

LOCALS

Woman Shops Here—Mrs. Wm. Roark, of Modoc Point, was in Klamath Falls yesterday, on a shopping visit.

Brother Ill; Woman Leaves—Mrs. R. E. Dewesse, of Klamath Falls, left yesterday for Kansas City to be at the bedside of a brother who is reported to be critically ill. Mr. Dewesse already is in the east.

Mr. Peterson At Malin—Fred Peterson, county superintendent of schools, was a visitor at Malin yesterday.

Patterson Ill; Boyd Serves—Due to an illness which has temporarily incapacitated Patrolman Patterson, Acting Deputy Sheriff Boyd yesterday was named to serve in Patterson's place on the local police force. Patterson's sickness is said not to be serious.

Ex-Senator Visits City—Charles McCollough, former state senator from Baker county, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday and, while here, conferred with Robert Kuykendall, local attorney. McCollough was accompanied by Charles Whorten, a resident of Portland.

Sees Stock Show; Returns—Jim Black, well-known resident of the Modoc Point district, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday. Mr. Black recently returned from Portland, where he attended the livestock show.

Educator, Rancher, Visit—O. A. Schultz, a rancher of Henley and D. A. McComb, principal of the Henley high school, were business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Arrive from Colorado—After being on the road eight days in their motor trip from their home in Grand Junction, Colorado to Klamath Falls, Mrs. T. J. Hampson, two daughters and a son arrived in Klamath last night. Mrs. Hampson and her children were met in Portland by Mr. Hampson who had waited a week for their arrival. They will make their home permanently in the city. Hampson is manager of the Klamath Falls branch of Piggly Wiggly stores.

Ashland Visitor—Mrs. Belle Schrein of Ashland, is among the business and pleasure visitors in the city this week.

At the Hall Hotel—Out of town visitors in the city this week from Tygh valley, Oregon, include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown. Another Tygh valley visitor in the city is M. D. Ashly. All are stopping at the Hall hotel while in Klamath Falls.

Here from Ashland—Mrs. George Anderson is included in the business visitors in Klamath Falls this week from her home in Ashland.

Portland Visitors—Portland guests in the city this week include Mr. and Mrs. William Zarler, G. V. Lintner, S. J. Rogers and F. S. Kotter, all residents of the northern city. They arrived in Klamath Falls last night for combined business and pleasure.

At the White Pelican—Among the numerous guests to register in the White Pelican hotel last night were several San Francisco residents in J. W. Pettus, C. H. Davison, M. F. Blotkey, L. O. B. Lindstrom and others.

From Harriman Lodge—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wishard and daughter Dorella of Harriman lodge spent yesterday afternoon in the city visiting with friends and shopping.

Here from Chiloquin—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Crooks returned yesterday afternoon to their home in Chiloquin, after spending several days in the city on business.

Cooked Food Sale—Tomorrow in Santford's grocery members of the Fairview school Parent-Teachers association will hold a cooked food sale from nine o'clock until late in the evening.

COOKED FOOD SALE
Episcopal Guild will hold a food and rummage sale in room east of Fall's grocery, on Saturday. N5-7

Dresses $7.50 and $15.00, at Barnhart's, McCarthy Bldg. N4-8

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Tar. $ from $1.50

Troop to Meet—Troop No. 1, under the leadership of Julius Mueller, will meet tonight at 7:30 in A. O. U. W. hall on the corner of Main and Payne alley. It is the aim of Mueller, scout master, to organize the group tonight and establish the patrol system. Boys will learn the manner of leadership in the scout troops this year and the troops will be reorganized with this in mind, according to Everett O. Nord, executive scout master of southern Oregon yesterday.

Rearranging C. of C.—The chamber of commerce rooms are being completely reorganized and more room made for work in the chamber. The small booth which previously held the reading material and advertisements concerning Klamath county, has been placed in the rear of the room and light sent into the space occupied by the scout council.

Leaves for the South—C. B. Crisler, president of the Ewauna Bux company, left yesterday for his home in Sacramento, after spending the summer in the Klamath country.

Return from South—Mr. and Mrs. Pat Holcomb have returned from San Francisco, where Holcomb was taken last week for his health.

In from Modoc Point—Ross Beal, well known resident of the Klamath reservation, spent yesterday afternoon in the city from his home in Modoc Point.

Assisting in Bank—Mrs. Walter Rigney who will leave soon for the south is assisting in the bank during the absence of Mrs. Jack Campbell, nee Stella Setzer, whose wedding was an event of yesterday afternoon.

Visiting in City—Mrs. Fred Garich spent yesterday in the city from her home at Altamont camp ground. Mrs. Garich has been confined to her home for some time suffering from a severe cold, but is now highly improved and able to be about.

Pine Grove Social—Members of the Pine Grove district and students of the Pine Grove school are to enjoy a box social and program in the school house tonight with the public cordially invited to attend the affair. Proceeds will go into the school fund.

Merrill Visitors—Louis Kandra and John Kandra, well known residents of the Merrill district, where the Kandra ranch is located, are included in yesterday's visitors in Klamath Falls.

Bonanza Visitors—Mrs. Reginald Grisez and Mrs. Ada Parsons of Bonanza are included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Bly Visitor—Marvin Cross, well known merchant of the Bly country and Mr. Morgan were visitors in the city yesterday from the neighboring district.

Sale on all coats and dresses at Bee Begin's Dress Shop. Next to Shasta Cafe. N5-8

Land Sold—A large section of timber land of virgin timber was sold yesterday to J. D. Grant by B. S. Grigaby for a consideration of $3,000, according to filings in the office of the county clerk. The land is located in the timber region of Sprague River in township 35.

