Local Briefs

Holcomb Taken South—Friends of "Pat" Holcomb will be shocked to learn that he is seriously ill, suffering from an attack of typhoid fever. In company with Mrs. Miller, a trained nurse, Holcomb left yesterday for San Francisco, where he will be placed under the care of doctors of the Southern Pacific hospital. Mrs. Holcomb will leave Sunday morning for the south to be with her husband for duration of his illness.

Return to Homes—After spending an interesting week at the George R. Lindley cabin at Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Middleton of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Noblit of Medford returned to their homes yesterday. Much of the time at the cabin was spent in hunting.

Merchants who have been too engrossed in business to attend a football game this winter and business men who could not find three hours to spare to witness a battle of the Klamath county high school during the present season will have a chance to see the Klamath gridsters, clash with Alturas on the local field, Armistice Day, November 11, Wednesday afternoon.

The American Legion has been informed of the game and will include it in the regular ceremonies of the day. Shortly after the laying of the cornerstone of the American Legion building on court house grounds the game will be called. Cooperation between the high school and the Legion will mark the day's success. This will be the closing game of the season for Klamath, ending her winter's football schedule.

Grants Pass would have accepted the game with Klamath on November 11 instead of November
