LOUISVILLE WINS FROM SEALS 6-2
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—The Louisville club has advanced to within a game of tying the post-season series against San Francisco. The American association champions won Wednesday's tilt, six to two, and now have scored three victories to four for the Seals.
The Colonels bunched hits off Mitchell and Crockett for their scores, while San Francisco's nine safeties off Nick Cullop, were scattered widely.
Louisville has won the last two games after losing four straight. Five wins are needed to capture the series.
Score by innings:
Louisville..... 020 030 010—6
San Francisco..... 000 000 020—2

U. S. NOT... HOUSE SAYS REVEREND...
LONDON, Oct. 28.—Although the end canon of Westminster has returned from States with the land of liberty into a monkey house that America is more...
But William H. Canon of Westminster, the next breath the Dean King of St. Paul, Erica was becoming leader of the world.
"In civilization," he are far ahead.
"However, the Am isn't so money mad as used to be. The English much more for money.
"Business is the Am hobby, but all his profit by his women folk. Men who are responsible slithering, galling, night, York."
Canon Carnegie was aroused by America's "seriously," he said, "degenerating from into a monkey house of American life."
"It is rotting the country and may end to their civilization."
The only ground in British courts is that so it is difficult to see Canon Carnegie's situation in the state more horror or evil.
"In many states," he said, "legally every marriage short and hectic period help them, granting anything—because of for baseball or because a wife does her hair.
" Luckily, we have a news. England is too a her head like that. He degenerate rich and the ate poor—people who nothing but sex-to folly."