Leaving for the Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Terrill of Klamath Falls plan to leave this week-end for Medford, where they will spend several days visiting with Mrs. Terrill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coleman, residents of the valley city.

Epperson Sells Property—A. B. Epperson has sold to E. L. Carlson, a corner lot located on Washburn Way and Sixth street, for a consideration of $500. The deed was filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk.

Poe Valley Visitor—Mrs. Joe Taylor is included in the many visitors in the city yesterday from her home in the Poe valley district.

Shopping from Fox Farm—"Cap" Hansberry and Mrs. Marjorie Murray, residents of the fox farm located at Rocky Point, arrived in the city yesterday for a brief business visit and to attend the meeting of the Prosperity Rebekah lodge of Klamath Falls and Hope lodge of Rebekah's from Ashland. The latter group put on the degree work and initiation of candidates for the Klamath chapter last night. A beautifully appointed dinner was served at 6:30 p. m. in the Presbyterian church for the guests which there were more than 40 from the Ashland chapter.

From Barclay Springs—Miss Gertrude Cox of Barclay Springs was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Visiting in Klamath—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mrs. Leighton Sutton of the Barclay Springs district.

From Pine Grove—Mrs. Orb Campbell is included in the visitors in the city yesterday from her home in Pine Grove, where the Campbell ranch is located.

Permitted to Sell Milk—M. DeFatte, well known rancher of the Midland road, appeared at the office of Police Judge Gaghagen yesterday in the city hall and obtained a permit to sell milk in the city of Klamath Falls. DeFatte gave a herd of 39 cows as the main reason for dispensing the milk.

Here from Merrill—Mrs. G. C. Lynch is included in the out of town visitors in the city yesterday.

Among the Visitors—Joe Tramel, well known dairymen of the Lakeview route on the way to Merrill, is included in the business visitors in the city yesterday for a short time.

Every hat at Bee Begin's Dress Shop is marked below cost. Better look 'em over. N5-8

Pretty bright colors in corduroy bath robes at Bee Begin's Dress Shop for only $5.75. Just unpacked today. N5-8

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Business Guest in City—Eric Lassen of Rocky Point is included in the scores of business visitors in the city yesterday to transact affairs and to look into matters in the court house.

Harvest Home Fete—The younger set of Klamath Falls and especially members of Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian church are planning to enjoy one of the most interesting social events of the season when they meet in the church parlors for the Home Harvest Fete tonight. Shocks of corn, pumpkins and other decorations evolving back to the harvest day and even a harvest moon hung from the ceiling will add to the evening's pleasure. The committee in charge of the affair have worked steadily for more than a month and their invitations include all students in the high schools above the sophomore class and all young people up to the age of 25. Contests with prizes will be enjoyed and music and games will be the major portion of the evening's entertainment.

To San Francisco—Charles DeLap is planning to leave in the near future for San Francisco.

where he will spend several weeks on business connected with the Union Sheep company, of which he is buyer in Klamath county.

In Klamath Thursday—H. F. Murdoch, rancher of the Keno road spent Thursday in the city on business.

Malin Minister In—Joseph Mikosovsky, minister of the Bohemian church in Malin, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls, transacting business affairs and looking into private matters.

In Dorris on Business—E. L. Cramblitt, well known Klamath Falls business man spent yesterday in Dorris transacting affairs.

Meet With Mrs. Eberlein—Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein entertained members of the art and drama section of the American Association of University Women last night at her home. She read a most interesting paper on "The Actor and Theatre."

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. Charles Latta is among the recent visitors in the city from her home in Merrill.

Algona Visitors Here—Among those who were in from Algona to attend the Rebekah lodge last evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Uhrin, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert England and B. E. Barrett.

Mrs. McDonald Arrives—Of interest to many is the arrival in Klamath Falls of Mrs. A. A. McDonald from her home in Portland to assist during the opening week with A. A. McDonald, manager of the Klamath Falls branch of the Plicher stores. Mrs. McDonald, who has had a great amount of experience in this line will be in charge of the ready-to-wear department. According to McDonald yesterday, the remainder of the family will arrive in the city the first of the year to make their homes here. Mrs. McDonald will return north next week.

Lap over white, all over waitress aprons at Bee Begin's Dress Shop for only $2.50. N5-8

Fixup Beauty Shop, now open for business at Bee Begin's Dress Shop, 129 So. 7th St. Phone 633. N4-6

Miss Noll Improving
Miss Anne Noll, who is recovering from a case of smallpox which she is recovering from, suffered for several

Miss Koenig Ill
Miss Koenig was confined suffering a severe illness.

KLAMATH VALLEY
Beds will be reserved for the expected coats

Coats $7.50 and $15.00, at Barnhart's, McCarthy Bldg.

MASON ATTENT
Work in M. M. Friday, Nov. 6 7:30 p. m.

C. E. DENNIS

The Style Trend in Fall Overcoats

Longer and narrower than last season with straight, tube lines. Lapels are broad and husky. Collars generously wide. Double breasteds exceedingly popular.

Some coats show half belts, the majority have perfectly plain backs. You'll see all of the style features gracefully and tastefully tailored in handsome woolsens by the House of

Kuppenheimer

We've a magnificent assortment of dress coats, motoring coats, half belters, ulsters, coats for town and country, for sport and travel. Superb values for

$30, $35, $40 and up to $60

The Center of the Shopping District

DANCE DOTSON IS HERE

with his SERENADERS

To Open Season at SCANDIA HALL

(Under New Management)

New Maple Floor Hall Re-decorated

Free Novelties for Everybody

Come and Enjoy Yourself

Saturday Night, Nov. 7

8:30 to 12 Mid.