Visiting in Lakeview—W. W. McNealy and K. Sugarman, who are spending several days in Lakeview on business, are expected to return to the city tonight.

In from Merrill—Among the out of town visitors in the city this week is M. Giacomini of Merrill, prominent rancher of that district. While in Klamath Falls he visited with his daughter, Mrs. Lester O'Field.

Here from Weed—Emmett Lawler of Weed, accompanied by Mrs. Lawler, arrived in the city last night for a brief business and pleasure trip. They are guests in the White Pelican hotel during their visit in Klamath Falls.

Fresh to Be Guests—Tonight in the Scandinavian hall members of the freshman class of Klamath county high school will be guests of honor at "initiation and entertainment" by upper classmen. This will be the formal reception of the "Rooks" into the circles of high school life. Committees have been working steadily to make the affair a success. Parents of the students have been issued an invitation to the affair in a recently prepared bulletin sent from the office of Principal Jackson. The five class rooms who lost in the student body ticket campaign will entertain during the evening. Halloween colors will prevail.

Colorful Posters Out—In the business windows of the city, colorful posters have been placed, announcing the radio carnival and fete to be given under the auspices of the Business & Professional Women's club in the chamber of commerce rooms on Saturday afternoon from one o'clock until six on November 14. The posters are made in brilliant colors and were prepared by the committees in charge.

Newsom Improving—Gail Newsom, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Newsom, is improving rapidly at the Newsom home, following a severe attack of grippe. According to Dr. Newsom, the young man will be able to return to school on Monday morning. Dr. Newsom has also been ill for a short time confined to the family home during the middle of the week with cold.

Work in Schools—From the smallest to the largest child, Halloween is being represented as an important event of the year and throughout the grade schools of the city posters and attractive designs depicting Halloween are being made and placed on display by the teachers.
