POT LUCK DINNER PLANNED THURSDAY

Honoring Bishop William P. Remington and Rev. J. Henry Thomas, new rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Woman's Guild and the congregation as well as their many friends will join in a pot luck dinner to be held in the chamber of commerce rooms on Thursday evening, November 12.

The dinner will be the first community gathering of the church members and their friends and will mark the beginning of a number of covered dish dinners planned for the winter months.

There will be no cover charges.

MRS. DELZELL HONORED WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Thomas White Delzell was the inspiration for one of the most attractive affairs of the winter season when she was honored on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Poole with a matinee and tea.

More than sixty maids and matrons of the city were the guests of Mrs. Poole at a matinee given in the Pine Tree theatre. "Confessions of a Queen" was the picture which entertained the guests during the afternoon.

Upon entering the theatre door Miss Joan Thompson greeted the guests presenting each with a tastefully arranged corsage of chrysanthemums and ferns.

Following the matinee the guests motored to the White Pelican hotel where tea was served. Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein and Mrs. W. E. Lamm presided over the daintily appointed tea table. Place cards bore hand painted miniatures of popular screen folk.

At the centerpiece of each individual table of which there were fifteen, small chrysanthemums and autumn flowers predominated. Harry Borel's orchestra played during the tea hour leading an enchanting air to the afternoon.

MRS. ORR-DUNBAR HONORED WITH TEA

For the pleasure of Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, president of the state federation of women's clubs, members of the Klamath Falls library club honored her with a daintily appointed tea in the library club rooms on Monday afternoon from two until five o'clock.

Mrs. Lynn P. Sabin was chairman of the committee on arrangements with Mrs. Charles I. Roberts, Mrs. John Sargent, Mrs. E. H. Pike and Mrs. Bert C. Thomas assisting.

Mrs. Sargent and Mrs. Thomas poured at a prettily arranged tea table where marigolds and fall flowers formed the centerpiece. Miss Margaret Cummings and Miss Zepha Rogers assisted in serving.

Following a book review of "The Carolinian," favorite Sabatini novel which was given in an interesting manner by Mrs. Bernard J. Res, Mrs. Orr-Dunbar gave a brief address to the women on "The qualities of a Club Woman."

Mrs. Orr-Dunbar left the early part of the week for her home in Portland after spending several interesting days in Klamath Falls.

MRS. GRIMES ENTERTAINED

For the pleasure of a few friends Mrs. Henry Grimes entertained at her home on Eldorado street in Hot Springs addition on Friday evening. The party hours were spent informally with needlework and refreshments were served at a late hour. Mrs. R. D. Coe will entertain the group of Friday evening.

Guests included Mrs. A. D. Coe, Mrs. Joe Shirk, Mrs. W. L. Sanders and Mrs. R. L. Sloan and the hostess Mrs. Henry Grimes.

SERIES OF TEAS EVENT OF WEEK

Prominent on the social calendar of the past week were the series of bridge teas given on Friday and Saturday afternoons with Mrs. Charles B. Browne and Mrs. Glenn Jester as hostesses at the Browne home on Eldorado.

Guests were bidden to make up seven tables of bridge on both afternoons.

Mammoth yellow chrysanthemums in abundance lent an enhancing charm to the rooms. The autumn motif predominated in the note of the afternoon.

High score on Friday went to Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough; on Saturday Mrs. Fred Dunbar.

MISS NACHETTAZ PORTLAND BRIDE

Of interest to their scores of friends in Klamath Falls is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Ivaline Nachettaz to A. Doveri in Portland, Saturday morning at nine o'clock in St. Anthony's parish house. Father Sniderhorn read the beautiful wedding ceremony.

Miss Nachettaz was attractively frocked in white satin with a lace train. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Nachettaz was attended by her sister, Mrs. Phillip Pettitnermet of Portland.

The groom was attended by Phillip Pettitnermet. Among the guests to attend the wedding from Klamath Falls were Mrs. R. R. Reynolds and Miss Ida Nachettaz, sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Doveri are at home to their many friends at 213 cedar street in this city.

Mr. Doveri is a prominent Klamath Falls building contractor and has made his home here for a number of years. Mrs. Doveri has a host of friends who wish her happiness.
