, Miss Caribel Morehouse of Ashland, were recent visitors in the city, spending Sunday with Mrs. Laura E. Chamberlain of North Ninth street.

Return to Home—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson of Chico passed through Klamath Falls on Sunday, enroute to their home in the south, after visiting at Crater lake, completing the loop trip through Medford, the lake and Klamath Falls. They arrived in their home last night.

Return to Oroville—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hallwell and son Junior, have returned to their home in Oroville, after visiting in Klamath Falls. They are the parents of Mr. and Mrs. George Chastain of Chiloquin, where they also visited. Mrs. Hallwell has been in Klamath Falls for some time, her husband arriving recently to accompany her to their home. They are former residents of Klamath Falls, where they have many friends. Hallwell was manager of the Standard Oil station during his residence here, and is now affiliated with an automobile concern in Oroville.

Shopping Saturday—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Langell and their daughter are included in the many out of town visitors in the city Saturday from their home in Bonanza.

Cattle Buyer Here—Herb Phillips, cattle buyer for Swift & Co., is in the city from his home in the south. Phillips is a former resident of Klamath Falls, and has been calling on his many acquaintances since in the city.

Here from Chiloquin—Business visitors in the city yesterday included Jack Almeter of Chiloquin, where he is associated with Geinger's store.

Hunt for Quail—C. S. Curran, C. C. Curran of Portland, Paul Cochran of Portland, and Harry Messner spent Sunday afternoon hunting for quail in the Swan lake valley. According to the sportsmen, their luck was exceedingly poor and they returned home without bagging one of the fowl.

Apron-Overall Dance—Society is planning to attend the Apron and Overall dance to be given on Wednesday night in the Elks' temple. The initial function on the Elks club's social calendar for the winter. A committee has been working diligently to prepare one of the most entertaining affairs of the season.

Visits in Medford—R. D. Hoberger spent Sunday in Medford visiting with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Steiger. Hoberger spends much of his time in Klamath Falls affiliated with the Mcnefee Lumber Lumber company of Portland.

Here from Portland—George Fetch, representative of the American Type foundry was in the city over Sunday and Monday, on business and pleasure.

Returns from Coast—Gordon MacAuley has returned from a brief business visit to Marshfield and North Bend on Coos Bay, where he spent several days in the interest of the Munger Service Laundries.

New Students Register—Monday was a busy day in Klamath Falls schools registering the many new students, who enrolled the early part of the week. One student entered Central school in the sixth grade.

Visit in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. J. Percy Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ackley, accompanied by Mr. Wells' mother, Mrs. Emma Wells spent Sunday in Ashland, where Mrs. Wells returned to her home, after visiting in Klamath Falls for the past three weeks.

Here from Algoma—George Hoffman, foreman of the Algoma Box factory spent Monday in the city transacting business affairs.

Sunday in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Funk and Mr. Clark, are among the many visitors from Klamath Falls to spend Sunday in Ashland and other valley points. The party enjoyed a picnic lunch in the Ashland park.

Entertain at Poor Farm—The inmates of the Klamath county poor farm enjoyed the entertainment of Sunday afternoon, which was accorded them by members of the young people's class of the First Baptist church. The entire afternoon was spent in presentation of a musical program which the class and the instructor had been working with for some time.

Visiting in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. A. McIrwin are interesting visitors in the city for the early part of the week. They are residents of Astoria and are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stoner of Klamath Falls.

Weaver to Return—Friends of Ed Weaver, who spent the past summer in Klamath Falls will be glad to know that he is anticipating a return visit to Klamath to spend some time with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Peppard of Crescent avenue and with his many friends. Weaver has recently returned from a visit in Chicago.

Merrill Visitor—John Cox, rancher of Merrill, spent Monday in the city, looking into business affairs.

Your beauty will not be marred by glasses selected here. You will get the style that conforms naturally with your features—plus the lenses that will correct your defective vision.

"There is serious danger in putting off that needed eye-examination."

Says Mrs. Foresight

DR. H. J. WINTERS
Eye Sight Specialist.
We Grind Our Own Glasses.
Klamath Falls, Ore.

Bonanza Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. William Bechtolt are included in the many out of town visitors in the city this week from their home in Bonanza, where Bechtolt is a well known merchant.

