Gen. Carrail Gives
Way to Gen. Dupont

PARIS, Oct. 30.—Gen. Sarrail, who permitted the bombardment of Damascus has been removed from his post as high commissioner to Syria. Gen. Dupont, now in Syria investigating conditions for the government has succeeded Sarrail temporarily. The government is seeking a civilian for the post, but is encountering considerable difficulty in finding a man to take over the task of restoring order in Syria.

Under Sarrail's administration a rebellion of the Druses, a tribe little known in the western world, suddenly demanded and received the world's attention when the French resorted to a bombardment of ancient Damascus. Up to the moment last week when French shells began bursting in the city the French troubles in Syria were pretty much their own.

Paul Bencour, the first choice of the Palubeva government for civil resident general in Syria is understood to have refused the post. It is understood to have been offered to Franklin Bouillon, a Frenchman wise in the ways of the near east.

The government's decision to substitute a civilian for a military man at the head of the mandatory Syrian government is significant of French realization that the Damascus incident has aroused formidable if not generally articulate opposition to its activities as agent for the league of nations in the near east.

COMMERCIAL FISHING IN LOWER SNAKE RIVER

PORTLAND, Oct. 30.—Commercial fishing is being permitted in the lower Snake river, despite an agreement between states of Oregon and Washington to confine all commercial operations in the Columbia river below the mouth of the Deschutes river, which enters the Columbia not far from The Dalles, Oregon.

This situation was revealed in a report made to the United States bureau of fisheries by Hugh C. Mitchell, field representative of the salmon protective association, following a trip to the upper Columbia river and its tributaries.

BLY

Mr. Sexton, county club leader, was a visitor at our local school Tuesday afternoon. While there he organized the girls' sewing club for division III.

Mr. Henderson, county agriculturist, was also in the valley on business Tuesday.

C. E. Wallis was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wallis Tuesday night. Wallis was on his way to Klamath Falls from his home at Pine Creek.

A Hallowe'en party is planned by the Ladies' Club for Hallowe'en. It is looked forward to as one of the social events of the year.

Marvin Cross is busy hauling his supply of wood for the winter.

Reese Wingard, principal of our school and Joedy Owens were week-end visitors at Klamath Falls.

Objection Voiced
To Potter Pooling

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Fred W. Sargent, president of the North-western railroad, attacked the "Potter plan" of pooling the revenue from increased freight rates, at a night session of the western railroad rate hearing Thursday.

The "Potter plan" proposes that revenue from the five per cent rate increase, applied for by 73 western roads, be distributed among railroad companies, those whose profits have been smallest taking large sums, and those whose profits have been largest taking smaller sums.

Such a plan is not feasible, said Sargent. He declared it would ruin the efficiency of the railroads, be-

How He Discovered
Best Constipation Relief

Mr. Joseph F. Gins of Brooklyn, N. Y., writes "In the past 20 years I have been constantly troubled with constipation. Every remedy I tried would work O.K. for a while—but soon failed. The only remedy I have been able to use steadily with good results have been Carter's Little Liver Pills. I don't guess when I take them—I know I'm going to feel relieved." 25c at all druggists.

cause the weaker ones would know they would be taken care of whether they did a profitable business or not.

The hearing, under the direction of the interstate commerce commission, is on the application of the western lines, for a blanket rate increase of five per cent. Sargent was cross-examined by representatives of various western shippers organizations.

BLY SEWING CLUB ELECTS
RUTH CAMPBELL AS CHIEF

There is a brand new sewing club at Bly, it was announced yesterday. The organization comprises nine young women.

Frank Sexton, county club leader, brought back the news to Klamath Falls. He said the women in the organization are very enthusiastic.

Last year was the first time that Bly evidenced an interest in club work, and then the first enrollments were those of Ruth Campbell, Helen Campbell, Mattie Cross and Jane Cross.

Through the efforts of these three, the six others were interested in the work. Ruth Campbell distinguished herself by taking the cash prize offered by H. N. Moe, local merchant, for first award in sewing division No. 2 at the county fair here in September.

Miss Campbell, according to Sexton, has been chosen president of the new organization; Mrs. Nellie Wallace is local leader; Barbara Owen is vice-president, and Jessie Boyd, secretary.
