

LOCALS

San Francisco Visitor—Among the frequent business visitors in Klamath Falls this week is J. W. Pettus, who arrived from the south last night to look over his territory.

Apron and Overall Dance—Of paramount interest tonight is the apron and overall dance in the Elks temple, which the Elks lodge is sponsoring. This is the first affair of the season, and both members and their friends are looking forward to the evening with much pleasure. Johnny Houston, Jack Gove and Harry Messner are the committee in charge. The guests will be garbed in aprons and overalls as the invitations call for.

Fail to Get Limit—James A. Perry, G. B. Pife and W. W. Southwell, armed with much shot gun and more energy, spent yesterday afternoon after hours hunting for pheasant in the valley. Between the three of them two "chinsies" were brought down.

Prominent Visitor in City—Among the prominent visitors in the city this week is Edison Marshall of Medford, who with Mrs. Marshall is enjoying a hunting trip and visit in the Klamath country. They are accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Coraig Kenly, also residents of Medford. Marshall is a prominent resident of the valley, where he is known for his successful literary efforts, a number of his stories having appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. Marshall has also written a number of western stories of genuine appeal.

Richmond Returns—G. B. Richmond, purchasing agent for the Oregon Trunk railway, has returned from Portland, where he made a brief business visit. Another Portland visitor in the city with Richmond is G. W. Harrington. Both men arrived in Klamath Falls last night.

Councilman Here—Joseph S. Ball, member of the tribal council of the Klamath tribe, is in the city for several days, from his home in Modoc Point.

Here from Dorris—S. F. Davis is included in the many business visitors in the city from his home in Dorris.

At the Arcade—Out of town visitors in the city, guests in the Arcade hotel for the week include F. E. Lane of the Midland district. Lane arrived last night for a brief visit in the city.

Organizer to Visit—Miss Bess Mickey, organizer of the P. E. O. society from Portland will arrive in Klamath Falls on Thursday to spend the day and Thursday night in the city. On Thursday evening she will be the guest of P. E. O. members in Klamath, who will honor her with a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Grombeck on Ninth and Lincoln streets.

Here from Olene—J. C. Taylor, well known rancher of the Olene district, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

On Business in City—H. E. Ward of the Merrill route is included in the scores of out of town visitors in the city yesterday for a brief business trip.

Leaving for Lakeview—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordon, Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Maude Baldwin are leaving on Tuesday for Lakeview, where they will remain for several days. Gordon will transact business affairs while in the neighboring town. Mrs. Baldwin will remain for the balance of the winter to receive treatment from Dr. Harry Stone. Miss Baldwin will return the latter part of the week from Lakeview with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon.

Kimball Ill at Home—Jack Kimball, prominent Klamath Falls resident, is confined to his home with a severe attack of grippe.

Chiloquin Visitor—B. M. Potter is included in the business visitors in the city this week, from his home in Chiloquin. He is among those to transact affairs in the court house yesterday afternoon.

Visiting With Relatives—Among the out of the state visitors in the city this week is Hubert Farrar of Loveland, Colo., who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap on Riverside drive. Farrar is a nephew of Mrs. DeLap, and is spending his time on business and visiting with his relatives. He was in Klamath Falls some time ago, when he made many friends during his visit.

That Essex 4 touring for $188 down sure has a lot of extras and is one real buy. See it at the Howie Motor Co., 12th and Main Sts. O25

MASONS, ATTENTION
Work in F. C. Degree
Friday Night, Oct. 26th.
C. E. DENNIS, W. M.

Here from Worden—Business visitors in the city yesterday included A. E. Shurer, resident of Worden district.

On Business in Klamath—Included in the out of town visitors in the city yesterday was Ben Gay, one of the prominent ranchers of the Worden district.

Leaves for Yreka—William Marx, Klamath Falls attorney will leave today for Yreka, where he will spend the day transacting legal affairs.

Cards Received Here—Friends of Miss Cecile McMahon have received word from her recently that she is spending some time in St. Louis, where she may remain for the balance of the winter. Miss McMahon left Klamath Falls the early part of September for the middle west where she has been visiting and looking into business interests.

In From Olene—Mrs. A. R. Campbell is among the visitors in the city yesterday to shop and call on friends.

Rebeks to Meet—All members of the Klamath Falls degree team of the Rebekah lodge will meet Thursday night at the regular meeting place at 7:30 in order to practice for the work to be given in Merrill on Monday evening, November the second, when they will put on the work and initiate a group of candidates. On Thursday evening, according to lodge members yesterday, the degree team of Ashland will arrive in the city to put on work here.

Here From Chiloquin—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included R. M. Dunn, resident of Chiloquin.

On Business Here—M. N. Hogan, who makes frequent trips to Klamath Falls on business from his home in Medford spent yesterday in the city.

Here From Chico—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included J. F. Dentler of Chico.