Rancher in Yesterday—Included in the many out of town business visitors in the city yesterday are Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Poole, well known ranchers of the Bonanza district.

Chiloquin Visitor—B. M. Potter of Chiloquin, spent yesterday in the city looking into business affairs and other matters of interest.

Pine Ridge Visitor—One of town visitors in Klamath Falls Monday afternoon included Everett Denton, who is a well known resident of Pine Ridge. Denton transacted business affairs in the court house while in Klamath.

Sells Timber Land—For a consideration of $1,500, T. A. Walls has sold to the Weyerhaeuser Timber company a section of well timbered land in the northern By district. The deed was filed yesterday afternoon in the office of the county clerk.

To Leave for the South—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks and daughter, Miss Fernie Hanks will leave in the morning by motor for San Francisco and other southern cities, where they will spend a fortnight vacationing in California. Miss Hanks is on her vacation from the American National bank.

To Go South Soon—Mrs. A. G. Meisner and daughter, Mrs. Clifford R. Lucas will leave for San Francisco during the coming week-end to spend an enjoyable ten days' vacation.

Visit at Nelson Ranch—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perry were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Nelson in the Worden district, where the Nelson ranch is located. They were joined on Sunday afternoon by Miss Jean Perry and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Abbott. Perry enjoyed a quail hunt while on the ranch but was unsuccessful in his search.

Fires Deed—Beulah Tigard filed a deed yesterday in the office of the county clerk showing ownership of lot 17D of block 5 in Klamath Falls. The land was purchased from Pearl Boldue for a consideration of $1,500.

Leaves for Portland—Friends of Mrs. Docia Norris will be glad to learn that she is enjoying a week's vacation in Portland with friends and relatives. Mrs. Norris was accompanied as far as Medford by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hayes, Miss Wyma Brotherton and Harvey Ayers.

At Rocky Point—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe are enjoying a week's outing at their cabin at Rocky Point on Klamath lake. They entertained for a few guests over the week-end. According to visitors in that part of Klamath county the scenery is exceptionally beautiful and the trees turning to a rich golden hue.

In Yesterday—Business visitors in the city this week included Mr. and Mrs. K. Loasley from their ranch in the Fort Klamath country.

Takes Father to Doctors—According to recent word received from Dr. George Casper, who is attending his aged father in Cyprus, Ill., he has taken his father to Rochester, New York, where he will put him under the care of the Mayo brothers. Dr. Casper expresses bright hopes for the recovering of Mr. Casper.

To Return This Week—Mrs. Marvin Lucas and young son are expected to return to Klamath Falls the latter part of the week after spending the past month in Portland visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. Lucas' mother.

Spink in from Chiloquin—Justice of the Peace R. C. Spink of Wood River was in the city yesterday afternoon on business affairs from his home in Chiloquin.

To Entertain Friday—Mrs. H. W. Bathany and Mrs. C. L. Harvey will entertain for members of the Past Matrons club of Abba Chapter, O. E. S. at the Bathany home, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Visiting in Klamath Falls—Mrs. C. A. Collier and daughter, Miss Dorothy Collier, residents of Eugene, are visiting for a fortnight at the homes of Mrs. Collier's sons Andrew Collier and Alfred Collier. The presence of Mrs. Collier in the city with her daughter adds to a large group of visitors in the Collier family as Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Delay and daughter Lola and O. D. Beemer are also guests in Klamath from Portland.

Visit in Ashland—Included in the many visitors in Ashland during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller, who spent the latter part of the week in the valley city, and in Medford.

Visitors in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Elton C. Wright of Gazelle, California, spent the past week-end in Klamath Falls, visiting with their son, F. E. Wright and with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pruitt.

Here from Bray—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Coffenberry of Bray, spent the latter part of the week visiting in the city, and looking into business affairs. Coffenberry is affiliated with the Harland-Bray Lumber company of Bray.

In from Chiloquin—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included Claude Newman of Chiloquin, where he is affiliated with Sugarman's store in the reservation city.

WOOD

Our LIMB-WOOD for the winter is coming in now, and we can make immediate deliveries on most any quantity.

