Deal in Justice, make mercy the beacon light of fraternal associations, fortify American liberty with humbleness of law-abiding citizenship that will suppress the oppressor within and without. Assure to each American, you and your neighbor, to American government, by your individual responsibility, the rights, lights and benefits of life, liberty and pursuit of happiness sustained at such ghastly, costly sacrifice by the living, the wounded and maimed, the dead—of the World War—in whose honor we are observing the anniversary of the day which brought joyous peace from deadly strife.
