NT MARINE SUBJECT OF REFERENCE TALK

Nov. 13.—(Units) for government assistance of the merchant marine will be made before the national merchant marine conference at its meeting in Washington next Monday and Tuesday.

The conclusion that effective aid is necessary to the maintenance of an adequate merchant marine has been reached by the conference committee on government aid to shipping.

The committee, in its report, declares that the American ship owner and operator is handicapped by higher costs both in the building and operation of his vessels, most of which is due to the higher wages paid to the American workman and sailor.

It points out that the present deficits of the shipping board paid out of the treasury, which are in effect subsidies to foreign trade amount to $24,000,000 in out-of-pocket costs—an average subsidy, without interest or depreciation, of nearly $100,000 per annum, for each vessel operated.

On the subject of government aid the committee says: "Financial aid to shipping instead of being applied as a general ship subsidy or navigation bounty applicable to the ocean tramp and the palatial passenger lines, neither of which is particularly important at the present time as a part of the American merchant marine, should, it is believed, take the form of payment for services rendered including (a) contracts for the maintenance of services to particular trade regions of the world, especially important to our foreign trade, and the expansion of markets for our agricultural and industrial products; (b) mail contracts to provide for maintaining the higher types of service needed both in the interest of our export and import trade and for the transportation of mail."

DECLARES BUSINESSMAN

With construction being rushed on the mill of the Topsy Lumber company in order to avoid winter weather, and with the logging road being pushed to completion Dorris, Calif., is showing a marked business activity, according to W. F. McCollum, who visited Klamath Falls from there yesterday.

McCollum recently sold his hotel in Dorris to A. W. Bradshaw.

Football Special Reaches Berkeley With Crowd to Attack Bears

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 13.—Two hundred rooters were with the University of Washington football team when the players arrived for their game Saturday against the undefeated University of California bears.

The football special arrived in time for the huskies to take a light work out in the memorial stadium Friday afternoon.

Clear weather has been promised for the game, which is expected to attract some 80,000 spectators. Neither team has been defeated in conference games this fall, and the Pacific coast championship is at stake in the encounter.

California is rated as the favorite, odds of 10 to 6 being offered. Even money was being wagered on a bear victory by a seven point margin.

being the world's greatest promoter, Tex Rickard is no slouch as an optimist.

Standing amidst the dust and whirl of builders and plasterers in the new steel and concrete temple to professional sport which he has erected—and named the new Madison Square Garden, Tex informed the United News Friday that he had every hope of Luis Angel Firpo coming here in March to battle for heavyweight honors and American dollars.

Rickard whose new garden is nearly completely said he had been informed that the erstwhile "wild bull of the pampas" intended to head back for these shores in three months or so. Firpo will fight under the management of Rickard. In a cable message Firpo expresses a desire to meet Harry Wills and stated that he is in good condition and feels confident he can beat Wills.

Veteran Washington Infield Player Released By Senator Chief

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Roger Peckinpaugh, veteran Washington shortstop, who made a new record for errors in the last world's series, will be released to accept the management of the Portland, Pacific Coast league club, it was reported here today.

The rumor that Washington has waived on him could not be verified at the offices of the Senators, as the officials of the club were out of the track.

One of Peck's earliest jobs of professional baseball was done on the Portland team.

Distribution of Foods

Did you ever stop to think of the amount of food that is consumed daily? Try and comprehend, just for a moment, the millions of people that must eat daily.

Our big job in this great distribution of foods is the bringing together of all the good things to eat, and do it with quality and economy as a forethought. It is our constant aim to be able to buy right, so that we can give the public a little more for their money.

We have been receiving large shipments the last few weeks—Cars of Flour, Canned Goods, etc., and we are particularly in a position to distribute at low cost.