We have 12-inch and 16-inch lengths on hand, and can supply you in 2 and 4 foot lengths also, on orders.

The quality of this wood is good and it is dry.

Prices are right.

We handle all kinds of WOOD, also COAL and FUEL OIL.

Peyton & Co.
"Wood to Burn."
601 Main Phone 535

COUGHS
Apply over throat and chest—swallow small pieces of—

VICKS VAPORUB
Over 21 Million Jars Used Yearly

MASQUERADE CARNIVAL HALLOWE'EN

SATURDAY, OCT. 31., AT MALIN

SAILING'S ORCHESTRA

Pacific International Live Stock Exposition Inc.
PORTLAND OREGON
Oct. 31 - Nov. 7

$90,000 in Premiums
SEE THE BEST IN THE LAND

With entries coming in from over the entire country, the 1925 Pacific International Live Stock Exposition, Inc., will present the greatest array of livestock ever shown under one roof in America. See thousands of Beef and Dairy Cattle, Horses, Swine, Sheep, Goats and Poultry; in addition the Poultry and Dairy Shows, Land and Industrial Products Exhibitors and the world famous Horse Show.

REDUCED FARES ON ALL RAILROADS

Week-End in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Glean Pruitt spent the past week-end in Grants Pass visiting with their many friends and relatives.

To Medford on Business—Ed Dunham left yesterday for Medford to transact business affairs and look into matters of interest. He was accompanied as far as the valley city by Arthur R. Wilson, who continued to Portland for a few days of business.

Hunt in Valley—Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith, Miss Grace Hoagland and Stanley Hijaek spent Sunday afternoon hunting for quail and pheasant in the valley.

Fishing in Chiloquin—Nate Otterbein is spending several days in the Chiloquin country fishing in the reservation waters. Otterbein left on Sunday afternoon, and plans to return tonight.

Leaves for the North—After spending two weeks in the city since his return from San Francisco, Henry Haas left yesterday afternoon for Hood River and Portland. Haas was formerly affiliated with the First National bank of Klamath Falls. While in Hood River he will visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haas, and his brother, Theodore, Jr. During his two weeks' visit here he has made his home with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Houston Haas will reside permanently in Portland, according to present plans.

Visit in Valley—"Happy" Brookfield had as his passengers to Medford on Sunday afternoon Miss Inez Jenkins, Miss Ruth Lindsey and Miss Constance Crystal, who spent the afternoon in the valley city with friends.

Entertaining on Wednesday—Tomorrow night the old Griffith place will be the scene of an old fashioned dancing party and evening at cards when members of St. Mary's Altar Guild entertain their many guests. The ranch is located 13 miles out of Klamath Falls on the Merrill highway.

In from Malin—Anton Cacka, well known rancher of the Malin district, is included in the many visitors in the city yesterday. Cacka is called on jury duty in the city this week.

Be sure to read the Piggly Wiggly ad on page 3 of this paper. You may be able to win a valuable cash prize.

Here from Lewiston—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mrs. J. E. McCain, well known resident of Lewiston, Idaho.

Shopping from Corvallis—Mrs. J. E. McCain, resident of Corvallis, Monday shopping in the city and visiting with her friends.

To Take Vacation—Lemlar, bookkeeper for Motor company, left for Corvallis, where she is spending the week-end, and will be visiting with her friends.

GET YOUR GUNS AND SHELLS

THE SMOK SPORTSMEN'S SUPPLIES

A. D. LAMBERT, Prop.

Make It Snappy For Values—October Sale Ends 31st.

They're Rare Values!

WINTER COATS

The Instinct For Quality is a Priceless Inheritance. When Style and Low Price Equal Quality. Selection is Ever the Rarest Pleasure.

$14.98, $19.89, $22.88, $31.00

TRULY this October Sale is an amazing opportunity—An event that marks the most favorable chance to save on quality Coats. While low price may be an inducing factor, it's the style, the fabrics and the needlework that will interest every prospective buyer. Many of these Coats are lavishly trimmed in furs. Sport Coats are included in these four attractive coat specials.

GOLDEN RULE CORPORATION
Klamath Falls and Chiloquin

Four lots new fall dresses, $5.95, $9.90, $10.13, $16.87, also included in October Sale.