

LOCALS

Mrs. Fouch Improves—Mrs. Roy Fouch, who has been suffering for the past few days with a severe attack of bronchial pneumonia, is improving slightly, according to friends.

In from Bly—Among the visitors in the city yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richardson, prominent residents of the Bly country.

In on Business—George Boyd with Mrs. Boyd spent Monday in Klamath Falls from their home in the Bly section.

Visiting from the East—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ryan are included in the many visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from the Ryan ranch in Fort Klamath.

Here from Lake County—Miss Pearl Hall, resident of Lakeview and county school superintendent of Lake spent yesterday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends and looking into business affairs.

For Chiloquin—L. W. Vannice made a brief business trip to Chiloquin yesterday.

In from Midland—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hooper, prominent Klamath county ranchers are included in the scores of visitors in the city this week from their home in the Midland district.

Mrs. Rice Improves—Friends of Mrs. Lloyd Rice will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly from a severe attack of throat trouble which has confined her to her home for the past week.

Into New Home—Mr. and Mrs. George Metz and family have moved from Oak street to their home on the corner of East Main and Oak streets, where they will spend the winter.

Returns for Winter—George A. McDonald who has been affiliated with the Pelican Bay Lumber company during the past spring and summer months is leaving today for Portland, where he will spend the winter.

In Tuesday—George Mehlos, foreman of the Algoma camp was a business visitor in the city yesterday for a brief time to transact affairs.

In from Bonanza—Mrs. Walter Lindsey of Bonanza, is included in the visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday for a brief shopping tour.

Fort Klamath Visitor—Recent visitors in Klamath Falls this week include M. L. Ferguson of Fort Klamath.

In from Rock Creek—D. E. Alexander of the Rock Creek ranch spent yesterday in the city to transact business and to bid his mother, Mrs. Emma Alexander goodbye, who left yesterday for her home in Berkeley.

Keller Improves—J. J. Keller, known affectionately to his scores of friends as "Pa" Keller, is slightly improved over his condition of yesterday at the Keller home, 713 Jefferson street. According to Mrs. Keller, Keller has suffered from an attack of poison which has kept him confined to their home since Thursday of the past week.

In Alturas—Business visitors in Alturas from Klamath Falls include Ray D. Hofberger, who spent the early part of the week in the neighboring city.

Bonanza Visitor—William F. B. Chase, secretary of the Horsety Irrigation district spent yesterday in the city on business from his ranch in the Bonanza district.

Campfire Girls Meet—Girls of the Sunhacho group of campfire of Klamath Falls met last night with their guardian Mrs. A. L. Rice at the Rice home.

DeMolay Boys to Entertain—On Thursday night in the Masonic temple members of the DeMolay chapter of Klamath Falls will entertain for fathers and mothers with an informal party. Plans for the affair when the boys could honor the parents have been made for some time and it is one of the outstanding affairs on the winter's social calendar for DeMolay.

Mrs. Frakes Improves—Mrs. Bertha Frakes, manager of the cafeteria of Riverside school, who has been seriously ill with rheumatism for several weeks was able to be about the streets yesterday, although she will not return to work in the school until Monday.

At the White Pelican—Among the recent arrivals in the city shopping at the White Pelican hotel is B. L. Barry of Medford, who makes frequent business trips to Klamath Falls.

Miss Tuttle Here—Miss Lou Tuttle of Bonanza, who makes frequent shopping visits in the city from her home in the neighboring district is in Klamath Falls for a brief time.

Eugene Visitor—Among the business visitors in the city this week is G. A. Prince of Eugene.

In from Agency—J. A. Howarth Jr. of Klamath Agency, is a business visitor for several days in the city.

In from Lorella—Marshall F. Orr, well known rancher of the Lorella district and his brother John S. Orr of Reno, Nevada, prominent old resident of the Klamath country and former judge, arrived in the city last night to spend several days on business and looking into affairs. They are also visiting with their many old friends while in Klamath.

At the Hall—Out of town visitors registering at the Hall hotel this week include Mrs. Harry E. Dobbins of Klamath Agency, who is a frequent visitor and shopper in the city.

State Inspector Here—George E. Goodell of Grants Pass, state boiler inspector, is in the city for a brief visit to make his regular inspection round of the mills.

Sheep Buyer Here—D. Gallagher, sheep buyer of Oakland, is in the city to look into business interests.

Surveyor from Dunsmuir—K. H. Honnor, Southern Pacific surveyor for the Dunsmuir district, arrived in the city last night for a brief visit.

On Business Here—W. W. Miller and B. F. Lohr, business visitors in the city this week, are among the valley visitors from their homes in Grants Pass.

