

LOCALS

Parent-Teachers to Meet—Mills Addition school. Parent-Teachers' association will meet on Tuesday at three o'clock in the school building. During the afternoon delegates to the state convention will give their reports. A silver tea will be enjoyed following the business meeting.

Return from the South—Mrs. Ed X. Kendall, wife of Justice of the Peace Kendall and Mrs. H. E. Jones returned Sunday from San Francisco. Both Mrs. Kendall and Mrs. Jones have been in the southern city where they submitted to major operations. Their many friends will welcome their return to the city.

Enjoy Hike—Dr. L. D. Cass and Everett O. Nord, executive scout master, enjoyed an all day Sunday exploration trip to the northern end of Upper Klamath Lake and Agency Lake. They prepared one of their well known outdoor scout dinners while on the hike.

Organize at Mills—Another scout troop, No. 4, was organized over the past week-end in the Mills Addition school with Frank Muser, scout master and Arthur Grubb, assistant scout master. Instruction in knots and their uses was given by the scout executive. The troop will be ready to apply for its charter by Friday night.

Leave on Trip—L. H. Gustafson and Gordon MacAuley left Sunday for Roseburg, where they will transact business in connection with the Munger Service laundries.

Leaves for the South—Friends of Mrs. Charlotte Trimble will be glad to know that she is enjoying a two months' vacation in Sacramento and San Francisco. She left Sunday for the south.

Art Ross Improves—Art Ross of the Central barber shop, who was taken suddenly ill and operated upon for appendicitis in the Klamath Valley hospital is reported as highly improved.

New Member of Chamber—Geo. D. Ray, owner of the Lake hotel, and brother-in-law of James Kerns, is the latest addition to the chamber of commerce membership. His name appeared Saturday on the bulletin board.

Miss Obenchain to Broadcast—Friends of Miss Marie Obenchain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Obenchain of Bly, will be happy to learn that she has been requested to broadcast on Friday and Saturday nights, November 14 and 15 from KGO, Oakland, Calif., with both pipe organ and organ recitals. Miss Obenchain, who has studied music extensively, will advertise during her section of the program the olive and orange exposition to be conducted in the near future, in Oroville, Calif.

Miss Elliott Here—Miss Nelle Elliott spent the past week-end in Klamath Falls visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Elliott. Miss Elliott will return today to University of Oregon, where she is in her freshman year.

HOTEL ASTOR
2nd & Hill, Los Angeles
EVERY ROOM has PRIVATE TOILET
50% Baths New, Modern
Close to Shopping District and Theatres
FREE GARAGE Taxicab from $1.50

GO
Where the Crowd Goes
Dancing
Wednesday Night
ALTAMONT AUDITORIUM
Galloway's Orchestra

Attorney is in Seattle—Horace Manning, well-known local attorney, is in Seattle transacting business. He is expected to return here Tuesday.

Deputy Delivers Prisoner—Delivered prisoner to the warden at 1:30 o'clock Thursday," said a telegram yesterday received from Deputy Sheriff Jim Hilton by Sheriff Burt Hawkins. Hilton referred to T. M. Owens, charged with a statutory offense, who was sentenced to 18 months by Circuit Judge A. L. Leavitt.

Shop is Burglarized—Ten dollars in cash, a $20 bill, a cameo ring, an agate set for a woman's pin and six checks were among the loot stolen by burglars who entered the Trowbridge Cabinet works, at Medford, according to word received by wire yesterday by Sheriff Burt Hawkins. He was requested to be on the look-out for the criminals.

In from Midland—Among the recent visitors in the city over the past week-end were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Spence of Midland.

In from the Fort—Bob Gordon, son of a prominent Fort Klamath rancher, was a week-end visitor in the city.

Mrs. Couch Ill—Friends of Mrs. Roy Couch will be sorry to learn that she is confined to her residence on Washington street, suffering from a severe case of bronchial pneumonia.

Moves Offices—I. A. Smith, architect, has moved his offices into that of Fred Buesing, 1920 Main street.

Return from the South—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hanks and daughter Miss Fern Hanks, have returned to Klamath Falls, arriving Sunday night after a fortnight's motor tour of southern California. They visited in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Monrovia and other points in the southern state.

Guest of Mrs. Deitzell—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deitzell have as their house guest for several days Miss Alice Grey of Portland. The party plans to leave on Thursday for Eugene, where they will be guests at home-coming week-end.

In from Valley—Mr. and Mrs. George Noble are among the recent visitors in the city spending yesterday from their home in Langell valley.

Arrives from the South—John A. Harvey, prominent attorney of Santa Ana, arrived in Klamath Falls Sunday to visit with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Otterbein. He will return to his home on Wednesday. Harvey has been visiting with relatives in the valley prior to visiting in the city, including his mother, Mrs. A. L. Harvey of Ashland, and sister Mrs. E. M. Wilson of Medford.

To Visit With Daughter—Mrs. Nate Otterbein is anticipating a visit from her mother, Mrs. A. L. Harvey of Ashland, who will return with Mrs. Otterbein on Wednesday to spend several weeks in Klamath Falls. Mrs. Harvey has many friends in Klamath, who will welcome her visit here.

