

LOCALS

Portlanders Return Home—After spending several days in Klamath Falls as guests of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Houston and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Haines, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Haines, of Portland, returned to the Oregon metropolis yesterday.

Mrs. Orr-Dunbar Leaves—Having completed her work in this vicinity for the present, Mrs. Sallie Orr-Dunbar, head of the federated women's clubs of the state, returned to Portland yesterday. Monday night she was the principal speaker at a Chamber of Commerce dinner.

Mrs. Hood in Medford—Mrs. Maude Hood, an employee of the local office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, was in Medford yesterday visiting.

Mrs. Toombs Improves—Friends of Mrs. W. S. Toombs will be glad to learn that she is gradually improving from a severe fall which she suffered several weeks ago and which has confined her to her bed. Mrs. Toombs was able to be out yesterday and plans to leave for Tacoma on Saturday where she will visit indefinitely with her parents, who will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary on Thanksgiving.

Lobby to Open—With the completion of the work to be done in the new location of the postoffice, Postmaster John A. McCalt announces that the office will probably be open by Sunday day and night as in the past if plans now under way are completed.

To Meet November 1—Monday afternoon, November sixteenth, Mrs. James Etzell will be hostess at the chapter meeting of the Klamath Falls group of the American Association of University Women at her home on the Merrill road. Mrs. Harry Ackley will be in charge of the meeting and has chosen as her subject the local public school including in the value of the plant, expenses and budgets.

Cars Registered—Among the cars to register at the chamber of commerce registration bureau this week are those of Gauder Gunderson, Porter, Minnesota; E. R. Pendleton, Mt. Shasta City; Frank E. Ford, Los Angeles; Helen S. Greider, San Francisco; Pearl Martin, Malone, Washington; Manny Hollander, Seattle; Ralph Wagner, Hoquiam, Washington.

To Attend Game—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mathews and Miss Eva Jenkins are planning to leave the early part of the month for the south, where they will enjoy a vacation, returning November 24. While in California they will attend the Stanford-University of California game on November 21. The party also plans a trip as far south as Tia Juana in old Mexico.

Police Grist—Otto Nichols paid a fine of one dollar in the office of Police Judge Gaghan Monday for violation of the traffic law.

Witness Football Game—Jay Cizek, who has been with Klamath Development company since his residence in Klamath Falls is planning to leave next week for the south to attend the football game between Stanford and the University of California at Palo Alto.

Leave for Portland—Joseph Jensen is leaving today for Portland, where he will spend the remainder of the week taking the examination for engineering that is being conducted next week in the northern city.

Visiting in Nebraska—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beal left Sunday afternoon for the middle west to spend a month visiting with their relatives and friends in their former homes in Nebraska. Going out by way of Bend Mr. and Mrs. Beal spent last night in Cheyenne, expecting to arrive at their destination the latter part of the week, providing the weather does not interfere with their plans. They are making the trip by motor. During Mrs. Beal's absence from the county clerk's office where she serves as deputy, Charles DeLap is assisting.

Dresses $7.50 and $15.00, at Barnhart's, McCarthy Bldg. N-1-S

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Announces Birth—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chase have announced the birth of a baby boy born to them in Springfield, Oregon, where they are making their home. The child was born Monday morning. Mrs. Chase will be remembered by her scores of friends in Klamath Falls where she made her home until recently. She was Miss Veda Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Griffith, before her marriage.

Fall Program Soon—Students of the Pine Grove school will enjoy a fall program and basket social Friday evening, November 6, in the school house. Money raised from the affair will go toward purchasing equipment for the playground and into the hot lunch fund. The public is cordially invited to attend the evening.

Society to Meet—Members of the Missionary Society of the Christian church will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. B. F. Owens, 1234 Lookout street. All those affiliated with the society are urged to attend.

To Meet Thursday—The section in drama and dramatic art of the American Association of University Women will meet with the leader, Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein, on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Mrs. Eberlein will read a paper on "The Actor and Theatre." She is very desirous that all members attend the meeting promptly at 8:00 o'clock.

Visiting in Portland—Mrs. Carroll Griffith, nee Hilda Hamaker, left the early part of the week with her sister and brother-in-law, for Portland, where they will enjoy a fortnight's vacation in the northern city.

Leaves for the South—Paul Burford, formerly connected with the Bulck garage in Klamath Falls, left yesterday for the south, where he plans to remain for the winter. After visiting for a week in San Francisco Burford will continue to Los Angeles.

For Portland—Fred R. Miller who has been connected with logging interests in Klamath county for the past spring and summer will leave this week for Portland, where he plans to spend the remainder of the fall and winter months.

Accepts Position—Miss LaVeda Stinson has accepted a position in the First National bank for the winter. She is employed in the filing department.