Entertain Officers—Elected officers of Aloha chapter, Eastern Star, were entertained on Monday evening with a party at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg on Pine street.

On Two Weeks' Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Palmer left Tuesday for Seattle, Portland, Marshfield and other interesting points, planning to be absent from Klamath Falls for a fortnight enjoying a motor trip.

Hildebrand Visitor—W. H. Elias of Hildebrand, is among the visitors in the city this week from his ranch in the neighboring district.

Returns to Home—John A. Harvey, brother of Mrs. Nate Otterbein, is planning to leave today for his home in Santa Ana, after spending some time in the southern part of the state and in the valley as well. Harvey is a prominent lawyer of the California city.

Leaving for the East—J. Iverson who has spent the past summer in Klamath Falls is planning to leave today for his old home in Barney, North Dakota, where he will remain for the winter.

Banks and Schools to Close—The banks of Klamath Falls and all public schools will be closed the entire day, Armistice day, in commemoration of the soldier dead. The announcement of the schools closing was made some time ago by Superintendent of Schools J. Percy Wells.

Resigns Position—Edward J. Clarke who recently recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia, has resigned his position in the Klamath Clothing Company and plans to leave the latter part of the coming week for Arizona, where he will remain for the winter. Clarke's health could not stand the severe winter of the Klamath country and at the advice of physicians is leaving for the south. His many friends will regret sincerely his departure.

Returning Home—Mrs. Wayne Akers and small son Richard Wayne and Mrs. Akers' mother Mrs. E. J. Titus of Eugene, are arriving in the city Sunday, according to Akers yesterday. Mrs. Akers has been visiting at the home of her mother for the past month.

On Southern Trip—Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Montellus are leaving today for a two weeks' trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other southern cities. They will make the trip by motor.

Rancher in from Olene—Included in the out of town visitors in the city this week was L. J. Horton, in yesterday to transact affairs from his ranch beyond Olene.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

We Want Your Business
We Treat You Right
We Serve You Properly
Evans Bros. New Jewelers.
832 Main Street

Luxite Hosiery
Full Fashioned

Made on the idea that our success is inter-dependent with that of our customers—and that by selling them Luxite—a hose with a reputation for quality, wear and beauty, we also help ourselves. French, Nude, Log Cabin, Airedale, Peach, Cloud, Sunbeam, Cordovan.

$1.95
Houston-Jester

Interwoven Hosiery FOR MEN

EVERY PAIR GUARANTEED
The finest line of Men's Sox is ready for your inspection.

Lisle—Silk and Lisle—Silks—Wool and Silk and Wool. Some beautiful, new patterns.
35c—50c—75c and up to $1.50

We make good here at the store every pair of Interwoven that does not give satisfactory wear.

This store will be closed at noon today ARMISTICE DAY

Before You Buy Hosiery From a Canvasser CONSIDER THESE FACTS:

We sell you hosiery of a better quality at less money, despite the fact that the canvasser will tell you that he can sell his goods at a much lower price because he sells direct from the factory. He neglects to tell you, however, that he receives a commission on every sale, the branch and district managers receive a commission, and down the line.

You Know Gordon Hosiery and You Know Us

DO YOU KNOW THE PEDDLER ? AND HIS GOODS

We can prove that our goods are superior to any canvasser's every price. And do not forget you need only purchase a pair at a time from us, whereas the peddler requires that you buy at least three pairs at a time. We are tax payers—we support the schools—we donate to the Red Cross and every worthy cause that comes along. We employ local men. Our interests are centered in Klamath Falls. All we possess is quality. Consider the difference and

Spend Your Money At Home

No. 290—Gordon Genuine Full Fashioned Hosiery. A pure thread silk hose with lisle tops, heels and toes to insure long wear. In every shade that the canvasser has to offer. Single pairs $2.00, by the box of three pairs

$5.50

No. 515—Gordon Quality Hosiery. High quality material into this exceptional hose, and fulfill demand of part women. The name Gordon insure Quality vice and Satisfaction. Single pairs $2.00 the box

$5.50

No. 6664—Burlington—"Never mend" guaranteed hosiery. Toes, heels and soles specially reinforced with strong mercerized lisle. With extra elastic mercerized lisle tops. All shades. We defy any canvasser to beat this hosiery at the price, $1.25 a pair, box of (3 pair $3.00)

GORDON HOSIERY

GORDON HOSIERY

Truth In Advertising

HOTEL
EVERY ROOM has...
50% Baths
Close to Shopping Center
FREE GARAGE

PUBLIC MARKET
WILL CLOSE AT 12 N
ARMISTICE DAY