Week-end from Medford—Among the week-end visitors in Klamath Falls recently was Jack Moore, electrician, from Paul's electric store, Medford.

In Ashland Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Carey Ramsby are among the recent visitors in Ashland from Klamath Falls. They spent Sunday visiting with friends in the valley.

Glendale Visitors—Miss Ruby Clayton, Frank Nelson, Melvin Pike and John Thomas, all residents of Glendale, are included in the recent visitors in Klamath Falls, spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hoagland in the city.

Week-end in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller and family spent the week-end in Medford visiting at the home of Mrs. Goeller's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson.

Week-end With Mother—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamaker of Klamath Falls spent the past week-end visiting with Mrs. Hamaker's mother, Mrs. Clara Taylor of Ashland. They returned home Sunday night.

Family Reunion—In honor of the visit of John A. Harvey of Santa Ana, a family reunion of the Harvey family was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. A. L. Harvey in Ashland. Among the visitors from Klamath Falls to attend the gathering were Mrs. Nate Otterbein, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goeller and family. They returned home Sunday evening.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES
PURE DRUGS

Leave for Oakland—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rigney have left for the south to make their home permanently in Oakland. They left Sunday for California.

Called Home—Mrs. Dewey Webb was called home Sunday from San Francisco by the severe illness of her mother, Mrs. Ticer.

Visits Ranch—Levi McDonald of Klamath Falls spent Sunday on the McDonald ranch in the Langell valley country.

Former Resident Here—Mrs. Cora Sanderson, former Klamath Falls resident and well known in the Klamath country, has returned to the city for an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Templar on East street. Mrs. Sanderson arrived the latter part of the week.

Here from Merrill—Among the numerous visitors in the city the early part of the week were Anton Cacka, prominent Merrill rancher. According to Cacka, Merrill ranchers will be forced to import cattle to feed on their lands, due to the bumper crop of hay received from the valley lands this season.

Return from Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell, nee Stella Setzer, have returned from a brief wedding trip, which took them to Eugene and other valley cities. Mrs. Campbell resumed her position in the First National bank yesterday morning. They are at home to their many friends in the Allan Sloan residence, which they have taken for the winter. A number of their friends surprised them on Sunday night with a charivari, later enjoying a visit.

Leaves for the South—A. C. Townsend of Klamath Falls is leaving today for the south, where he will spend the winter. Townsend has leased his ranch in the Altamont district for the coming winter months.

Football Rally Tuesday—According to Principal Jackson of the Klamath high school, the final football rally of the season will be held Tuesday night to instill pep into the Klamath students for the final football game on Armistice day between Klamath and Alturas. Those who will participate in the rally will gather at the Elks' temple at seven o'clock Tuesday evening and form their serpentine.

Miss Lindley At Home—Miss Katherine Lindley who has been in Klamath Valley hospital recovering from an attack and operation for appendicitis is resting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. George R. Lindley on Riverside street.

Return to Valley—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Johnston Jr., residents of Medford enjoyed Sunday visiting in Klamath Falls and hunting. While in the city they visited with Miss Katherine Lindley, an old school friend of Mrs. Johnston.

Warden Visitor—Roy Nelson, rancher of Worden district, spent yesterday afternoon in the city for a brief time.

Here from Odell—Visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included James Wakefield of Odell, who transacted business affairs in the county court house.

Returns from Ashland—After visiting for some time with her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Gleim of Talent, who was seriously ill, and with her son Harvey Clift of Ashland, Mrs. A. E. Hensley has returned from the valley.

Maria Visitor—In the city yesterday in the Maria county.

Merrill Route—The scores of visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday included the Merrill route.

In Over Week-End—Incessant visitors in Klamath Falls include John W. Tupper, rancher of the Lake district.

In from Merrill—In the city over the past week-end include Miss Ellen Merrill, member of the school faculty. Many friends in Klamath welcome her visit.

Evans Bros. No. Store, 832 N. Reliable Jewelers and Engravers. Come Always a Customer

KLAMATH KLOTHING KOMPANY Headquarters for Overcoats

Kuppenheimer Coats, Patricks Coats, Kincaid
Kimball Coats, Curlee Coats

There's rugged strength and glowing warmth in these Fine Overcoats. There's downright American Style—the trim clipper lines that are truly and distinctively American. The new Fall Fabrics are magnificent—vigorous styles for rigorous weather. Prices from $15 to $75

Dozens of Good Styles at $30, $35 and $40

This Store Will Close Armistice Day At Noon

Show Your Loyalty To Our Schools

Shop where your dollar gives part of its cents to support the high school paper.

The Klamath Krater

Since the high school girls will serve as part of our salesforce on Saturday, while the boys are acting in the same capacity at the Brownville Woolen Mills store, it will be easy for you to contribute to the "Klamath Krater Fund" by making your purchase at these two stores, your needs attended to by Klamath High Students.

Every dollar spent at these two stores contributes a portion of its cents to the fund supporting the school paper.

We are willing to help
ARE YOU?

Truth In Advertising