Resigns Position—Mrs. Walter Rigney has resigned her position in the First National bank filing department and is planning to leave Sunday morning for Oakland, California, to spend the winter. Mrs. Rigney will be accompanied south by her sister.

For the South Soon—With the closing of logging operations J. F. Dyre, who has been contracting for some time during the past summer in Klamath county, will leave for California to spend the winter the latter part of the week. Dyre is a resident of Sprague River.

In from Chiloquin—E. C. Calendar, resident of Chiloquin, where he conducts a pool hall spent Tuesday in the city on business.

Mrs. Reed Improving—Friends of Mrs. Ray Reed will be happy to learn that she is recovering nicely from a major operation to which she submitted in the Klamath General hospital yesterday. Dr. R. R. Hamilton, Portland physician, and former resident of Klamath Falls performed the operation which has proved successful.

DeMolay to Entertain—Honoring the fathers and mothers of members of the Klamath Falls chapter of DeMolay, the boys of the organization are planning an interesting entertainment for their parents on Thursday evening, November 12 to be given in the Masonic hall. Further details of the affair will be announced later.

Have Your Xmas Photographs Taken Early.
STINSON'S STUDIO

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET.
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Tax from $1.34

Chiloquin Visitor—Mrs. C. H. Davis of Chiloquin, spent Tuesday in the city on business. Mrs. Davis is a merchant of the reservation city, where she conducts a furniture store.

Recovers from Grippe—Lloyd Stoner has recovered sufficiently from an attack of grippe to permit him to return to his position at Wheeler-Olmstead.

Job's Daughters to Meet—Members of Job's Daughters will hold their regular November meeting in the Masonic hall on Thursday night.

Visiting With Relatives—Miss Ida Johnson of Astoria, is spending several days in the city, the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Lloyd E. Stoner and Miss Mary Johnson. Miss Johnson will leave the middle of the week for her home in the north.

Purchase New Home—Mr. and Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook have moved into their new residence on Esplanade, which they purchased recently. They moved their effects into the attractive new home yesterday.

In from Bly—Out of town visitors in the city this week include Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett, well known residents of the Bly country.

Week-end with Mother—Miss Jessie Bell and her sister, Miss Elba Bell, spent the Hallowe'en holidays with their mother, Mrs. Bertha Bell in Bly. The Misses Bell are students in Sacred Heart Academy in Klamath Falls.

A. N. W. Club to Meet—Members of the A. N. W. club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. S. Phillips, 216 Pine street, for the regular meeting of the group.

Board Meeting—Members of the board of directors of the Women's Library club will meet Friday afternoon in the library club rooms for a regular meeting.

Here from Medford—Business visitors in the city this week include Carl Knutsen of Medford, who makes frequent business trips to Klamath Falls.

Medford Visitors—Among the business visitors in the city this week from the valley are B. L. Barry and I. J. Hill from their homes in Medford.

At the White Pelican—Guests in the city this week stopping at the White Pelican hotel include H. W. Meek of Dunsmuir, of the Southern Pacific company.

On Business and Pleasure—Charles Zwiedel, well known resident of Redding, where he owns and conducts an iron foundry, and William J. McCarthy of San Francisco, a frequent business visitor in the city, are included in the arrivals last night in Klamath Falls.

San Francisco Visitors—H. L. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Crooks are among the southern visitors in the city from their homes in San Francisco. Crooks is connected with the Western Meat company.

From Berkeley—A party of three Berkeley residents are visiting in Klamath Falls for several days from their homes in the south. The party is made up of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kells and Mrs. J. B. Carrick.

Here from Tennant—Edward Shelton of Tennant is among the business visitors in the city this week.

Insurance Man Here—P. R. Shelley, connected with the insurance game in Montague, is making a brief visit in the city this week.

At the Arcade Hotel—Included in the guests in the Arcade hotel this week is A. W. Dahlberg, business visitor from Grants Pass, who is in Klamath Falls for the remainder of the week looking into affairs.

Roof Ready Soon—According to Chris Blanas, who is building the Blanas apartments, the roof will be completed by the latter part of the next week providing the weather continues to be permissible.

MASONS ATTENTION

Work in M. M. Degree
Friday, November 6,
7:30 p. m.

C. E. DENNIS, W. M.

The Stalwart "Eleven" of American Styles

A team of talent and quality; a combination of skill and style. Here are the eleven aces that have won pride of place in the fashion field

American styles in

Kuppenheimer

GOOD CLOTHES

The Masterly Cut
Fine Finishings

The Perfect Fit
Accurate Sizing

Careful Pressing

Durability

Sensible Styles

Handsome Fabrics

Real Distinction

Splendid Variety

Long Life

Come in and see the latest models in Woodland Browns and Venice Blue

at $30, $35 and up to $60

The Center of the Shopping District