From The South—Los Angeles visitors in the city include Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wister, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Martin and Miss Marie Treadwell. They are guests in the White Pelican hotel during their visit in Klamath Falls. The party arrived last night.

From Rocky Point—Douglas J. Pickett, logging contractor of Rocky Point is among the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Ashland Business Visitor—W. E. Smithpeter of Ashland is among the many business visitors in the city this week.

Miss Connell Visiting—Miss Fay Connell of Braymill is spending the remainder of the week in the city on a short visit with friends and shopping in the city's stores.

Returns From Lakeview—M. Peterson, prominent lumberman from Lakeview has returned to Klamath Falls after an absence from the city for several weeks.

Apartments Nearing Completion—Work is being rushed and rapidly completed in the Blanas apartments, located on the corner of Eleventh and Klamath streets.

Medford Business Visitor—H. P. Egger is included in the many out of town visitors in the city this week from Medford.

Shopping From Dorris—Mrs. W. A. Carskey is spending several days in the city from her home in Dorris to visit with friends and enjoy a few days shopping.

Medford Visitors—Among the out of town visitors in the city this week are Mr. and Mrs. O. Ray, well known residents of Medford.

To Go South—D. B. Campbell, who has spent the summer and the early fall months at his summer home at Lake of the Woods, is planning to leave the latter part of the week for the south to spend the winter with friends and relatives. Campbell was in the city yesterday, making preparations for the trip.

At Bee Begin's last of the month sale you will find coats and dresses marked far below cost. Coats at $11.95 and up; silk dresses $6.95 and up. Remember the place. Bee Begin's Dress Shop, 123 So. 7th St. Next to Shasta Cafe. O28-31

Jolly Neighbors to Meet—Members of the 'Jolly Neighbors' club will enjoy a party tonight in honor of Halloween at the home of Mrs. James Etell. The husbands of the members will be entertained.

In from Lamm's Mill—Mrs. Driscoll, resident of Modoc Point, is included in the out of town shoppers in the city yesterday.

Leave Today—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks and daughter Miss Fernie Hanks, left early this morning for San Francisco and other California cities, where they will spend a fortnight visiting and shopping. They will make the trip by motor.

Looking for Location—Among the many business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Jake Goldie of San Francisco, a merchant of the southern city who arrived in Klamath yesterday, seeking a business location. He plans to make Klamath his permanent home.

Return from North—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright returned this week from an extensive motor trip, combining business and pleasure, which took them north as far as Seattle and Tacoma and other points in Washington. While in the north they visited with Mrs. Wright's uncle, Mr. Norris.

Rancher in Tuesday—Out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included C. D. Corpening, well known rancher of the Pine Grove district.

Aloha Chapter Meets—Aloha chapter of the Order of Eastern Star met last night for initiation of five candidates, the past matrons and past patrons putting on the degree work. Dinner was served at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic hall, which was tastefully decorated in autumn colors bearing out Halloween spirit.

In from Malin—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dalton, from the Carr ranch near Malin.

Here from Portland—R. A. Gray, affiliated with the Oregon Insurance Rating bureau is a business visitor in Klamath Falls, from his home in Portland. He is a frequent business guest in the city and well known to the business men.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Sells Farm Land—Thomas A. Treloar has sold to J. E. Whitlatch, a splendid section of farm land in the Pine Grove country, near Lost river. The land sold for a consideration of $2500, according to a deed filed yesterday afternoon in the office of the county clerk.

Is Fined—"Doc" A. J. Lyle was fined two dollars in the office of Police Judge Lem L. Gaggagen yesterday afternoon, for parking in front of a theatre.

Returns from...
ATTENTION...
All Legionnaires...
Hall at 10 a. m. ...
28, to march to ...
lors to attend ...
bie's funeral.

Twenty Carpenters At Work
Installing the Fixtures in the
R. A. Pilcher
Department Store
Keep Your Eye on the Pilcher Building
Keep An Eye on This Space

Announcement
Because of Elks Dance Tonight the Dance
At Altamont Auditorium Has Been Postponed

Adding to the Pleasures of the Table

FRESH fruits—crisp salads—wholesome foods—all real blessings these days.

These real and present additions to the pleasures of the table are made possible through a household necessity which always pays for itself. Naturally we refer to ice—that sure protector of food's flavor.

Are we now serving you regularly?
If not you will experience a real satisfaction with service if you telephone us today.

KLAMATH ICE & STORAGE CO.
Phone 58.
MEMBER NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF ICE INDUSTRIES
163 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois

MASQUERADE CARNIVAL HALLOWE'EN

SATURDAY, OCT. 31., AT MALIN
SAILING'S ORCHESTRA

NEW LOT OF SNAPPY SUITS and OVERCOATS
Just Received From the House of Kuppenheimer
New Tigertwists and other rare fabrics—New Venice Blues—and Woodland Browns.

In new, uncommon weaves and designs.
Step in and try on some of these Fine Clothes.

Suits and Overcoats from $25 up

