

Marshfield they will attend the Oregon Agricultural-Oregon game at Eugene.

Mills P. T. A. Meets—Members of the Mills Parent-Teachers association met on Tuesday afternoon in the Mills school with 35 students present. Mrs. Hammell and Mrs. Thomas gave very interesting reports on the state convention of Parent-Teachers association which met last month in Portland. Plans were laid for a food sale which will be given tonight in the school building when food will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. A short musical program has been planned for the evening's entertainment which will be topped off with pie and coffee.

Leaves for Portland—Mrs. L. F. Meredith left for Portland Thursday morning to attend the wedding of her daughter, Miss Velma B. Meredith to Everett Jensen of Portland. She will be absent from Klamath Falls for about three weeks and plans to visit as well with her son Clatus C. Meredith, now a student in the University of Oregon at Eugene. Other members also live in Portland, where Mrs. Meredith will visit. Mrs. Meredith is the mother of Mrs. Lula B. Hutchens of the Lakeview route.

Elks Program Tonight—Beginning tonight at 8:00 o'clock sharp an interesting program has been prepared at the Elks' temple, featuring the Normandy singers and bell ringers who will specialize in charge of the program, the affair is welcomed as a good bit of vaudeville. The admission charge is 75c, followed by a jitney dance open to the audience and public as well.

Edison Club Meets—A good attendance was enjoyed by Kedron club members last night when they met in the First Presbyterian church parlors for a brief business meeting. The hostesses for the evening were Miss Augusta Parker and Miss Frances Beatty.

Cars Register—Although the weather has little or nothing to do with the registration of foreign cars in the chamber of commerce only three were sent into the secretary of state yesterday from the registration bureau. Those to register were John G. Simmons of Santa Rosa; H. E. McDaniel of Lake City, California and James A. Griffith of Sacramento.

Troop Meets Thursday—Troop number three of the Klamath Falls boy scouts met last night in the Catholic academy with the scout master to discuss matters of importance pertaining to the winter activities. The scouts are looking forward to the first heavy snowfall of the winter in order to make a good ski hike or use snow shoes.

Move to Ninth Street—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Patrick have taken an apartment at 526 North Ninth street for the winter months. They moved into their new home on Wednesday evening.

In from Beatty—Frank L. Schmitz is included in the business visitors to spend some time in the city yesterday from his home in Beatty, where he conducts a store.

To Meet Tonight—Boy scout troops number two and four will meet tonight for their regular scout meeting. Troop number two will meet in the Presbyterian church and troop number four will meet in Mills Addition school.

Shopping from Olene—Mrs. Fred

Relling of Olene is among the shoppers and visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Here from Agency—J. H. Short was a business visitor in the city yesterday from his home in Klamath Agency.

Leaving for Portland—Claude Houghton of the Lamm Lumber company spent Thursday in Klamath Falls preparatory to leaving for Portland, where he will spend several weeks receiving treatment for his arm which has been threatened with blood poison.

To Return from South—Mrs. Hope Weston Kilbourne of the White Pelican hotel, who has been in San Francisco for several days is expected to return to Klamath Falls in the very near future. Mrs. Kilbourne has been visiting with her many friends in the southern city, her former home.

Leaving for New York—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wright are leaving today for New York, where they plan to spend several months on a pleasure trip. They will visit for several months on the Atlantic coast and spend some time with Mrs. Wright's parents, with whom she spent some time this summer.

Here from Merrill—Ed Turner is included in the business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from his home in Merrill.

Leaving for Game—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton are leaving the early part of the week for San Francisco, where they will make their permanent home. Mrs. Dalton resigned her position in the American National bank during the week. While in the south they plan to attend the Stanford-California football game at Palo Alto. They will be accompanied south by Miss Elna Jensen.

Here from Merrill—Hans Nylander is among the business visitors included in those to spend yesterday in the city from his home in Merrill.
