Indian Shaker church. A large attendance is expected. Harry Jackson and Mrs. Jackson of West Chiloquin, left for Klamath Falls to spend the day. The big gold strike in the Virginia mining district has created considerable interest among the local merchants who have staked out claims. Edward B. Ashurst, well known Klamath Falls attorney, spent the day in Chiloquin. Starting tonight services will be held nightly at the Williamson river church. The ladies of the Community club will hold an Armistice dance at the DuVall hall Tuesday evening, Nov. 10. As there are a number of veterans here the dance should be a huge success.
