

PLAN CAMPAIGN

It is only a matter of time until others will take up the work of planting trees until the whole city area will have its sidewalks and curbs dressed with a lining of trees.

WELCOME, FRIENDS

The Klamath News extends a welcome to the new house of Pilcher, as an enterprising and attractive addition to the ever-growing list of modern business establishments of the city. The News appreciates, also, the fact the Pilcher Company has become one of its steadily increasing list of advertisers. Situated just across the street from the Brownsville Woolen Mills Store, located just above The News office, the Pilcher building, one of the most imposingly remodelled stores of the city, is an added improvement to the corner of Main and Fifth streets, an asset to the city and a practical advertising medium of progress in our commercial center. Subscribe for The News today, and you will always know where to buy the best. News advertisers sell the best quality at the lowest prices.

Brief Notes About City and District

In and around Klamath Falls many industries are represented in the county and district. Sugar beet farming, lettuce raising, cattle, sheep, diversified farming, alfalfa, all form part of the agricultural resources. Among the more progressive centers of farming around Klamath Falls is the Langell valley district. Klamath Falls' population is 8,000. The altitude is about 3,500 feet. 140,000 acres of irrigated lands. Several standard rigs boring for oil. Monthly payroll of $1,000,000. Finest hotel service between San Francisco and Portland. The climate is clear and cool in summer and mild in winter. Klamath has more undeveloped resources than any other county on the coast. The center of the greatest stock raising section of Oregon. 1,000,000 undeveloped horse power on the Klamath river. Klamath has tributary to it 25 mills and factories.

It has one of the 24 United States reclamation projects. This city is second city of Oregon in amount of freight shipment out by rail. There is tributary for manufacture 40,000,000,000 feet of soft pine. This is the largest box shooch manufacturing center in the United States. We have the largest percentage of growth in telephone and telegraph service of any city on the coast. Our trade territory extends 75 miles in every direction from Klamath Falls. Klamath Falls has more than 15 manufacturing plants. Fishing in Klamath Lakes and Streams. Many localities have either fine stream fishing or fine lake fishing, but it is not often that any country supplies both as well as does the Klamath country. All year around the finest fishing is enjoyed by those who live here, but in the summer, when the tourist hies himself to the lake or stream, he finds the most delightful climate, cool and invigorating, and fishing that cannot be matched for sport anywhere.

Lake Fishing Upper Klamath Lake, Lake of the Woods, Four Mile Lake, Diamond Lake, Odell Lake, Fish Lake, Crescent Lake, Davis Lake. Stream Fishing Luk River, Rock Creek, Recreation Creek, Wood River, Spring Creek, Cherry Creek, Sprague River, Klamath River, Williamson River, Deschutes River. Langell Valley Langell valley has an elevation of 4100 feet above sea level, where the air is pure and wholesome, free from germs, and where the oldest settlers know nothing of malaria. It is a dry air. Winters are moderate and the summers are moderately warm, but are remarkable for the number of clear days, plenty of sunshine, and an average of 300 clear days in the year. Add to this great freedom from storms, an entire absence of tornadoes, comparative freedom from high winds, common in countries of high elevation, and you have an unexaggerated sketch of the climatic conditions. Pure water is abundant. Wells range from 10 to 40 feet in depth with water of high quality. Excellent conditions exist for stock raising and feeding in Langell valley owing to the fact that it borders on free range. Approximately 900,000 acres of forest (Continued on Page Six)
